SCHOOL OF LAW

GENERAL PROFILE

of the

ENTERING CLASS

SEPTEMBER 1993

FORWARD

The following general information on the 1993 entering class has been prepared to supplement admission materials assembled prior to the matriculation of the class. More complete information concerning the Law School as a whole may be obtained from the University of Virginia School of Law publication "Institutional Information Application, 1993-94."

PROFILE OF THE 1993 ENTERING CLASS

The 380 students who entered the first year of law study at the University of Virginia in August 1993 were selected from a total of 5,049 applicants from 632 different colleges and universities, 50 states, Canada, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, and 33 foreign countries. There are 209 Virginia residents and the remaining 171 came from 34 different states, Canada, the District of Columbia, Hong Kong, Kenya, Lebanon, and the United Kingdom. There were 147 women students and 42 black students.

Although widely different approaches to college grading often serve to render comparative statements about undergraduate records misleading, it is significant that most of the students in this fall's entering class ranked in the upper 20 percent of their graduating class. The median grade-point average for the entering class was 3.6 on a 4.0 scale. The median LSAT performance was 164 (ninety-first percentile). Many of these students also have completed advanced degree work. The average age was 24.

The Law School has continued its policy of giving preferred status to Virginia applicants, but a large number of highly qualified non-Virginians must be turned away for lack of space. A total of 1,184 Virginia residents applied for admission compared with 3,865 out-of-state applicants.
