Dear Hardy,

I did get your photograph and was absolutely delighted with it! I wrote you at your Charlottesville address immediately upon receiving it and am very sorry you have not received the letter as I fervently expressed my appreciation both for the photo and for your very kind and flattering inscription. The photo, moreover, is a magnificent one. It occupies a place of honor in my office with Justice Black to your left and Mark Twain to your right. Thank you again for your kindness in sending it.

Your letter makes me regret very much having missed the hearings. My very kindest regards to you and Valerie. I hope that I shall be able to see you again when I next get to Charlottesville. If you should come to Paris or the South of France, I do hope you will let me know. I have a comfortable flat above my office and you are always welcome here.

As ever,

Ronald P. Sokol

P.S. Has Dan regained any of his sight? I have not heard from him since his last series of operations in August.
