Dear Ron.,

Thanks for your letter of 2May. It was jolly seeing you in Paris and I do hope our paths will cross again soon. I hasten to add, however, that we will not return to Den Haag until October 1. Hearings on the jurisdictional issue in the Aegean-Sea Case are scheduled to commence on October 4. If you wish to see the Court in motion you should come up during that week. This assumes no further delay is in the offing. Since this is by no means certain, you should check in advance. Of course Val and I will be delighted to see you.

Somewhere in the Chaos that passes for my filing system I have an "official" ~~pic~~ photo in the Court gown and that silly little Belgian lace jabeau. If and when I can lay my hand on it I will send it to you. At the same time I disclaim the right to be in the exalted company depicted in your letter. Missing from your gallery was your friend Darwin!

Tom Bergin was quite interested in that write-up of you in the Herald- Tribune. If you have not ^{already sent him one} ~~done so~~, I am sure Dan Meador would like to receive a copy.

Val sends her best,

Yours

Harry
