Resolution 1991/11. Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

2. In paragraph 3 of resolution 1991/11, the Commission on Human Rights emphasized again the importance of adequate recourse procedures for victims of racism and racial discrimination, and therefore requested once again the Secretary-General, in the light of the results of the seminars held on this topic, to prepare and finalize, with the assistance of experts in the field, a handbook of recourse procedures.

3. In paragraph 17, the Commission requested the Secretary-General to organize in 1991 a meeting of representatives of national institutions and organizations promoting tolerance and harmony and combating racism and racial discrimination with a view to exchanging experience on the promotion of such objectives, which was scheduled for 1990.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

4. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr. 1).

5. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 2.1 - Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups

Output: (xii) Substantive servicing of 10 seminars and workshops scheduled to be held under the Programme of Action to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination (XB).

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

6. A meeting of representatives of national institutions and organizations promoting tolerance and harmony and combating racism and racial discrimination with a view to exchanging experience on the promotion of such objectives will be held in Geneva in 1991, subject to the availability of extrabudgetary resources. In addition, consultants will be required for the preparation of background papers and to prepare and finalize a handbook of recourse procedures. Three work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level to carry out substantive preparatory work for the holding of the meeting will also be required.

D. Additional requirements at full cost

7. On the assumption that the meeting will be held in Geneva using the six official languages of the United Nations over a period of five working days, the costs are estimated as follows:

	1991 (US dollars)
Extrabudgetary resources

E. Potential for absorption

Conference-servicing costs

8. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 6 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements will be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 of the programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991. However, as indicated in paragraph 29.5 of the programme budget, the 1990-1991 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 are consistent with the pattern of meetings in past years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 29 of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

Other

9. As indicated in paragraph 5 above, the output is scheduled in the 1990-1991 programme budget subject to extrabudgetary resources. Therefore, the participants' travel and consultancy fees will only be able to be undertaken based on the availability of extrabudgetary resources.

10. The costs for general temporary assistance ($20,800) will be provided for from the programme budget.

11. Specifically, as described in paragraph 23.37, section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget, resources were approved by the General Assembly for general temporary assistance for, inter alia, the preparation of Secretariat studies, report, summaries and analyses.

12. In summary, the estimated amount of $160,000 will be provided from available extrabudgetary resources, and the amount of $20,800 for general temporary assistance will be provided for from resources in the programme budget for 1990-1991.

Resolution 1991/18. Question of the realization in all countries of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and study of special problems which the developing countries face in their efforts to achieve these human rights

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

13. In paragraph 11 of resolution 1991/18, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Secretary-General to organize, under the United Nations programme of human rights activities in 1992-1993, an expert seminar for discussion of appropriate indicators to measure achievements in the progressive realization of economic, social and cultural rights.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

14. The activities referred to above fall under Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights, subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical co-operation", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.27 to 35.37, of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

15. The activity is included in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 under the following programme element of section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation):

Output: (i) Seminars/workshops on a specific human rights subject (three each in 1992 and 1993).

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

16. In order to carry out the request contained in paragraph 11 of the resolution, an expert seminar for the discussion of appropriate indicators to measure achievements in the progressive realization of economic, social and cultural rights will have to be organized in 1992-1993. The activities envisaged for the implementation of this request will include consultations in Geneva by the Special Rapporteur, the participation of several representatives from Governments and United Nations organs in the seminar and necessary assistance.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

17. No modifications are required in the proposed programme of work for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

18. On the assumption that the workshop will be held in Geneva in 1992:

F. Potential for absorption

Conference-servicing costs

19. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 18 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements will be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 32 of the proposed programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1992-1993. However, as indicated in the proposed programme budget, the 1992-1993 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the proposed programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1992-1993 were consistent with the pattern of meetings in previous years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 32 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

20. The relevant costs to be financed under section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) are estimated at $93,200 for 1992.

21. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provisions under section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation), thus making it unnecessary to request any additional appropriation or to have recourse to the contingency fund.

Resolution 1991/19. Respect for the right of everyone to own property alone as well as in association with others

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

22. In paragraph 3 of resolution 1991/19, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Chairman to entrust an independent expert with the task of preparing a study, within the existing resources, on the means whereby and the degree to which respect for the right to own property alone as well as in association with others contributes to the development of individual liberty and initiative, which serve to foster, strengthen and enhance the exercise of other human rights and fundamental freedoms, and requested that a preliminary report be submitted to the Commission at its forty-eighth session and the final report at its forty-ninth session.

23. In paragraph 4 the Commission further requested the independent expert, in preparing the study, to analyse the right to own property alone as well as in association with others in relation to the following types of property, taking into consideration the question of social justice and the ways to achieve it:

(a) Personal property, including the residence of one's self and family;

(b) Economically productive property, including property associated with agriculture, commerce and industry.

24. In paragraph 5, the Commission decided to consider the question at its forty-eighth session under the agenda item "Question of the realization in all countries of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and study of special problems which the developing countries face in their efforts to achieve these human rights".

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

25. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 4, "Standard setting, research and studies", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.38 and 6.40 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 4, "Research, studies and standard-setting", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.38 to 35.43 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

26. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 will be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 4.2 - Research and Studies

Output: (xv) Preparation of one report of the Secretary-General for submission to the General Assembly on the right to property, pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 43/123 and 43/124.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 4 - Research, Studies and Standard-setting

2. Parliamentary services

(iii) The General Assembly

Output: (t) Report on the right to property

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

27. In order to carry out the requests contained in paragraph 3 of the resolution, which entail reporting obligations for the independent expert, sources of information will have to be identified and the required research conducted. This will require the services of a consultant as well as secretarial assistance. It is envisaged that the independent Expert will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days each trip in May/June of 1991 and 1992 for consultations at the Centre for Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

28. No modification is required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

29. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992
	(US dollars)
Two round trips to Geneva of the independent Expert for consultations at the Centre for Human Rights, May/June 1991 and May/June 1992 (5 working days each)
Travel and subsistence	2 700	2 700
Consultancy Services
6 work-months at the P-3 level	41 600	-
General temporary assistance

Total	----- 62 800 -----	----- 2 700 -----

F. Potential for absorption

30. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights) respectively are estimated at $62,800 for 1991 and $2,700 for 1992.

Resolution 1991/21. Situation of human rights in South Africa

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

31. In paragraph 20 of resolution 1991/21, the Commission on Human Rights decided to renew for a further period of two years, the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on Southern Africa.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

32. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

33. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 will be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (iii) Substantive preparation and servicing of four meetings of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on Southern Africa, including the gathering and analysis of materials, the organization of hearings, field visits, consultations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (iv) Preparation of two reports of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on Southern Africa, to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international instruments and procedures

Component III - Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International cooperation

Output: Substantive servicing of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on Southern Africa.

2. Parliamentary services

Output: Preparation and submission of six reports by the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on Southern Africa to the General Assembly, the Economic and Social Council and the Commission on Human Rights, respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

34. In order to determine the programme budget implications of the resolution, the following assumptions were made:

(a) In July 1991 the Ad Hoc Working Group, accompanied by substantive administrative and conference servicing staff of the Secretariat (including a press officer), will carry out a field mission of approximately two weeks to South Africa for the purpose of hearing testimony and gathering first-hand information on matters falling within its mandate. These meetings will be followed by one week of meetings in Geneva to finalize its preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session.

(b) As an alternative to subparagraph (a) above, the Ad Hoc Working Group will meet in London in July 1991 for one week followed by one week of meetings in Geneva to finalize its preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session.

(c) In October/November 1991 the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Group will submit the report of the Group to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session.

(d) In December 1991 the Ad Hoc Working Group will meet in Geneva for two weeks to consider and adopt its interim report for submission to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

(e) In February 1992 the Chairman-Rapporteur will submit an interim report of the Ad hoc Working Group to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

(f) In July 1992 the Ad Hoc Working Group, accompanied by substantive administrative and conference servicing staff of the Secretariat (including a press officer), will carry out a field mission of approximately two and a half weeks to South Africa for the purpose of hearing testimony and gathering first-hand information on matters falling within its mandate. These meetings will be followed by one week of meetings in Geneva to finalize its preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

(g) As an alternative to subparagraph (f) above, in July/August 1992 the Ad Hoc Working Group, accompanied by substantive administrative and conference servicing staff of the Secretariat, will carry out a field mission of approximately three weeks to Dar-es-Salaam, Lusaka, Harare and London for the purpose of hearing testimony and gathering first-hand information on matters falling within its mandate. These meetings will be followed by one week of meetings in Geneva to finalize its preliminary report to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

(h) In October/November 1992 the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Group will submit the report of the Group to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

(i) In December 1992 the Ad Hoc Working Group will meet in Geneva for two weeks to consider and adopt its final report for submission to the Commission at its forty-ninth session.

(j) In February 1993 the Chairman-Rapporteur will submit a final report of the Ad hoc Working Group to the Commission at its forty-ninth session.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

35. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 (see programme element 1.3) or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

36. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

F. Potential for absorption

Conference-servicing costs

37. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 36 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements will be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 B and section 32, respectively, of the proposed programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991 and 1992-1993. However, as indicated in the programme budget for 1990-1991 and the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993, the 1990-1991 and 1992-1993 levels of resources for temporary assistance for meetings were estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 and 1992-1993 were consistent with the pattern of meetings in previous years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 29 B of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and section 32 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

38. The relevant costs to be financed under sections 23 and 28 (Human rights) respectively are estimated at $262,300 for 1991; $309,000 for 1992; and $43,700 for 1993.

39. The relevant costs under sections 27 and 31 (Department of Public Information) respectively for the travel and subsistence of a press officer for the above-mentioned missions are estimated at $6,300 for 1991 and $6,500 for 1992.

40. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources and therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/25. Internally displaced persons

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

41. In paragraph 4 of resolution 1991/25, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session an analytical report on internally displaced persons, taking into account the protection of human rights of internally displaced persons, based on information submitted by Governments, the specialized agencies, relevant United Nations organs, regional and intergovernmental organizations, the International Committee of the Red Cross and non-governmental organizations.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

42. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

43. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (...) Substantive servicing of 10 mandates per annum entrusted to the Secretary-General dealing with alleged violations of human rights, as decided upon by policy-making organs before or during the biennium including gathering and analysis of materials, correspondence and consultations with Governments, intergovernmental, non-governmental organizations and individuals in connection with alleged violations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of 14 reports per annum to the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on mandates entrusted to the Secretary-General in the previous output.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

44. In order to implement the request contained in the resolution it will be necessary to collect all relevant materials and to engage a process of consultations with the sources mentioned in paragraph 4 of the resolution. It will also be required to analyse the information thus obtained and to draft the corresponding report.

45. Five work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and two work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material and in the preparation of the report to the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

46. For the programme of work for 1990-1991 two outputs will have to be added to programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies, reading as follows:

Output: (...) Substantive servicing of 10 mandates per annum entrusted to the Secretary-General dealing with alleged violations of human rights, as decided upon by policy-making organs before or during the biennium including gathering and analysis of materials, correspondence and consultations with Governments, intergovernmental, non-governmental organisations and individuals in connection with alleged violations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of 14 reports per annum to the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on mandates entrusted to the Secretary-General in the previous output.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

47. The estimated cost of the above programme of work for 1991 is itemized as follows:

	1991 (US dollars)
General temporary assistance
Five work-months at P-3 level	34 600
Two work-months at General Service level	9 300
	-----
Total	43 900
	-----

F. Potential for absorption

48. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $43,900 for 1991.

49. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/38. Torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment: Report of the Special Rapporteur

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

50. In paragraphs 13, 15 and 20 of resolution 1991/38, the Commission on Human Rights decided that the Special Rapporteur in carrying out his mandate should continue to seek and receive credible and reliable information from Governments, the specialized agencies, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations; invited the Special Rapporteur, in carrying out his mandate, to bear in mind the need to be able to respond effectively to credible and reliable information that comes before him and to carry his work with discretion; and requested the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur in order to enable him to submit his report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

51. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

52. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in the previous output.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

53. The Commission's attention is drawn to its resolution 1990/34 by which it decided to extend for two years the mandate of the Special Rapporteur (para. 13) and to the respective administrative and programme budget implications adopted by the Commission at its forty-sixth session (E/1990/22/Add.1 - E/CN.4/1990/94/Add.1, paras. 60-69). It should be noted that during the period March 1990 - February 1991 the Special Rapporteur carried out his mandate in keeping with the provisions of resolution 1990/34 and paragraph 63 of the aforementioned administrative and programme budget implications. Nevertheless, the Secretariat servicing the Special Rapporteur has had to cope with an increasing and unforeseen volume of information submitted by governments and non-governmental sources. The volume of information is expected to continue to increase in 1991-1992, in particular, information submitted in relation to Commission resolution 1990/75 on the consequences of acts of violence committed by irregular armed groups and drug traffickers for the enjoyment of human rights, and resolution 1990/76 on cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies. (The Commission had before it resolutions 1991/29 and 1991/70 respectively, by which it decided to continue the consideration of these questions for another year.) In this connection, reference should also be made to resolution 1991/31, entitled "Human rights and thematic mandates", by which the Commission encouraged thematic Special Rapporteurs and the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to follow closely the progress made by Governments in their investigations carried out within their respective mandates.

54. In the light of the above considerations and in order to enable the Special Rapporteur to carry out his mandate effectively as called for in paragraphs 13 and 15 of resolution 1991/38, five additional work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and one additional work-month at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur during the remaining period of his mandate (March 1991 - February 1992) in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials, follow up of pertinent government investigations, as well as in the preparation for and conduct of missions and in the preparation of the report to be submitted to the Commission.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

55. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

56. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991 (US dollars)
General temporary assistance
Five work-months at P-3 level	34 600
One work-month at General Service level	4 600
	-----
Total	39 200
	-----

F. Potential for absorption

57. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human Rights) are estimated at $39,200 for 1991.

58. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates under section 23 (Human rights).

Resolution 1991/39. Independence and impartiality of the judiciary, jurors and assessors and the independence of lawyers

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

59. By draft decision 9 recommended for adoption by the Economic and Social Council, under Commission resolution 1991/39, Mr. Louis Joinet would be entrusted with the preparation of a report on strengthening the independence of the judiciary and the protection of practising lawyers.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

60. The activities referred to above would fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 4, "Standard setting, research and studies", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.38 and 6.40 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

61. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 4.2 - Research and studies

Intermediate Output: Assistance to Special Rapporteurs or experts for the preparation of 15 reports, studies and working papers mandated by policy-making organs.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

62. In order to carry out the requests contained in the draft decision, the following activities are envisaged. These activities would be based on a plan that the Special Rapporteur proposes to follow in carrying out his mandate. The plan envisages, inter alia, the following activities:

(a) Information would have to be compiled and analysed regarding specific measures taken by governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organisations, including professional associations of judges and lawyers, to strengthen or to undermine the independence of the judiciary or on practices which have undermined this independence;

(b) A system-wide analysis of the advisory services and technical assistance or programmes of the United Nations as regards the independence of the judiciary would have to be carried out, and means proposed by which the cooperation between the programmes could be enhanced;

(c) Guidelines and criteria for the provision of these services should be set forth;

(d) Consultations with United Nations organs, especially the Branch on Crime Prevention and Treatment of Offenders, in Vienna, in order to coordinate the activities in the field of administration of justice within the United Nations system in accordance with General Assembly resolution 45/166;

(e) Consultations by the Special Rapporteur at the Centre for Human Rights in Geneva would be required for a period of five working days on two occasions (one for consultations for setting up the methodology and guidelines and another for the finalisation of the draft report to be submitted to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities).

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

63. No modification is required in the programme of work for 1990-1991.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

64. The estimated cost of the programme of work is itemized as follows:

1991
(US dollars)

One round trip to Vienna in 1991
for consultation with United Nations organs (5 working days)

Travel and subsistence 2 800

Two round trips to Geneva in 1991 for consultations and to finalize the draft report at the Centre
(5 working days)

Travel and subsistence 4 400

General temporary assistance

Four work-months at the P-3 level 27 700

Four work-months at the General Service level 18 500

Total 53 400

F. Potential for absorption

65. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $53,400 for 1991.

66. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources will normally be provided under section 23 (Human rights).

Resolution 1991/41. Question of enforced or involuntary disappearances

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

67. In paragraphs 3 and 16 of resolution 1991/41, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to report on its work to the Commission at its forty-eighth session and requested the Secretary-General to ensure that the Working Group received all necessary assistance, in particular the staff and resources it requires to perform its functions, especially in carrying out missions or holding sessions in countries which are prepared to receive it. In paragraph 24, the Commission recommended for adoption by the Economic and Social Council, draft resolution II by which the Council would authorize an open-ended working group of the Commission to meet for a period of two weeks prior to the forty-eighth session of the Commission to consider the draft declaration on the protection of all persons from enforced or involuntary disappearance, submitted by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1990/32, annex), with a view to its adoption by the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

68. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", and subprogramme 4 "Standard-setting, research and studies" the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 and paragraphs 6.38 and 6.40 respectively of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6) as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

69. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme elements of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (v) Substantive preparation and servicing of six meetings of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances, including the gathering and analysis of materials, the organization of hearings, field visits, consultations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (vi) Preparation of two reports of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights.

Programme element 4.2 - Research and studies

Output: (vi) Preparation of two reports of the Secretary-General for submission to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities containing information on developments within the United Nations system regarding the human rights of persons subjected to detention or imprisonment, pursuant to Commission resolution 1988/33, (third quarter, 1990 and 1991).

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

70. The Commission's attention is drawn to its resolution 1990/30 by which it decided to extend for two years the mandate of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances (paras. 3 and 4) and to the respective administrative and programme budget implications adopted by the Commission at its forty-sixth session (E/1990/22/Add.1 - E/CN.4/1990/94/Add.1, paras. 49-59). It should be noted that during the period March 1990 - February 1991 the Working Group carried out its mandate in keeping with the provisions of resolution 1990/30 and paragraph 54 of the aforementioned administrative and programme budget implications. Nevertheless, the Secretariat servicing the Working Group has had to cope with an increasing and unforeseen volume of information submitted by Governments and non-governmental sources. The volume of information is expected to continue to increase in 1991-1992, in particular, information submitted in relation with Commission resolution 1990/75 on the consequences of acts of violence committed by irregular armed groups and drug traffickers for the enjoyment of human rights, and resolution 1990/76 on cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies. (By resolutions 1991/29 and 1991/70, respectively, the Commission decided to continue the consideration of these questions for another year.) In this connection, reference should also be made to resolution 1991/31, entitled "Human rights and thematic procedures", by which the Commission encouraged thematic Special Rapporteurs and the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to follow closely the progress made by Governments in their investigations carried out within their respective mandates.

71. In the light of the above considerations and in order to enable the working group to carry out its mandate effectively, 5 additional work-months of temporary assistance at the P-4 level, 3 at the P-3 level and 15 additional work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the working group during the remaining period of its mandate (March 1991 - February 1992) in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials, follow up of pertinent government investigations, as well as in the preparation for and conduct of missions and in the preparation of the report to be submitted to the Commission. Meetings of the open-ended working group will be held in Geneva in 1991. It has been noted that the air travel expenses of the members concerned will be covered under the normal provision for the attendance of members of the Commission.

71 bis No modification is required in the programme of work for 1990-1991, since the activity appears under programme element 1.3.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

72. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

1991
(US dollars)

Section 23 of the programme budget

General temporary assistance

Five work-months at P-4 level	41 900
Three work-months at P-3 level	20 800
Fifteen work-months at General Service level	69 500
	-----
Total	132 200
	-----

Section 29 B of the programme budget

Conference servicing

I. Meeting servicing (20 meetings, A,C,E,F,R,S)	96 600
II. In-session documentation (20 pages, 5 documents: A,C,E,F,R,S)	19 400
III. Post-session documentation (20 pages, 1 document: A,C,E,F,R,S)	17 800
IV. General service and other requirements	3 500
	-----
Total	137 300
	-----

F. Potential for absorption

Conference-servicing costs

73. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 72 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements will be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 of the programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organisation's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991. However, as indicated in paragraph 29.5 of the programme budget, the 1990-1991 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 were consistent with the pattern of meetings in past years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 29 of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

74. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $132,200 for 1991.

75. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates under section 23 (Human rights).

Resolution 1991/42. Question of arbitrary detention

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

76. By draft decision 11 recommended to the Economic and Social Council for adoption under Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/42, the Council would approve the Commission's decision to create, for a three-year period, a working group composed of five independent experts, with the task of investigating cases of detention; and would request the Chairman of the Commission, after consultation with the Bureau, to appoint the members of the working group. In paragraph 3 of Commission resolution 1991/42, the Commission decided that the working group, in carrying out its mandate, should seek and receive information from governments and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, and should receive information from the individuals concerned, their families or their representatives. In paragraph 5, the Commission requested the working group to present a comprehensive report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

77. The activities referred to above would fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

78. The following programme element of section 23, (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 will be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (...) Substantive preparation and servicing of six meetings of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, including the gathering and analysis of materials, the organization of hearings, field visits, consultations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of two reports of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international instruments and procedures

Component III - Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

2. Parliamentary Services

New Output: Substantive preparation and servicing of six meetings of the working group on arbitrary detention, including the gathering and analysis of materials, the organization of hearings, field visits, consultations and the maintenance of records.

New Output: Preparation of two reports of the working group on arbitrary detention to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

79. The substantive servicing of the working group includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to Governments as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental, non-governmental organizations and individuals related thereto; correspondence also involves the sending of circular notes verbales and letters to Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations; the preparation and servicing of three series of meetings per annum of the working group as well as the preparation of voluminous documentation for those meetings; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of reports to the Commission on Human Rights. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the working group, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

80. In order to determine the programme budget implications of the resolution, the following assumptions were made:

(a) The working group, composed of five experts, will meet in Geneva for a period of five working days in June/July 1991, in May/June 1992 and May/June 1993 to receive and examine information from Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations as well as from individuals concerned, their families or their representatives and to take the necessary decisions concerning the transcription of such information to Governments;

(b) The working group will meet in Geneva in August/September 1991, August/September 1992 and August/September 1993 for a period of five working days for the same purpose;

(c) The working group will meet in Geneva in December of 1991, 1992 and 1993 for a period of five working days to receive and examine information as well as to consider and adopt its report for submission to the Commission at its forty-eighth, forty-ninth and fiftieth sessions;

(d) In February/March of 1992, 1993 and 1994 the Chairman-Rapporteur will travel to Geneva to present the working group's report to the Commission at its forty-eighth, forty-ninth and fiftieth sessions;

(e) One staff member at the P-4 level and two at the P-3/P-2 level, one computer operations clerk and two secretaries will be required to provide the working group with the necessary services for the substantive preparation and servicing of three annual sessions, screening of incoming reports, transmittal of cases approved by the working group to Governments and the connected correspondence; and to assist the working group in the preparation of its annual report to the Commission;

(f) The amount of information received in the framework of other procedures of the Commission permits the assumption that several thousand individual cases will have to be examined and processed each year by the working group. Consequently, computer and word-processing services will be required to organize and assess the data collected on individual cases.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 and 1992-1993

81. For the programme of work for 1990-1991 and 1992-1993, two outputs will have to be added to Subprogramme 1 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies, reading as follows:

Output: (...) Substantive preparation and servicing of six meetings of the working group on arbitrary detention, including the gathering and analysis of materials, the organization of hearings, field visits, consultations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of two reports of the working group on arbitrary detention to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

82. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992	1993	1994

Section 29 B and 32 of the programme budget

Conference servicing

(not yet available)

F. Potential for absorption

Conference-servicing costs

83. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 81 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements would be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 B and section 32 respectively of the proposed programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991 and 1992-1993. However, as indicated in the programme budget for 1990-1991 and the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993, the 1990-1991 and 1992-1993 levels of resources for temporary assistance for meetings were estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 and 1992-1993 were consistent with the pattern of meetings in previous years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 29 B of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and section 32 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

84. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $383,500 for 1991; $497,300 for 1992; $500,300 for 1993 and $113,100 for 1994.

Resolution 1991/44. Human rights and the environment

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

85. By draft decision 12 recommended to the Economic and Social Council for adoption, under Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/44, the Council would approve the endorsement by the Commission of the decision of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to entrust Mrs. Fatma Zohra Ksentini, Special Rapporteur, with the task of preparing a study on human rights and the environment and would request the Secretary-General to provide her with all of the assistance she may need for the completion of this task.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

86. The activities referred to above would fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 4, "Standard setting, research and studies", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.38 and 6.40 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 4, "Research studies and standard-setting", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.38 to 35.43 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

87. The following programme element of section 23, (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 will be directly affected by the activities referred to in the draft decision:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 4.2 - Research and Studies

Intermediate output: Assistance to special rapporteurs or experts for the preparation of 15 reports, studies and working papers mandated by policy-making organs.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 4 - Research, Studies and Standard-setting

1. International cooperation

Output: (f) Study on human rights and the environment.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

88. In order to carry out the requests contained in the draft decision, the following activities are envisaged. These activities are based on a basic plan that the Special Rapporteur proposes to follow in carrying out her mandate. This plan represents a tentative outline; the Special Rapporteur may therefore require additional resources in the implementation of her mandate, although every effort will be made to keep within the parameters set out in this document. Reference is made, in this connection, to chapter II of the document prepared by the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1990/12), describing the methodology that the Special Rapporteur proposes to follow, and, in particular, paragraphs 40 and 41 containing the recommendations made. The Special Rapporteur is requested to present a preliminary report to the Sub-Commission at its forty-third session (1991), with a view to making a timely contribution to the Preparatory Committee of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development; in resolution 1991/44 it was recommended to the Preparatory Committee that the Special Rapporteur be invited to participate as an observer at its sessions and at the Conference.

(a) The outline of the report as contained in the concise note (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1990/12), and the need to coordinate the study with the schedule of the preparatory process of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development will necessitate a more concentrated time frame, as distinct from the customary three-year cycle usually followed in the preparation of such studies. Furthermore, the nature of the subject of the study will require the provision of specialized knowledge combining, in particular, international law and environmental questions. This would envisage the engagement of the services of such a specialist for a duration of approximately three months to assist the Centre for Human Rights in providing the research support required.

(b) The Special Rapporteur is required to participate as an observer at the meetings of the Preparatory Committee of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development. The Preparatory Committee is scheduled to hold three sessions in Geneva and in New York and the Conference itself is due to take place in Brazil in 1992.

(c) Consultations by the Special Rapporteur at the Centre for Human Rights at Geneva are estimated to take place for a period of five working days in 1991.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

89. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

90. The estimated cost of the programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992
	(US dollars)
Two round trips for consultation and to attend two preparatory conferences in Geneva in 1991 (3 weeks each time)
Travel and subsistence	9 400	-
One round trip to attend the final preparatory conference in New York in 1991 (3 weeks duration)
Travel and subsistence	7 800	-
One round trip to attend the conference in Brazil in 1992 (2 weeks duration)
Travel and subsistence	-	4 400
Consultancy Services
Three work-months at the P-4 level	25 100	-
	-----	-----
	42 300	4 400
	-----	-----

F. Potential for absorption

91. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $42,300 for 1991 and $4,400 for 1992.

92. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/48. Implementation of the Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

93. In paragraphs 12 and 14 of resolution 1991/48, the Commission invited the Special Rapporteur, in carrying out his mandate, to continue to bear in mind the need to be able to respond effectively to credible and reliable information that comes before him and to seek the views and comments of the Government concerned on any information which he intends to include in his report, and requested the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur to enable him to report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

94. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

95. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in the previous output.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

96. The Commission's attention is drawn to its resolution 1990/27 by which it decided to extend for two years the mandate of the Special Rapporteur (paragraph 11) and to the respective administrative and programme budget implications adopted by the Commission at its forty-sixth session (E/1990/22/Add.1-E/CN.4/1990/94/Add.1, paragraphs 39-48). It should be noted that during the period March 1990 - February 1991 the Special Rapporteur carried out his mandate in keeping with the provisions of resolution 1990/27

and paragraph 42 of the afore-mentioned administrative and programme budget implications. Nevertheless, the Secretariat servicing the Special Rapporteur has had to cope with an increasing and unforeseen volume of information submitted by governments and non-governmental sources. The volume of information is expected to continue to increase in 1991-1992, in particular, information submitted in relation with Commission resolution 1990/75 on the consequences of acts of violence committed by irregular armed groups and drug traffickers for the enjoyment of human rights, and resolution 1990/76 on cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies. (By resolutions 1991/29 and 1991/70, the Commission decided to continue the consideration of these questions for another year.) In this connection, reference should also be made to resolution 1991/31, entitled "Human Rights and thematic procedures", by which the Commission encouraged thematic Special Rapporteurs and the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to follow closely the progress made by Governments in investigations carried out within their respective mandates.

97. In the light of the above considerations and in order to enable the Special Rapporteur to carry out his mandate effectively as called for in paragraph 12 of resolution 1991/48, three additional work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material, and in the preparation of the report to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

98. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

99. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991 (US dollars)
General temporary assistance
Three work-months at P-3 level	20 800 -----

F. Potential for absorption

100. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $20,800 for 1991.

101. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates under section 23 (Human rights).

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

102. In paragraph 11 of resolution 1991/51, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Secretary-General to extend the mandate of the independent Expert so that he may continue to examine the human rights situation in Guatemala and provide assistance to the Government in the field of human rights, reporting to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

103. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical assistance in the field of human rights and publications", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.28, and 6.36 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical cooperation", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.27 to 35.37 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

104. The following programme element of section 24 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and section 12 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 3 - Advisory services and technical assistance in the field of human rights and publications

Programme element 1.1 - Training

Output: (iv) Advisory missions.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 3 - Advisory services and technical cooperation

Output: Advisory missions.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

105. It is envisaged that the independent Expert will undertake a trip to Geneva in May/June 1991 for a period of five working days to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights and organize and plan his work in relation to his mandate. In July/August 1991 the independent Expert, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out a field mission to Guatemala for a period of five working days to collect information on the spot. In September 1991, he will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to prepare his report and, in December 1991, he will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days in order to finalize it. In February/March 1992, the independent Expert will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present his report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session. Six work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Commission's independent Expert in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material and assistance in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his reports to the Commission.

106. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

107. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992
	(US dollars)
Sections 23 and 28 of the programme budget
One round trip to Geneva of the independent Expert for consultations at the Centre for Human Rights, May/June 1991 (5 working days)

F. Potential for absorption

108. The relevant costs to be financed under section 24 and section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) are estimated at $23,900 for 1991 and $2,000 for 1992.

109. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights) covering temporary assistance requirements are estimated at $48,400 for 1991 and $11,500 for 1992.

110. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provisions under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights) and section 24 and section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) respectively.

Resolution 1991/53. Report of the Special Rapporteur on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

111. In paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of resolution 1991/53, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Special Rapporteur to continue to carry out his work in the light of the mandate as enunciated in resolution 1990/68 and taking into account the conclusions and recommendations in his report; requested the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur to enable him to submit his report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session and requested the Special Rapporteur to report on his activities to the Commission at its forty-eighth session. In paragraph 7 of resolution 1991/54, the Commission requested the Special Rapporteur to consider presenting his comments and suggestions to the Sub-Commission Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery, if possible, by attending its meetings.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

112. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

113. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of material, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International cooperation

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights.

2. Parliamentary services

Output: (Thematic Rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of two reports by the Special Rapporteur on Sale of Children to the Commission on Human Rights.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

114. It is envisaged that the Special Rapporteur will travel to Geneva in May/June 1991 for a period of five working days to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights and to organize and plan the work in relation to the mandate. The Special Rapporteur will travel to Geneva in July/August 1991 to present his comments and suggestions to the Sub-Commission Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery. The Special Rapporteur will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days in December 1991/January 1992 to finalize the report to the Commission. In February/March 1992, the Special Rapporteur will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present the report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session. In order to respond to invitations from Governments, the Special Rapporteur, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, would undertake a maximum of three field missions during the period 1991-1992.

115. The substantive servicing of the Special Rapporteur includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of the report to the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Rapporteur, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Rapporteur, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

116. Ten work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and seven work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials, as well as in the preparation for and conduct of missions, and in the preparation of the report to the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

117. No modification is required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

118. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992
	(US dollars)
One round trip to Geneva of the Special Rapporteur for consultations at the Centre for Human Rights, (May/June 1991) (5 working days)

F. Potential for absorption

119. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $104,100 for 1991 and $34,000 for 1992.

120. Should the services of an interpreter be required during the field missions, salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $5,000 for each mission to be financed normally under sections 29 B and 32 (Conference Services Division, Geneva), respectively.

121. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/56. Work of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities at its forty-second session

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

122. In paragraph 20 of resolution 1991/56, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Chairman of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to report to the Commission on the implementation of the guidelines which the Commission provided in the resolution.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

123. The activities referred to above fall under "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 2, "Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.19 to 35.26 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

124. The following activity of section 28 (Human rights) of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Subprogramme 2 - Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups

2. Parliamentary Services -
Substantive servicing

Output: (b) The Commission on Human Rights.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

125. It is envisaged that the Chairman of the Sub-Commission will travel to Geneva in 1992 for a period of five working days in order to report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

126. No modifications are required in the proposed programme of work for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

127. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

1992
(US dollars)

One round trip to Geneva of the Chairman of the Sub-Commission
(five working days)

Travel and subsistence 2 700 j/

F. Potential for absorption

128. The relevant costs to be financed under section 28 (Human rights) are estimated at $2,700 for 1992.

129. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/59. Report of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

130. In paragraph 5 of resolution 1991/59, the Commission recommended that the Economic and Social Council authorize the Working Group on Indigenous Populations to meet for 10 working days prior to the forty-third session of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities.

131. In paragraph 8 (d), the Secretary-General was requested to organize a regional training course in Latin America on the United Nations, human rights and indigenous people, as a matter of the highest priority and in accordance with Sub-Commission resolution 1990/26 of 31 August 1990, and for this purpose to utilize to the greatest possible extent the expertise of the members of the Working Group and of indigenous peoples' organizations.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

132. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 2, "Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups", and subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical assistance in the field of human rights and publications", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.25, 6.27, 6.28 and 6.36 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

133. The activities are included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) and section 24 (Regular programme of technical cooperation):

Section 23

Programme element 2.1 - Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups

Output: (xix) Substantive servicing of two sessions of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations.

Subprogramme 3 - Advisory services and technical cooperation in the field of human rights

Section 24

Programme element 1.1 - Training

Output: (ii) Training courses on human rights.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

134. The resolution is based on the substantive progress that was made on the working text of the draft universal declaration on the rights of indigenous peoples during the eighth session of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations.

135. In order to carry out the requests contained in the resolution, the following activities are envisaged. These activities are based on a basic plan that the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations proposes to follow in carrying out of her mandate, in particular in view of the current working method of the Working Group, based on a continued participation of and dialogue between representatives of indigenous peoples, Governments and members of the Working Group. Reference is made, in this connection, to paragraphs 2 and 3 of the recommendations of the report of the eighth session of the Working Group on Indigenous Peoples (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1990/42). Programme budget implications given in the present document relate to activities (b) and (c) of the plan as presented below:

(a) Copies of the Working Group's report will be transmitted to Governments, indigenous peoples and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations;

(b) The Chairman-Rapporteur will continue with the task of preparing an extensive analytical commentary on the articles of the draft declaration, based on her first revised text and the discussions during the eighth session of the Working Group. It is envisaged that the Chairman-Rapporteur will travel to Geneva for one week of consultations with the Centre for Human Rights;

(c) The Secretary-General is requested to organize a regional training course on the United Nations, human rights and indigenous people, as a matter of the highest priority. For this training course 35 participants are envisaged.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

136. No modification is required in the programme of work for 1990-1991, since this activity appears under programme element 2.1 of section 23 and 1.1 of section 24.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

137. The estimated cost of the programme of work is itemized as follows:

1991
(US dollars)

Section 23 of the programme budget

One round trip of the Chairman-Rapporteur to Geneva for consultations (5 working days)

Travel and subsistence 2 700

Additional daily subsistence allowance for the members of the Working Group for one extra week

(It has been noted that the travel expenses of the members concerned would be covered under the normal provision for the attendance at the Sub-Commission)

Subsistence 8 800

Conference-servicing costs

138. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 8 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements will be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 of the programme budget, and that additional resources will be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991. However, as indicated in paragraph 29.5 of the programme budget, the 1990-1991 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 are consistent with the pattern of meetings in past years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources will be required under section 29 of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 as a result of the adoption of the resolution.

139. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $11,500 and under section 24 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) $87,500 for 1991.

140. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources will normally be provided under section 23 (Human rights) and section 24 (Regular programme of technical cooperation).

Resolution 1991/61. Rights of persons belonging to national, ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

141. By operative paragraph 1 of resolution V recommended for adoption by the Economic and Social Council, under Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/61, the Council would authorize an open-ended working group of the Commission to meet for 20 fully-serviced meetings in an inter-sessional session at the beginning of December 1991 to complete its second reading of the draft declaration on the rights of persons belonging to national, ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities, and with a view to submitting the text to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

142. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 4, "Standard setting, research and studies", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.38 and 6.40 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

143. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 4.1 - Standard setting

Output: (v) Substantive servicing of two pre-sessional working groups of the Commission on Human Rights to draft a declaration on the rights of persons belonging to national, ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

144. Meetings of the open-ended working group would be held in Geneva in 1991. It has been noted that the air travel expenses of the members concerned would be covered under the normal provision for the attendance of members of the Commission.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

145. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991.

E. Additional requirements at full costs

146. On the assumption that the meeting would be held in Geneva in 1991 over period of 10 working days, the conference costs are estimated as follows:

Conference-servicing costs

147. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 146 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements would be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 29 of the programme budget, and that additional resources would be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1990-1991. However, as indicated in paragraph 29.5 of the programme budget, the 1990-1991 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1990-1991 are consistent with the pattern of meetings in past years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources would be required under section 29 of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 as a result of the adoption of the draft resolution.

Resolution 1991/63. Question of a draft declaration on the right and responsibility of individuals, groups and organs of society to promote and protect universally recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

148. By operative paragraph 1 of draft resolution VI recommended for adoption by the Economic and Social Council, under Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/63, the Council would authorize an open-ended working group to meet for a period of 10 working days prior to the forty-eighth session of the Commission with a view to continuing, and if possible completing, work on a draft declaration on the right and responsibility of individuals, groups and organs of society to promote and protect universally recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

149. The activities referred to above would fall under "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 2, "Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.19 to 35.26 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

150. The following activities of section 28 (Human rights) of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 are directly affected by the draft resolution.

Subprogramme 2 - 1. International cooperation

Output: (iv) Draft declaration on the right and responsibility of individuals, groups and organs of society to promote and protect universally recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

151. Meetings of the open-ended working group would be held in Geneva in 1992. It has been noted that the air travel expenses of the members concerned would be covered under the normal provision for the attendance of members of the Commission.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

152. No modifications are required in the proposed programme of work for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

153. On the assumption that the meeting would be held in Geneva in 1992 over a period of 10 working days, the conference costs are estimated as follows:

Conference-servicing costs

154. With regard to the estimates of conference-servicing costs indicated in paragraph 153 above, these cost estimates are based on the theoretical assumption that no part of the conference-servicing requirements would be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity under section 32 of the proposed programme budget, and that additional resources would be required for temporary assistance for meetings. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity needs to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can only be determined in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1992-1993. However, as indicated in the proposed programme budget, the 1992-1993 level of resources for temporary assistance for meetings was estimated on the basis of previous experience to accommodate not only meetings which are programmed, but also additional meetings. In other words, provision was made in the proposed programme budget not only for meetings known at the time of budget preparation but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences in the biennium 1992-1993 were consistent with the pattern of meetings in previous years. On that basis, it is estimated that no additional resources would be required under section 32 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 as a result of the adoption of the draft resolution.

Resolution 1991/67 Situation of human rights in Kuwait under Iraqi occupation

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

155. In paragraph 9 of resolution 1991/67, the Commission on Human Rights decided to appoint an individual of recognized international standing as special rapporteur with a mandate to examine the human rights violations committed in occupied Kuwait by the invading and occupying forces of Iraq and to report as soon as possible to the General Assembly and to the Commission at its forty-eighth session. In paragraph 12 the Commission requested the Special Rapporteur to prepare a preliminary report as soon as possible and to transmit it to the Secretary-General for dissemination to all Member States.

B. Relationship of requests to proposed programme of work

156. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6) and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives and strategy of which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

157. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments
and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments
and procedures

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc
investigatory or fact-finding bodies

International co-operation

1.

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights,

2.

Parliamentary Services

Output: (Country-oriented rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of 8 reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

158. It is envisaged that the Commission's Special Rapporteur will undertake a trip to Geneva for a period of five working days in June/July 1991 to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights. In July/August 1991 the Special Rapporteur, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out a field mission to Kuwait for a period of 10 working days to collect information on the spot and will then proceed to Geneva for five working days in August 1991 to prepare and finalize his report to the General Assembly. In October/December 1991 the Special Rapporteur will spend five working days in New York at the time of the submission of the report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session. In December 1991/January 1992 the Special Rapporteur, will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to finalize his report to the Commission. In February/March 1992 he will again travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present his report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

159. The substantive servicing of the Special Rapporteur includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Rapporteur, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Rapporteur, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

160. Seven work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

161. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

162. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992

163. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $82,100 for 1991 and $14,200 for 1992.

164. The relevant costs for two interpreters to accompany the Special Rapporteur on his field mission, covering salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $10,000. These costs would be financed normally under section 29 B, Conference Services Division, Geneva.

Resolution 1991/68. Situation of human rights in Cuba

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

165. In paragraphs 4 and 6 of resolution 1991/68, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Secretary-General, after consultation with the Chairman and the Bureau of the Commission, to appoint a special representative, in accordance with Commission decision 1989/113, to maintain direct contact with the Government and citizens of Cuba on the issues and questions contained in, and associated with, the report of the mission which took place in Cuba (E/CN.4/1989/46 and Corr.1); and requested the appointed Special Representative to carry out his or her mandate, bearing in mind the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and report the results to the Commission at its forty-eighth session under the agenda item entitled "Question of the violation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in any part of the world, with particular reference to colonial and other dependent countries and territories" on the endeavours pursuant to this resolution.

B. Relationship of request to programme of work

166. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

167. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International co-operation

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights.

2. Parliamentary Services

Output: (Country-oriented rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of eight reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights, respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

168. It is envisaged that in order to carry out his mandate the Special Representative will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days in July 1991 to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights and to organize and plan his work in relation to his mandate. The Special Representative will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days in August/September 1991 in order to prepare his report, and in December 1991/January 1992 in order to finalize it. In February/March 1992 he will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present his report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session. In order to respond to invitations from Governments, the Special Representative accompanied by two substantive officers, will undertake a field mission in 1991.

169. The substantive servicing of the Special Representative includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies; and the preparation of the report to the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Representative, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Representative, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

170. Seven work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Representative in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his report to the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

171. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

172. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992

F. Potential for absorption

183. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human Rights), respectively, are estimated at $66,700 for 1991 and $13,000 for 1992.

184. The relevant costs for two interpreters to accompany the Special Rapporteur on his field mission, covering salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $10,000. In addition, the costs for the translation of an estimated 100 pages from Romanian into English is estimated at $6,000. These costs will be financed normally under sections 29 B ($14,000) and 32 ($2,000), Conference Services Division, Geneva, respectively.

185. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/70. Cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

186. In paragraphs 2, 4 and 5 of resolution 1991/70, the Commission on Human Rights requested all representatives of United Nations human rights bodies as well as treaty bodies monitoring the observance of human rights to continue to take urgent steps, in conformity with their mandates, to help prevent the occurrence of intimidation or reprisal as well as prevent that access to United Nations human rights procedures be hampered in any way; requested the Secretary-General to draw the attention of such representatives to this resolution; and invited the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission at its forty-eighth session a report containing any available information, from all appropriate sources, on alleged reprisals against witnesses or victims of human rights violations.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

187. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

188. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (...) Substantive servicing of 10 mandates per annum entrusted to the Secretary-General dealing with alleged violations of human rights, as decided upon by policy-making organs before or during the biennium including gathering and analysis of materials, correspondence and consultations with Governments, intergovernmental, non-governmental organizations and individuals in connection with alleged violations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of 14 reports per annum to the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on mandates entrusted to the Secretary-General in the previous output.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

189. The implementation of the resolution will require coordination, throughout the period covered by the report, of the action taken by all representatives of United Nations human rights bodies and treaty bodies to help prevent the occurrence of intimidation or reprisals as well as prevent that access to United Nations human rights procedures be hampered in any way. It would also require the collection and analysis of other relevant information, which does not fall into any of the mandates of the afore-mentioned representatives and treaty bodies, and the preparation of the report of the Secretary-General to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

190. Three work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and one work-month at the General Service level will be required to assist in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material and in the preparation of the report to the Commission on Human Rights.

191. For the programme of work for 1990-1991, two outputs will have to be added to programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies, reading as follows:

Output: (...) Substantive servicing of 10 mandates per annum entrusted to the Secretary-General dealing with alleged violations of human rights, as decided upon by policy-making organs before or during the biennium including gathering and analysis of materials, correspondence and consultations with Governments, intergovernmental, non-governmental organizations and individuals in connection with alleged violations and the maintenance of records.

Output: (...) Preparation of 14 reports per annum to the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on mandates entrusted to the Secretary-General in the previous output.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

192. The estimated cost of the above programme of work for 1991 is itemized as follows:

	1991 (US dollars)
General temporary assistance
Three work-months at P-3 level	20 700
One work-month at General Service level	4 600
	-----
Total	25 300
	-----

F. Potential for absorption

193. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $25,300 for 1991.

194. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/71. Summary or arbitrary executions

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

195. In paragraphs 5, 6 and 8 of resolution 1991/71, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Special Rapporteur, in carrying out his mandate, to continue to examine situations of summary or arbitrary executions; to respond effectively to information that comes before him, in particular when a summary or arbitrary execution is imminent or threatened or when such an execution has occurred; and requested the Secretary-General to continue to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

196. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1).

197. The activity is included in the programme budget for the biennium 1990-1991 under the following programme element of section 23 (Human rights):

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in the previous output.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

198. By its resolution 1990/51, the Commission, at its forty-sixth session, extended the mandate of the Special Rapporteur by two years and, in consequence, took note of the programme budget implications of the mandate. In complying with paragraphs 6 and 10 of resolution 1990/51, namely, to respond effectively to information which comes before the Special Rapporteur and, in particular, to respond to information which suggests that an execution is imminent or threatened, and to institute procedures aimed at following up communications transmitted to Governments, the Special Rapporteur has encountered increasing difficulty during the past year. In view of the unforeseen increase in awareness within the international community of the mandate, the information transmitted to the Special Rapporteur has increased dramatically in volume and in comprehensiveness. Thus, the Special Rapporteur has not been in a position to respond as effectively as might be wished to the Commission's recommendations. In addition, he has endeavoured to comply as effectively as possible with paragraph 3 of Commission resolution 1990/76 concerning cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies, as well as with paragraph 2 of Commission resolution 1990/75, requesting the Special Rapporteur to pay special attention in his report to the activities of irregular armed groups and drug traffickers. The Special Rapporteur highlighted the concerns raised by resolutions 1990/76 and 1990/75 in his 1990 report to the Commission (E/CN.4/1991/36). In accordance with the Commission's request, as expressed in paragraph 2 of resolutions 1991/29 and 1991/70, the Special Rapporteur hopes to do so again in his forthcoming report. Finally, in endeavouring to give full expression to resolution 1991/31, namely, to follow closely the progress made in investigations carried out by Governments into cases relating to his mandate, he does not believe that existing resources will suffice to carry out the expressed recommendations of the Commission. Taking into account the increased obligations and consequent reporting responsibilities incumbent upon the Special Rapporteur as a result of the above-cited resolutions, he will, as an interim measure, require additional human and technical resources during 1991.

199. In the light of the above considerations and in order to enable the Special Rapporteur to carry out his mandate effectively as called for in paragraphs 5 and 6 of resolution 1991/71, five additional work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and one additional work-month at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material, and assistance of the reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

200. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991.

201. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

1991
(US dollars)

General temporary assistance

Five work-months at P-3 level	34 600
One work-month at General Service level	4 600
	-----
Total	39 200
	-----

F. Potential for absorption

202. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 (Human rights) are estimated at $39,200 for 1991.

203. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates under section 23 (Human rights).

Resolution 1991/74. Situation of human rights in Iraq

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

204. In paragraph 5 of resolution 1991/74, the Commission on Human Rights requested its Chairman, after consultation with the Bureau, to appoint an individual of recognized international standing in the field of human rights as special rapporteur whose mandate will be to make a thorough study of the violations of human rights by the Government of Iraq, based on all information the special rapporteur may deem relevant, including information provided by intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and any comments and material provided by the Government of Iraq, and submit an interim report thereon to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session and a report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of request to programme of work

205. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6) as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

206. The following programme element of section 23, (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the draft resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international instruments and procedures

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International cooperation

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights.

2. Parliamentary Services

Output: (Country-oriented rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of 8 reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

207. It is envisaged that the Special Rapporteur will undertake a trip to Geneva for a period of five working days in June/July 1991 to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights. In July/August 1991 the Special Rapporteur, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out a field mission to Iraq for a period of 10 working days to collect information on the spot and will then proceed to Geneva for five working days to prepare and finalize his report to the General Assembly. In October/December 1991 he will spend five working days in New York at the time of the submission of the report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session. In December 1991/January 1992 the Special Rapporteur will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to prepare his report to the forty-eighth session of the Commission. In February/March 1992 he will again travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present his report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

208. The substantive servicing of the Special Rapporteur includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Rapporteur, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Rapporteur, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

209. Seven work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level would be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his reports to the General Assembly and the Commission.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

210. No modifications are required in the programme of work for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

211. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

F. Potential for absorption

212. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $80,800 for 1991 and $14,200 for 1992.

213. The relevant costs for two interpreters to accompany the Special Rapporteur on his field mission, covering salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $10,000. These costs would be financed normally under section 29 B (Conference Services Division, Geneva).

214. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/75. Situation of human rights in El Salvador

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

215. In paragraph 13 of resolution 1991/75, the Commission on Human Rights decided to extend the mandate of the Special Representative for a further year and requested the Special Representative to submit his report on the development of the human rights situation in El Salvador to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session and to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

216. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

217. The following programme element of section 23, (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

234. In paragraph 14 of resolution 1991/78, the Commission on Human Rights decided to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one year and requested him to report on the situation of human rights in Afghanistan to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

235. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

236. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International co-operation

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights.

2. Parliamentary Services

Output: (Country-oriented rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of 4 reports by the Special Rapporteur on Afghanistan to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

237. It is envisaged that, in order to carry out his mandate, the Special Rapporteur would undertake a trip to Geneva in May/June 1991 for a period of five working days to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights. During 1991, the Special Rapporteur, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out two field missions to the region for a period of 10 working days each time. The Special Rapporteur will also visit Geneva during August/September 1991 for a period of five working days to finalize the report to the General Assembly. In November/December 1991 the Special Rapporteur will spend five working days in New York to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session. The Special Rapporteur will then visit Geneva for five working days in December 1991 to finalize his report to the Commission on Human Rights, and will visit Geneva again for five working days in February/March 1992 to present it to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

238. The substantive servicing of the Special Rapporteur includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government, as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Rapporteur, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Rapporteur, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

239. Seven work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

240. No modifications are required in the programme of work approved for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

241. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

242. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $102,700 for 1991 and $13,700 for 1992.

243. The relevant costs of two interpreters to accompany the Special Rapporteur on his field missions, covering salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $10,000. In addition, the cost of an estimated 100 pages of translation (Dari/Pashtu) is estimated at $6,000. These costs would be financed normally under section 29 B ($14,000) and section 32 ($2,000), Conference Services Division, Geneva, respectively.

244. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore will be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Resolution 1991/80. Situation in Equatorial Guinea

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

245. In paragraphs 8 and 9 of resolution 1991/80, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Secretary-General to extend the mandate of the Expert responsible for cooperating with the Government of Equatorial Guinea in the full implementation of the Plan of Action proposed by the United Nations and accepted by that Government, with a view to studying the existing situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Equatorial Guinea; and requested the Expert to report to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

246. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical assistance in the field of human rights and publications", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.28 and 6.36, of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 3, "Advisory services and technical cooperation, the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.27 to 35.37 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

247. The following programme element of section 24 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities relating to section 12 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 3 - Advisory services and technical assistance in the field of human rights and publications

Programme element 1.1 - Training

Output: (iv) Advisory missions.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 3 - Advisory services and technical cooperation

Output: Advisory missions.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

248. It is envisaged that the Expert will undertake a trip to Geneva in May/June 1991 for a period of five working days to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights and organize and plan his work in relation to his mandate. In July/August 1991 the Expert, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out a field mission to Equatorial Guinea for a period of five working days to collect information on the spot. In December 1991 the Expert will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days in order to finalize his report. In February/March 1992, the Expert will travel to Geneva for a period of five working days to present his report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session. Six work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Expert in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of material and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his report to the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

249. No modifications are required in the programme of work approved for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

250. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

251. The relevant costs to be financed under section 24 and section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) are estimated at $28,100 for 1991 and $5,300 for 1992.

252. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, covering temporary assistance requirements are estimated at $48,400 for 1991 and $11,500 for 1992.

253. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provisions under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights) and section 24 and section 12 (Regular programme of technical cooperation) respectively.

Resolution 1991/82. Situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

254. In paragraphs 7 and 8 of resolution 1991/82, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Special Representative to maintain his contacts and cooperation with the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran and to report on further progress with regard to the recommendations contained in his report, on the basis of his mandate pursuant to Commission resolution 1984/54; and to submit a report to be considered by the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

255. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme. Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6), as extended through 1991 (A/43/6 and Corr.1), and "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international instruments and procedures", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.10 to 35.18 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

256. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for 1990-1991 and activities of section 28 of the proposed programme budget for 1992-1993 would be directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

1990-1991

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (vii) Substantive servicing of 20 separate exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations and field missions.

Output: (viii) Preparation of 20 reports to be submitted to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly on fact-finding exercises mentioned in previous output.

1992-1993

Subprogramme 1 - Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures

Component III Servicing special procedures, including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

1. International cooperation

Output: Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding nature or other procedure dealing with alleged violations of human rights.

2. Parliamentary Services

Output: (Country-oriented rapporteurs) Preparation and submission of 4 reports by the Special Representative on Iran to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights respectively.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

257. It is envisaged that the Special Representative will undertake a trip to Geneva in June 1991 for a period of five working days to hold consultations at the Centre for Human Rights. In October/November 1991 he will again travel to Geneva for a period of five working days for consultations. In October/November 1991 the Special Representative, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, will carry out a field mission to the Islamic Republic of Iran for a period of 10 working days. He will then visit Geneva for five working days in December 1991/January 1992 to finalize the report, and will visit Geneva again for five working days in February/March 1992 to present it to the Commission at its forty-eighth session.

258. The substantive servicing of the Special Representative includes the gathering and analysis of human rights materials related to alleged violations as well as of pertinent legislation; the transmission of reported situations, incidents and cases to the Government as well as the correspondence with Governments, intergovernmental organizations and individuals related thereto; the organization of hearings of witnesses, the transcription of testimonies, and the preparation of reports to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights. Furthermore, in situ visits by the Special Representative, with the participation of staff of the Centre, have to be prepared and carried out. Throughout the year, extensive oral consultations have to be held on behalf of the Special Representative, on a regular basis, with representatives of interested Governments and non-governmental organizations.

259. Seven work-months of temporary assistance at the P-3 level and four work-months at the General Service level will be required to assist the Special Representative in the gathering of information, compilation and analysis of materials and in the preparation for and conduct of missions, as well as in the preparation of his reports to the Commission on Human Rights.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

260. No modifications are required in the programme of work approved for 1990-1991 or that proposed for 1992-1993.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

261. The estimated cost of the above programme of work is itemized as follows:

	1991	1992

	-----	-----

F. Potential for absorption

262. The relevant costs to be financed under section 23 and section 28 (Human rights), respectively, are estimated at $88,200 for 1991 and $15,900 for 1992.

263. The relevant costs of two interpreters to accompany the Special Representative on his field mission covering salary, travel and subsistence costs are estimated at $10,000. In addition, the cost of an estimated 300 pages of translation (Farsi) is estimated at $18,000. These costs would be financed normally under sections 29 B ($22,000) and 32 ($6,000) (Conference Services Division, Geneva), respectively.

264. This resolution is considered to be within the scope of perennial activities and resources therefore would be provided from the existing provision for the Economic and Social Council mandates.

Decision 1991/110. Organization of the work of the forty-eighth session

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

265. By decision 1991/110, the Commission on Human Rights decided (a) to recommend to the Economic and Social Council that it authorize, if possible within existing financial resources, 40 fully-serviced additional meetings, including summary records, in accordance with rules 29 and 31 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, for the Commission's forty-eighth session and (b) to request the Chairman of the Commission at its forty-eighth session to make every effort to organize the work of the session within the normally allotted time, the additional meetings that the Economic and Social Council might authorize to be utilized only if such meetings proved to be absolutely necessary.

B. Relationship of requests to programme of work

266. The activities referred to above fall under "Programme 35. Promotion and protection of human rights", subprogramme 2, "Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups", the objectives of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 35.19 to 35.26 of the medium-term plan for the period 1992-1997 (A/45/6).

267. The following subprogramme of section 28 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the decision:

Subprogramme 2 - Elimination and prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities and vulnerable groups

2. Parliamentary services

Output: Substantive servicing: two sessions of the Commission on Human Rights.

C. Modifications required in the programme of work

268. No modifications are required in the proposed programme of work for 1992-1993.

D. Additional requirements at full cost

269. Subject to the recommendation of the Committee on Conferences, the related cost for 40 fully-serviced additional meetings, including summary records, during the forty-eighth session of the Commission on Human Rights, under section 32 (Conference Services Division, Geneva), calculated on a full cost basis, is estimated at $491,400 for 1992, as follows:
