

Continuing Legal Education Credit: Members of the Virginia Bar attending the program will be eligible to receive up to 7.5 credit hours from the Virginia Mandatory CLE Board. (No ethics hours.) Credits for this program have been pre-approved by the Board and are allowed for hours of presentation actually attended. Attendees from other States who wish credit under other CLE systems may forward to the Administrator of the Sokol Colloquium the necessary forms and information needed to apply for such credit.

THE GUSTAVE SOKOL PROGRAM on private international law was established in 1976 under a grant from the Gustave Sokol Fund. Biennial two-day colloquia bring together distinguished scholars, practitioners and government officials from this country and abroad to discuss in detail a current topic of private international law.
