Dear Dan,

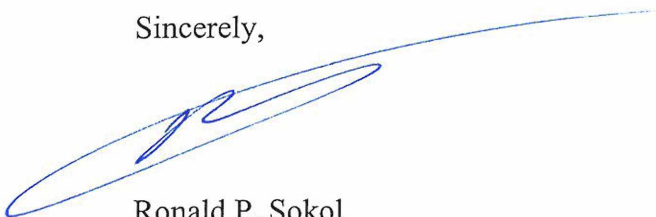

I have in front of me your Christmas letters from 1998 and 1999 and your last letter of November 9th. My Millennium Wish is to catch up. I suppose one does that in the next life or in our next reincarnation. I am not optimistic about doing so in this one.

Please accept our best wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year.

I shall be very happy to meet Bert Steindorf. Please tell him to phone me when he arrives, if he has not already done so. I see from your letter that he is due here in mid-January, so he may in fact already be here.

I apologize for this very short letter, but I am struggling to remain abreast of work which seems to increase yearly. We are all well and thriving and hope it is the same for you and your family.

Sincerely,

Ronald P. Sokol
