Dear Ron:

As I hope you inferred, your letter of 16 February was delayed in reaching me as it was forwarded from The Hague.

Of course I would be delighted to see you at any time. Val and I return to The Hague on April 3. How long we will be there is subject to some uncertainty but I would suppose at least two months. However the best bet would be for you to telephone a couple of days ahead of your contemplated visit to be sure the coast is clear.

We will be staying at the Promenade Hotel (Tel. 070-57-41-21). The Court is dedicating a new annex to the Peace Palace on April 4 and it may be that this will involve a shift in telephone numbers. As of now, however, the Peace Palace telephone number is 070-92-44-41.

I meant to write you sometime ago about your book which I read with interest. Keep up the good work. To repeat, I will be delighted to see you any time.

Yours,

Hardy C. Dillard
