1. For the purposes of the present Convention, a child means every human being who has not attained the age of 18 years.

2. No provision of the present Convention shall be applied to a child who has attained the age of 15 years and who no longer is a minor, where the application would be manifestly incompatible with the legal status of that child.

3. In terms of paragraph 2 of this article, a child who no longer is a minor means a child who:

   (a) has full legal capacity; or
   (b) has become emancipated in all matters relating to his or her person; or
   (c) has the right to determine his or her own residence; or
   (d) has the capacity to enter into certain contractual relationships; or
   (e) has the capacity to dispose of certain parts of his or her property.
