Dear Hardy:

Just a word to inquire whether I could at some point, if it is convenient, come to the Hague for a visit of a half day to look about the Court and chat with you awhile.

I would come up by plane whatever day would be best for you and return the same day. If such a visit would be in any way inconvenient, I trust you will not hesitate to say so freely.

Hoping this finds you in good health, I remain

Sincerely,

Ronald P. Sokol
