II. RESOLUTIONS AND DECISIONS ADOPTED BY THE SUB-COMMISSION
AT ITS FORTY-SIXTH SESSION

A. Resolutions

1994/1. Situation in Rwanda

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Deeply concerned at the convincing and appalling evidence of the genocide resulting from the massacres of the Tutsis, the political assassinations of the Hutus and the various attacks on human rights in Rwanda,

Conscious that this tragedy is the outcome of policies of discrimination which have divided the people of Rwanda and brought great suffering,

Conscious also of the pernicious role played, both in the past and at the present time, by certain States, groups or individuals in the tragedy of Rwanda,

Convinced of the urgent need to take all requisite steps to put an end to this situation,

1. Demands an immediate end to the massacres and sufferings imposed on the people of Rwanda with the complicity of certain States, by proceeding more particularly to rapid and complete disarmament of the militias and extremist elements of the former Rwandese forces which are guilty of these massacres;

2. Deplores the fact that the tardy and insufficiently effective intervention of the international community, including the United Nations and its various organs, as well as the Organization of African Unity, did not, when it was still possible, make it possible to prevent the genocide, yet takes note with satisfaction of the humanitarian assistance efforts made, notably within the United Nations system;

3. Calls for all measures to be taken to encourage the voluntary return, in complete security, to their homes and lands, of all the Rwandese refugees;

4. Hopes that the epidemics, including cholera and dysentery, decimating the people of Rwanda will be contained, with a view to their eradication by all possible means;

5. Calls for Rwanda and its people, with the collaboration of the Organization of African Unity, to be given all the help and assistance needed for the establishment of a State governed by the rule of law and for the reconstruction of the country, in conformity with the decisions and the interests of the people of Rwanda;
6. Reminds all States, whether neighbours of Rwanda or others, and the mass media, particularly the radio stations, of their obligation to maintain strict and objective neutrality towards the conflict and to put an immediate end to all propaganda and incitement to ethnic and racial hatred;

7. Calls for action to investigate, identify and establish the responsibilities, both national and international, of the individuals implicated in the war crimes, including the murder of bishops and members of religious communities, crimes against humanity and genocide in the tragedy of Rwanda, for the purpose of punishing those responsible and guaranteeing the victims or their heirs fair and equitable compensation in accordance with the principles of international law;

8. Calls for the adoption of appropriate measures by States which have granted asylum or other refuge to the individuals implicated in the massacres, so that they do not escape justice;

9. Stresses the importance of establishing an international criminal court in order to try the persons responsible for these crimes;

10. Calls the attention of the expert commission set up by the Secretary-General of the United Nations to the need: to inquire into the events which have led to the present situation, including the attack on the plane carrying the Presidents of Burundi and Rwanda, the assassination of the Prime Minister and of Rwandese ministers and dignitaries, as well as of the 10 United Nations soldiers assigned to protect the Prime Minister; to identify the Rwandese and foreign individuals implicated in the arms traffic or other illicit traffic; and to engage as a priority in identifying and finding evidence and establishing the responsibility of the proprietors, management and personnel of the media, especially "Radio Mille Collines", which continue to play a crucial role, by the manipulation of information, in the perpetration and spread of the atrocities;

11. Expresses the hope that effective follow-up will be ensured, in the context of existing United Nations machinery, to the report of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Rwanda, which gives an account of the political assassinations and genocide that have taken place in Rwanda.

1994/2. A world conference against racism, racial and ethnic discrimination, xenophobia and other related contemporary forms of intolerance

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Reaffirming the obligation of States under the Charter of the United Nations to promote universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion,

Recalling the two World Conferences to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, held at Geneva in 1978 and 1983,

Welcoming the outcome of the World Conference on Human Rights, held at Vienna from 14 to 25 June 1993, and, in particular, the attention given to the programme of action for the elimination of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

Noting with grave concern that, despite the efforts of the international community, the principal objectives of the two Decades to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination have not been attained and that millions of human beings continue to this day to be the victims of varied forms of racism and racial and ethnic discrimination,

Welcoming General Assembly resolution 48/91 of 20 December 1993, whereby the General Assembly decided to proclaim the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, beginning in 1993, and to adopt the Programme of Action proposed for the Third Decade,

Bearing in mind the sequence of world conferences programmed by the United Nations to take place before the year 2000,

Recommends to the Commission on Human Rights that, at its fifty-first session, it suggest, through the Economic and Social Council, to the General Assembly, at its fiftieth session, the possibility of convening a world conference against racism, racial and ethnic discrimination, xenophobia and other related contemporary forms of intolerance, to take place in 1997.

17th meeting 12 August 1994
[Adopted without a vote. See chap. VI.]

1994/3. Monitoring the transition to democracy in South Africa

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Welcoming the successful transition to a free, democratic and non-racial South Africa following the all-party elections in April 1994,
Desirous of assisting the Government of the new South Africa to attain its legitimate, chosen and established goals of racial harmony and the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

Noting with deep satisfaction the historic role of the Commission on Human Rights, the Sub-Commission and the international community over the years, most recently in facilitating the successful democratization of South Africa,

Noting also with satisfaction the report of the Special Rapporteur, Miss Judith Sefi Attah, on her mission to South Africa (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/11/Add.1), as well as the recommendations and conclusions contained therein,

Welcoming the invitation by the Government of South Africa to the Special Rapporteur to visit South Africa in the context of the preparation of her second and final report,

1. Takes note of the report of the Special Rapporteur and the recommendations and conclusions contained therein;

2. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit her second and final report on the steps and measures being taken by the Government of South Africa to:

   (a) Eradicate the legacies of apartheid;

   (c) Build confidence amongst the communities to promote reconciliation and harmony;

   (d) Give effect to the realization and enjoyment of economic, social and cultural rights;

3. Expresses its appreciation to the Government of South Africa for its cooperation with and assistance to the Special Rapporteur in the discharge of her mandate;

4. Requests the Special Rapporteur to present her second and final report to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-first session and to the Sub-Commission at its forty-seventh session;

1994/4. Prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Deeply concerned that the number of reported incidents attributable to racism, racial discrimination and xenophobia and related intolerance has increased,

Disturbed by the widespread occurrence of violent conflicts in many parts of the world where ethnic or religious hostility is engendered and exploited by one or more of the parties to the conflict,

Noting with great interest the valuable report submitted to the Commission on Human Rights at its fiftieth session by the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance, Mr. Maurice Glélé-Ahanhanzo (E/CN.4/1994/66),

Recalling its resolution 1993/43 of 26 August 1993, in which it decided to consider at its forty-sixth session the follow-up to be given to the final report presented by Mr. Asbjørn Eide on possible ways and means of facilitating the peaceful and constructive solution of problems involving minorities (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/34 and Add.1-4), including the feasibility and usefulness of the preparation of a comprehensive programme for the prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities, and entrusted Mr. Eide with the task of preparing a working paper containing suggestions for such a programme,

Noting Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/22 of 1 March 1994 on the rights of persons belonging to national or ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities,

Having examined in great detail the working paper submitted by Mr. Eide (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/36 and Corr.1), as well as the final report presented in 1993,

Convinced of the need to ensure equality and non-discrimination between all groups in society and to find peaceful and constructive solutions to minority situations in accordance with international law,

Taking note of the Declaration on the Rights of Persons Belonging to National or Ethnic, Religious and Linguistic Minorities, and convinced that its implementation, in conjunction with the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and all other relevant international instruments, provides the best guidance for such endeavours,

Reiterating that all groups should cooperate peacefully in the search for constructive accommodation of their respective concerns within the general framework of international human rights law and should abstain from any use of violence,
Emphasizing the need for system-wide cooperation within the United Nations to facilitate peaceful solutions to such situations,

Underlining the significant contributions which are made by the relevant treaty-monitoring bodies, in particular the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, the Human Rights Committee and the Committee on the Rights of the Child, to this task,

Aware of the important contributions rendered by the High Commissioner for Human Rights,

Underlining the need for close cooperation between the Sub-Commission and the Commission on Human Rights in this field,

1. Expresses its profound appreciation to the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Asbjørn Eide, for the working paper containing suggestions for a comprehensive programme for the prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities as well as for his final report on possible ways and means of facilitating the peaceful and constructive solution of problems involving minorities;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to invite Governments and competent intergovernmental and non-governmental bodies to submit their comments on the recommendations contained in addendum 4 to the final report and to make the comments available at the forty-seventh session of the Sub-Commission;

4. Endorses the proposals made in the working paper for the development by the Sub-Commission of a comprehensive programme to fulfil its dual mandate of prevention of discrimination and protection of minorities;

5. Decides that, beginning at its forty-seventh session, its agenda will include annually an item concerning a comprehensive examination of thematic issues relating to racism, xenophobia, minorities and migrant workers;

6. Recommends, as a first step, that the Commission on Human Rights request the Economic and Social Council to authorize the establishment of an inter-sessional working group of the Sub-Commission to examine, inter alia, peaceful and constructive solutions to situations involving minorities, and in particular to:

(a) Review the practical application of the Declaration on the Rights of Persons Belonging to National or Ethnic, Religious and Linguistic Minorities;
(b) Provide recommendations to the Sub-Commission and other competent entities, including the High Commissioner for Human Rights, on further measures for the protection of minorities in cases where the working group finds a risk of the eruption or escalation of violence between different groups in society;

(c) Promote dialogue between minority groups in society and between those groups and Governments;

7. Recommends that the working group should consist of five members of the Sub-Commission and be open to representatives of minorities, regardless of whether they have consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, Governments, treaty-monitoring bodies, specialized agencies and other relevant intergovernmental bodies and non-governmental organizations;

8. Also recommends that the Commission, further to paragraph 12 of Commission resolution 1994/22 of 1 March 1994 and bearing in mind the importance and complexity of the question of the protection of minorities, request the assistance of Mr. Asbjørn Eide, who is an expert in the field of minorities, to prepare an analytical report on minority issues, to submit a preliminary report to the Commission at its fifty-second session and a final report at its fifty-third session, bearing in mind in particular the new developments affecting minorities;

9. Further recommends that the Centre for Human Rights be strengthened to enable it to provide adequate services to the working group and for the purpose of undertaking relevant studies, evaluation and action in this field;

10. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption.

    [For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution I.]

Noting that the status of the Supplementary Convention on the Abolition of Slavery, the Slave Trade, and Institutions and Practices Similar to Slavery of 1956 and the Convention for the Suppression of the Traffic in Persons and of the Exploitation of the Prostitution of Others of 1949 is still unsatisfactory,

C. Removal of organs from children

8. Requests the Secretary-General to invite again all Governments, United Nations organizations and bodies, including the United Nations Children’s Fund, the specialized agencies, in particular the World Health Organization, the International Criminal Police Organization and all relevant non-governmental organizations, including scientific and medical associations, to pursue their investigation of allegations that children are victims of, or are even killed for, the removal of organs for the purposes of commercial transplants and to indicate any measures taken to counteract this practice wherever it exists, and to present a report to the Working Group at its next session;

9. Decides to continue to examine this matter at its forty-seventh session and to consider the advisability of drafting, with the cooperation of the World Health Organization, United Nations standards to ensure protection against unlawful organ transplants;

II. ELIMINATION OF THE EXPLOITATION OF CHILD LABOUR

10. Decides to transmit the report of the Secretary-General on the state of implementation of the Programme of Action on the Elimination of the Exploitation of Child Labour (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/34) to the Commission on Human Rights for its consideration;

III. ERADICATION OF DEBT BONDAGE

13. Takes note with satisfaction of the promulgation by States of laws against debt bondage, and appeals to the Governments concerned to adopt all measures to implement such laws;

14. Recommends that the specialized agencies and, in particular, the financial institutions of the United Nations system ensure that the projects they support do not use or in any way promote bonded labour;

IV. CHILD SOLDIERS

15. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the expert appointed pursuant to General Assembly resolution 48/157 of 20 December 1993 the report of the Working Group and any other information made available on this issue;
V. PREVENTION OF TRAFFIC IN PERSONS AND EXPLOITATION OF THE PROSTITUTION OF OTHERS

1994/8. Children and the right to adequate housing

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the recognition and legal foundations of the right to adequate housing in, inter alia, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (art. 25, para. 1), the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (art. 11, para. 1), the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (art. 5 (e) (iii)) and the Convention on the Rights of the Child (art. 27, para. 3),

Recalling also resolution 1992/10 of 21 February 1992 of the Commission on Human Rights, in which it took note with particular interest of General Comment No. 4 (1991) on the right to adequate housing (E/1992/23, annex III) adopted by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights at its sixth session, resolution 1993/77 of 10 March 1993 entitled "Forced evictions" and resolution 1994/14 of 25 February 1994 entitled "Promoting the realization of the right to adequate housing", adopted without a vote by the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-ninth and fiftieth sessions respectively,

Conscious that one of the areas where the indivisibility and interdependence of human rights and of the rights of children become most apparent is with respect to the existence of widespread poverty leading to inadequate housing and living conditions,
Aware of the worsening situation around the world of the living conditions of children and of the fact that tens of millions of children are being forced to live in the streets, in slums and on pavements, and that this number is growing daily,

Concerned at the especially adverse living conditions of children belonging to vulnerable groups, including indigenous people and ethnic, racial, religious and other minorities,

Deeply concerned at the particularly adverse effects of forced evictions on the health, well-being and development of children,

Stressing in general the adverse impact of poverty, and in particular of inadequate living and housing conditions, on the realization of the basic rights of children, including the right to food, to health, to education and the right to birth registration,

Stressing also that the various competent supervisory mechanisms, including the Committee on the Rights of the Child, as well as the specialized agencies of the United Nations system, need to focus more on the impact of inadequate living and housing conditions on the realization of the economic, social and cultural rights of children and their families in all parts of the world,

1. Reminds Governments to comply to the maximum extent of available resources with all existing obligations concerning the legally recognized rights of children to an adequate standard of living and the continuous improvement of living and housing conditions;

2. Recognizes the importance in this regard of international cooperation and the need for cooperation between Governments, non-governmental organizations and international agencies;

3. Recommends that the Special Rapporteur on the promotion of the realization of the right to adequate housing devote special attention in his final report, to be submitted in 1995, on the impact that violations of the right to adequate housing have on the realization of the full range of the rights of the child;

4. Also recommends that all relevant special rapporteurs, in particular the Special Rapporteurs on extreme poverty and on population transfer, take into account the question of the housing rights of children and their families in the preparation of their reports;

5. Requests the Committee on the Rights of the Child to give special attention to the issue of the housing rights of children and their families when examining States parties’ reports and to consider developing appropriate indicators to assess the state of children’s housing and living conditions;
6. Also requests the Committee on the Rights of the Child to consider devoting a day of general discussion to the impact of poverty and inadequate living and housing conditions on the economic, social and cultural rights of children;

7. Invites the United Nations Children’s Fund to consider including, in its publications The State of the World’s Children and The Progress of Nations, a separate section on the state of children’s housing rights and to support actively local, national and international initiatives aimed at improving children’s living and housing conditions;

8. Requests the specialized agencies and organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to devote special attention to the issue of children and housing rights in their policies, programmes and publications, and to develop and promote the application of reliable indicators to assess the state of children’s housing rights;

9. Urges the international financial institutions, in particular the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, to take fully into account the human rights implications for children of their policies, in particular structural adjustment programmes and the funding of large-scale development projects;

10. Requests Governments, the specialized agencies and organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to develop effective strategies for rapidly improving the housing and living conditions of children throughout the world, in full consultation with and with the full participation of children themselves, their representatives and community-based non-governmental and other relevant groups;

11. Decides to review the matter of children and the right to adequate housing at its forty-seventh session, under the relevant agenda item.

1994/9. Situation of children deprived of their liberty

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and the United Nations Rules for the Protection of Juveniles Deprived of their Liberty, as well as of the Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners,

Recalling its resolution 1992/25 of 27 August 1992 and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1993/80 of 10 March 1993 entitled "Application of international standards concerning the human rights of detained juveniles", in which concern was expressed that, because of the great vulnerability of juveniles to various forms of abuse, neglect and injustice and the profound and indelible impact of such traumatic experiences on their developing personalities, violations of the human rights of detained juveniles had serious and far-reaching consequences for the juveniles concerned and for society,

Conscious of its responsibility to contribute to the promotion and encouragement of respect for the rights of children,

Reiterating its deep concern about the situation of children deprived of their liberty and the violation of their fundamental human rights, in particular the deprivation of their rights to life, physical integrity and security of person, humane treatment, and separation from adult criminals in prison establishments,

1. Invites the Committee on the Rights of the Child to give priority to an in-depth examination of the topic "Situation of children deprived of their liberty";

2. Urges all the relevant human rights treaty monitoring bodies, the United Nations Children’s Fund, the International Labour Organisation, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the World Health Organization and the International Criminal Police Organization, Governments, and other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to give particular attention in their work to the grave situation of children deprived of their liberty and to the implementation of provisions and standards designed to ensure their protection;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Sub-Commission at its forty-seventh session a note on the situation of children deprived of their liberty under the agenda sub-item entitled "Prevention of discrimination and protection of children: human rights and youth".

1994/10. Human rights and disability

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1993/22 of 20 August 1993 and the reference therein to the 1993 Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights, which reaffirm that persons with disabilities should be guaranteed equal opportunity through the elimination of all barriers, be they physical, financial, social or psychological, which exclude or restrict full participation in society,

Noting the report prepared by the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/35) pursuant to the request of the Sub-Commission in resolution 1993/22 for information on the coordination endeavours, and their results, undertaken by the various United Nations organs and bodies concerned with the protection of disabled persons and the discussion in that report of monitoring work expected to be undertaken by both the new special rapporteur and the Commission for Social Development, regarding the Standard Rules on the Equalization of Opportunities for Persons with Disabilities (General Assembly resolution 48/96, annex),

Noting also that the Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 1994/27 of 4 March 1994, reaffirmed its commitment to ensuring that the rights of persons with disabilities and their concern for full participation in community affairs continue to be addressed in all of its work,

Recognizing that the Standard Rules in themselves do not contain legal clauses that obligate States to respect pertinent provisions of the International Bill of Human Rights and other human rights instruments, such as the Convention on the Rights of the Child,

Mindful of its continuing responsibility, under Commission on Human Rights resolution 8 (XXIII) and Economic and Social Council resolution 1235 (XLII), to study, each year, situations which reveal a consistent pattern of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms set out in the International Bill of Human Rights and in pertinent United Nations treaties,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to report in 1995 to the Sub-Commission regarding coordination endeavours which affect disabled persons, with emphasis on activities of the other United Nations organizations and bodies that deal with alleged violations of the legal obligations of States under the International Bill of Human Rights and United Nations treaties that protect disabled persons;

2. Also requests the Secretary-General, in response to the concern of the General Assembly expressed in resolution 48/99 of 20 December 1993 regarding the need to give higher priority and visibility to disability issues, to help ensure, first, a wider distribution of the report of the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Leandro Despouy entitled Human Rights and Disabled
3. Decides to remain seized of the question and to consider it at its forty-seventh session under the same agenda item.
2. Requests the States parties to the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, by virtue of the faculty granted to them by article VIII of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, to encourage - or even undertake - the drafting and adoption of a control mechanism in the form of a treaty committee charged in particular with monitoring compliance of States parties with the commitments which they undertook in accordance with article V of the Convention, through the assessment of the reports submitted by the States parties and, on a preventive basis, to draw the attention of the High Commissioner for Human Rights to situations which may lead to genocide;

3. Recalls that, pursuant to article V of the Convention, the Contracting Parties must enact the necessary legislation to give effect to the provisions of the Convention, and, in particular, to provide effective penalties for persons guilty of genocide;

4. Decides to examine the conditions under which the Convention could be improved by including a clause concerning universal jurisdiction in order to take into account the international character of this crime and also to study the possibility of extending its application, which has until now been limited to ethnic, racial or religious genocide, to political genocide.

1994/12. The situation of the Greek ethnic minority in Albania: infringement of the rules for a fair trial

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, as well as the Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary,

Recalling, in particular, the provisions of articles 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, articles 6, 7, 9, 10, 14, 15, 16 and 17 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the relevant provisions of the Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Being Subjected to Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment,

Disturbed by the alleged violation of human rights and persecution of members of the Greek ethnic minority in Albania,

Noting with satisfaction the efforts by the High Commissioner for National Minorities of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe to facilitate a solution to the conflict,
1. Calls upon the Government of Albania to abide by the relevant provisions of the above-mentioned international human rights instruments, to take immediately every measure to ensure that the charged persons receive a fair trial and to complete the proceedings of their trial in accordance with the accepted principles of the administration of justice;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit, as soon as possible, the present resolution to the Government of Albania.

1994/13. Situation in the Middle East

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the convening of the International Peace Conference on the Middle East at Madrid on 30 October 1991, on the basis of Security Council resolutions 242 (1967) of 22 November 1967 and 338 (1973) of 22 October 1973, and the subsequent bilateral negotiations, as well as the meetings of the multilateral working groups,

Noting with satisfaction the broad international support for the peace process and its contribution to the implementation and furtherance of human rights in the area,

Welcoming the Declaration of Principles on Interim Self-Government Arrangements, signed by the Government of Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization in Washington, D.C., on 13 September 1993, and the subsequent agreement on the Gaza Strip and the Jericho area, signed by the Government of Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization, the representative of the Palestinian people, at Cairo on 4 May 1994,

1. Reaffirms that the achievement of a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East is essential for the implementation and furtherance of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the area;

2. Welcomes the peace process begun at Madrid and warmly supports the subsequent bilateral negotiations through which it has been continued;

3. Endorses the achievements of the peace process to date, which constitute important initial steps in achieving a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East, and urges all parties to implement the agreements which have been reached;
4. Emphasizes the importance of making progress, as a matter of urgency, on the other tracks of the Arab-Israeli negotiations within the peace process;

5. Supports the request by the Economic and Social Council that all States Members of the United Nations render support for the peace process and extend economic, financial and technical assistance to parties in the region, taking into account, in particular, the needs of the Palestinian people during the interim period;

6. Expresses its full support for the active role which the United Nations is playing in the peace process, and in particular for its assistance in implementing the Declaration of Principles of Interim Self-Government Arrangements signed by the State of Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization which constitutes a positive contribution to the protection of human rights in the Middle East.

1994/14. Situation of human rights in Iraq

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Recalling the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23), endorsed by the General Assembly in its resolution 48/121 of 20 December 1993, and in particular part I, paragraph 1, which reaffirms, inter alia, that human rights and fundamental freedoms are the birthright of all human beings and that their protection and promotion is the first responsibility of Governments,

Reaffirming that all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and to fulfil the obligations they have undertaken under the various international instruments in this field,

Mindful that Iraq is a party to the International Covenants on Human Rights and to other human rights instruments,

Recalling Security Council resolution 688 (1991) of 5 April 1991, in which the Council demanded an end to the repression of the Iraqi civilian population and insisted that Iraq cooperate with humanitarian organizations to ensure that the human and political rights of all Iraqi citizens were respected,

Mindful that the United Nations has not yet sent a fact-finding mission to the marshlands region of southern Iraq,

Recalling in particular its resolution 1993/20 of 20 August 1993, in which it condemned the violations of human rights by the Government of Iraq and urged the implementation of Security Council resolution 688 (1991) of 5 April 1991, in which the Council demanded an end to the repression of the Iraqi civilian population,

Deeply concerned by recent information that the population continues to flee the marshlands region, that thousands of Arab Shia have sought refuge on the border between Iraq and the Islamic Republic of Iran because of artillery bombardment and the programme undertaken by the Iraqi Government to drain the southern marshlands, and that, in July 1994, over 1,300 women and children arrived at the border in a miserable condition, especially regarding health, and have received no assistance from the international community,

Deeply concerned also by the continued massive repression of the Arab Shia population in the south of Iraq, particularly those who are under siege by the Iraqi armed forces there,

Disturbed by the possibility of a continued exodus of these populations, both to the border area and within Iraq itself,

Concerned that the electricity supply to large cities in Iraqi Kurdistan in the north has been cut off since August 1993, and that recently the electricity supply to large cities in the south has been reduced to two hours daily, causing more suffering for the population,

Deeply concerned about the continuing terrorist acts of the Iraqi Government, both inside and outside the country, against opposition leaders and United Nations personnel,

Deeply concerned also that Iraq still refuses to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on the situation of human rights in Iraq, Mr. M. van der Stoel, and to permit him to visit Iraq to investigate human rights violations and refuses categorically to introduce a monitoring system, as had twice been requested by the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling the report of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Iraq (E/CN.4/1994/58), in which he notes the continued massive and grave violations of human rights by the Government of Iraq, such as summary and arbitrary executions, torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment, enforced or involuntary disappearances, arbitrary arrest and detention, lack of due process and the rule of law and of freedom of thought, expression and association, as well as the existence of specific and serious discrimination within the country in terms of access to food and health care,
Noting that many international organizations and media have described the negative impact of the international embargo on the civilian population, especially the most vulnerable groups,

Deeply concerned by the internal embargo maintained by the Government against the Kurdish population in the north of Iraq and the Arab Shiah population in the southern marshlands,

1. Expresses its concern at the exceptional gravity of the human rights situation in Iraq and, therefore, welcomes the proposal of the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on the situation of human rights in Iraq, contained in his report (E/CN.4/1994/58), that human rights monitors be deployed;

2. Calls upon the Government of Iraq immediately to halt its artillery bombardment, to cease all draining schemes and destruction of the marshes and to lift the internal embargo imposed in October 1991 on the populations of the marshlands;

3. Appeals once again to the international community as a whole and to all Governments, including that of Iraq, to facilitate the supply of food and medicines to the civilian population;

4. Calls upon the Government of Iraq to cease its internal embargo against the north and the Shiah populations in the south, both areas which are still under siege, and to re-establish the electricity supply to both regions;

5. Also calls upon the Government of Iraq to cease its terrorist acts against opposition leaders and United Nations personnel;

7. Requests the United Nations humanitarian organizations concerned to speed up the delivery of aid to the persons who have sought refuge on the border between Iraq and the Islamic Republic of Iran, and to ensure that their food and medical needs are satisfied;

8. Urges the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Iraq to visit the border and the marshlands and to report his findings to the General Assembly;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur to undertake his mission;

10. Also requests the Secretary-General to call upon the Government of Iraq to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur;
11. Urges the implementation of Security Council resolution 688 (1991) of 5 April 1991 and of the recommendations of the Special Rapporteur to station permanent monitors in the area of the marshlands and establish permanent aid centres;

1994/15. Violation of the human rights of staff members of the United Nations system and other persons acting under the authority of the United Nations

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Gravely concerned that staff members of the United Nations system and other persons acting under the authority of the United Nations continue to be detained, unaccounted for, threatened or subjected to other violations of their fundamental rights contrary to the Charter of the United Nations and other international instruments,

Particularly preoccupied by the increasing number of peace-keepers and peace-makers, civilian staff, both international and local, being killed during various United Nations missions,

Recalling once again the recommendations contained in the report of the Special Rapporteur, Ms. Mary Concepcion Bautista (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1992/19), aiming at improving the protection of personnel of the United Nations system and their families, as well as of experts and consultants,

Referring to the proposals contained in the report of the Secretary-General of 27 August 1993 on the security of United Nations operations (A/48/349-S/26358),

Aware that human rights violations of its personnel can only have a negative effect on the implementation of the mandates of the organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, especially at a time when the United Nations is undertaking greater responsibilities and sending difficult missions to various parts of the world,
Greatly appreciating the efforts of the Secretary-General to promote a satisfactory resolution of all cases of this kind, and noting with interest Security Council resolution 868 (1993) of 29 September 1993 in which the Council urged States and parties to a conflict to cooperate closely with the United Nations to ensure the security of United Nations forces and personnel,

Recalling the Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice of 1949 on the responsibility of Member States for the security of United Nations staff members,

Taking note with satisfaction of General Assembly resolution 48/37 of 9 December 1993, in which the Assembly decided to establish an ad hoc committee, open to all Member States, to elaborate an international convention dealing with the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel, with particular reference to responsibility for attacks on such personnel,

1. Urges again Governments and other entities holding de facto territorial power to respect and to ensure respect for the rights of staff members and other persons acting under the authority of the United Nations, as well as of their families, and to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of United Nations and associated personnel in their territory;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that the human rights, privileges and immunities of the personnel of the United Nations system, including experts and their families, are fully respected and to seek redress and compensation for the damage caused to them and to their organizations, as well as their full reintegration and re-education;

3. Also requests the Secretary-General to take steps to ensure the implementation of the recommendations contained in the report of the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission, Ms. Mary Concepcion Bautista, on the protection of the human rights of United Nations staff members, experts and their families (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1992/19), as well as of the proposals made in his report of 27 August 1993 on the security of United Nations operations (A/48/349-S/26358);

4. Urges Governments and other entities holding de facto territorial power, in accordance with the Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 43/173 of 9 December 1988, to provide adequate and prompt information concerning the arrest or detention of United Nations staff members and their families, and to grant the representative of the competent international organization access to them without delay;

5. Calls upon the existing human rights mechanisms, such as the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances, the Special Rapporteur on the question of torture and the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions, to examine the cases involving the human rights of staff members of the United Nations system and of their families, as well as of experts and consultants, and to transmit the relevant part of their respective reports to the Secretary-General for him to include in his report to the Commission on Human Rights;

6. Welcomes the decision of the General Assembly, contained in its resolution 48/37 of 9 December 1993, to establish an ad hoc committee to elaborate an international convention dealing with the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel, with particular reference to responsibility for attacks on such personnel, and expresses the hope that this convention will be adopted as soon as possible;

7. Recommends that the Commission on Human Rights continue to keep under review the human rights situation of staff members of the United Nations system and other persons acting under the authority of the United Nations.

35th meeting 25 August 1994
[Adopted without a vote. See chap. VII.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its relevant resolutions, including the most recent, resolution 1993/14 of 23 August 1993, calling for an end to the violation of human rights by the Islamic Republic of Iran,

Recalling also relevant resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights, including the most recent, resolution 1994/73 of 9 March 1994, as well as those of the General Assembly, including the most recent, resolution 48/145 of 20 December 1993,

Deeply concerned at extensive and continuing human rights violations by the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, including arbitrary and summary executions, torture and inhuman and degrading treatment and punishment, arbitrary arrests and imprisonment, unexplained disappearances, the absence of guarantees essential for the protection of the right to a fair trial and disregard for freedom of expression and freedom of religion,

Shocked by the systematic repression of the Baha’i community and at the situation of the Iranian Kurds and the Arab minority in Iran, and at increasing intolerance towards Christians, including recent murders of Christian religious ministers,

Appalled at the continued repression of women in the Islamic Republic of Iran, including the practice of gender-based discrimination and the use of unacceptable and unjustifiable means of punishment,
Aware of the mounting concern expressed by the authorities of a number of States at the involvement in, and support for, international terrorism by the Islamic Republic of Iran, causing the loss of many lives, and the call by those authorities for action against the Islamic Republic,

Reaffirming that Governments are accountable for attacks by their agents against persons on the territory of another State, and also for inciting, approving or condoning such acts,

Welcoming the recommendations contained in the report of the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights (E/CN.4/1994/50) and the decision of the Commission to continue the Special Representative’s mandate,

Expressing its profound regret that the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran has refused to allow the Special Representative of the Commission to make a further visit to Iran,

Also regretting that the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran refuses to implement existing agreements with international humanitarian organizations,

Affirming that human rights are universal and indivisible and that the violation of internationally recognized human rights standards cannot be justified by cultural or religious considerations,

1. Endorses the call by the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights for the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to address the issues covered in his report (E/CN.4/1994/50) and to take urgent and effective action to improve its record in the field of human rights;

2. Condemns the flagrant violations of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran which, as noted by the Special Representative of the Commission, include:

(a) Excessive use of the death penalty;
(b) Numerous cases of torture and cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment and punishment;
(c) A failure to meet international standards with regard to due process and the administration of justice;
(d) Religious discrimination, notably against the Baha’is and Christian individuals and groups;
(e) Discrimination against women;
(f) Restrictions on freedom of expression and freedom of opinion and undue limitation of freedom of the press;
(g) The use of excessive force in suppressing public demonstrations, as at Ghazvin, followed in some cases by execution without due process of persons involved in such demonstrations, notably at Zahedan;

3. Demands that the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran cease forthwith any involvement in or toleration of murder and State-sponsored terrorism against Iranians living abroad and the nationals of other States;

4. Also demands that the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran withdraw its support for and condoning of repeated threats to the lives of persons of whose opinions, writings or publications it disapproves;

5. Calls upon the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to cooperate with the judicial authorities in countries around the world which are investigating incidents of international terrorism, and in particular to return for trial in Switzerland two persons accused of the murder of Professor Kazem Rajavi who were returned to the Islamic Republic of Iran and who are sought by the Swiss judicial authorities;

6. Urges the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to comply with all current international norms in the field of human rights, including in particular those contained in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, to which the Islamic Republic of Iran is a party;

7. Strongly supports the view of the Commission on Human Rights that the international monitoring of the human rights situation in the Islamic Republic of Iran should be continued;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep the Sub-Commission informed of relevant reports and United Nations measures to prevent human rights violations in the Islamic Republic of Iran, including, in particular, those concerning the situation of the Kurds and the Arab minority and the religious freedoms of the Baha’i and Christian communities in Iran;

9. Decides to consider further the situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran at its forty-seventh session.

1994/17. Situation in Burundi

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,
Reaffirming that all Member States have the right and duty to promote and protect human rights and to discharge the obligations set out in the various applicable instruments,

Emphasizing that Burundi is a party to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/86 of 9 March 1994,

Taking note of decision 2 (45) on the situation in Burundi adopted by the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination on 16 August 1994,

Regretting the adverse effects of local mass media reports which foster racial hatred and violence,

Having examined with interest the comments of the Human Rights Committee at its fifty-first session (CCPR/C/79/Add.41),

Seriously concerned by forcible transfers of people and the massive exodus of people from Burundi beyond the frontiers, causing the loss of agricultural production and thus risking major nutritional problems,

Emphasizing the need to reinforce preventive measures to halt the deterioration of the situation, where this is still possible,

Convinced that the impunity enjoyed by the perpetrators of gross and massive human rights violations, such as the assassination of the President of the Republic on 21 October 1993, the massacres of innocent civilians at the instigation of some government officials and the subsequent repression by the army using, in many instances, excessive force, provokes an unending cycle of acts of collective vengeance,

1. Requests the establishment, by independent bodies, of the individual responsibility of those involved in the commission of those crimes, coupled with the punishment of those individuals;

2. Encourages the efforts of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Centre for Human Rights and non-governmental organizations to accelerate the establishment of a programme of assistance in Burundi in order that the current situation of massive violations of human rights does not prevent the application of preventive measures to halt the deterioration of the situation;

3. Welcomes the conclusion of the Human Rights Committee in which it stated that it was ready to respond constructively to any appropriate request for assistance made by the Government of Burundi, provided that it is clear and accompanied by a firm resolve on the part of the Government to adopt the measures necessary for the effective implementation of the Covenant (CCPR/C/79/Add.41, para. 18);
4. Places all its facilities at the disposal of the Centre for Human Rights;

5. Expresses the fear that the prevailing situation of massive human rights violations in Burundi could impede the implementation of the measures of assistance;

6. Urges the authorities of Burundi to make fully effective all measures necessary to carry out an inquiry into summary and arbitrary executions, to punish those responsible, to disarm the population and to repress all forms of encouragement of racial hatred and to plan the establishment of an independent multi-party commission to make recommendations for the application of these measures;

7. Expresses the hope that an initial mission, having as its main objective the bringing of assistance to Burundi, will be appointed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations and that, as a preventive measure, the Secretary-General will have recourse to the competent organs of the United Nations;

8. Calls on the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Burundi, the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions and the Commission on Human Rights to invite the competent authorities to strengthen their surveillance of the human rights situation in Burundi, sending out observers with a view to preventing any re-emergence of violence;

9. Appeals to the moderate forces in the main political parties of Burundi to work together to alleviate ethnic tension in the country by resolving the constitutional crisis on the basis of the rule of law and respect for human rights.

1994/18. Human rights and terrorism

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Bearing in mind that the most essential and basic human right is the right to life,

Recalling the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23) adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights,

Reiterating its deep concern at the persistence of acts of terrorism and the gross violations of human rights perpetrated by terrorist groups,

Profoundly deploring the increasing number of innocent persons killed, massacred and maimed by terrorists in indiscriminate and random acts of violence and terror, which cannot be justified under any circumstances,

1. Reiterates its unequivocal condemnation of all acts, methods and practices of terrorism as human rights violations aimed at the destruction of fundamental freedoms and democracy, threatening the territorial integrity and security of States, destabilizing legitimately constituted Governments, undermining pluralistic civil society and having adverse consequences on the economic and social development of States;

2. Calls upon Governments to take all necessary and effective measures, in conformity with international standards of human rights, to prevent, combat and eliminate terrorism, and urges the international community to enhance cooperation in the fight against terrorism at the national, regional and international level;

3. Decides, in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/46, to entrust Mr. Saïd Naceur Ramadhane with the task of preparing, without financial implications, a working paper on the question of terrorism and human rights, to be considered at its forty-seventh session.

1994/19. Situation of human rights in Chad

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

Reaffirming that all Member States have the right and duty to promote and protect human rights and to fulfil the obligations set out in the various applicable instruments,

Recalling its resolution 1993/10 of 20 August 1993,

Also recalling that Chad has ratified the African Charter of Human and Peoples’ Rights,
Taking into account the fact that the democratization process has started in Chad,

Insisting that there is still room for press freedom,

Concerned, however, by the delays in implementing the majority of the measures relating to the human rights contained in the programme of the transitional Government,

Deeply concerned by the flagrant systematic violations of human rights in Chad, especially by massive summary and extrajudicial executions, by enforced disappearances and arbitrary detentions, of which human rights militants in particular are victims, and by the impunity enjoyed by those responsible for violations of human rights,

1. Strongly condemns the massive and persistent human rights violations in Chad committed by the armed and security forces, including the Republican Guard;

2. Requests the Chad authorities to put into effect measures to promote human rights and fundamental liberties, particularly by applying the proposals set out in the programme of the transitional Government;

3. Calls on the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-first session to decide to establish a monitoring system for the general human rights situation in Chad, with a view to examining the question at its fifty-second session;

4. Decides to keep this question on the agenda at its forty-seventh session.

35th meeting
25 August 1994
[Adopted by secret ballot by 18 votes to 6, with 1 abstention. See chap. VII.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

Reaffirming that all Member States have the right and duty to promote and protect human rights and to discharge the obligations set out in the various applicable instruments,
Pointing out that Togo is a party to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and of the African Charter of Human and Peoples' Rights,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/78 of 9 March 1994,

Having considered with interest the comments of the Human Rights Committee at its fifty-first session (CCPR/C/79/Add.36),

Very concerned by the serious obstacles to the democratization process and seeking to encourage its development with full respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Deeply concerned in this connection by the persistent gravity of the situation of human rights in Togo, particularly by the summary or extrajudicial executions, arbitrary arrests or detentions and by torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment, for which the armed and security forces are largely responsible,

Recalling the impunity enjoyed by those who commit human rights violations, particularly because of serious failings in the legal system, especially the lack of independence and impartiality of the judiciary,

Concerned by the serious attacks on freedom of the press,

Pointing out that the situation described above is a serious setback to the rule of law in Togo,

1. Strongly condemns the massive and persistent violations of human rights in Togo;

2. Requests the Togolese authorities to adopt all measures necessary to end the impunity enjoyed by those responsible for breaches of human rights;

3. Calls upon the Commission on Human Rights to appoint, at its fifty-first session, a special rapporteur with the mandate of reporting on the human rights situation in Togo.

1994/21. Situation in Bougainville

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1992/19 of 27 August 1992 concerning the protection and promotion of human rights in Bougainville,

Recalling also resolutions 1993/76 of 10 March 1993 and 1994/81 of 9 March 1994 of the Commission on Human Rights on the same subject,

Mindful of the Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment and the Principles on the Effective Prevention and Investigation of Extra-legal, Arbitrary and Summary Executions,

Acutely conscious of the report of the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions, (E/CN.4/1994/7) according to which a large number of human rights violations, including extrajudicial, summary and arbitrary executions, had occurred in Bougainville since April 1991 in the context of the ongoing armed conflict between the Defence Forces of Papua New Guinea and the Bougainville Revolutionary Army,

Aware that in April 1994 an Australian Parliamentary delegation visited Bougainville, but was denied access to significant parts of the island by the Government of Papua New Guinea,

Deeply concerned at reports that the Defence Forces of Papua New Guinea continue to violate human rights and fundamental freedoms in Bougainville,

Gravely concerned that medical supplies and other humanitarian aid are being prevented from reaching sections of the Bougainville population by a military blockade imposed by the Defence Forces of Papua New Guinea, resulting in many deaths,

1. Calls on all parties to the conflict in Bougainville to respect strictly all human rights and fundamental freedoms, in particular the right to life and the right to freedom of movement;

2. Calls upon the Government of Papua New Guinea to allow, as a matter of urgency, the immediate and unconditional flow of medical supplies and other humanitarian aid into all parts of Bougainville, including the area currently subject to a military blockade;

3. Regrets that the Government of Papua New Guinea, after agreeing to negotiate, has now unilaterally suspended the negotiations;

4. Urges the Government of Papua New Guinea to resume such negotiations without delay as a means of achieving a just and peaceful resolution to the conflict in the interest of avoiding further human rights violations;
5. Also urges the Government of Papua New Guinea immediately to invite the relevant Special Rapporteurs to investigate reports of torture and extrajudicial, summary and arbitrary executions in Bougainville, and to cooperate with them to enable them to fulfil their mandates;

6. Expresses its appreciation at the adoption by the Commission on Human Rights of resolution 1994/81 of 9 March 1994, in which it requested the Secretary-General to consider the appropriateness of appointing a special representative concerning the human rights situation in Bougainville.

1994/22. Situation of human rights in Haiti

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Reaffirming that all Member States have the obligation to promote human rights and to fulfil the obligations they have undertaken under the various instruments in this field,

Having in mind the report on the situation in Haiti (E/CN.4/1994/55) prepared by the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights, Mr. Marco Tulio Bruni Celli, in which he reports numerous violations of the right to life, security of person, freedom of expression, freedom of association and freedom of movement in that country,

Deeply concerned about the grave events in Haiti since 29 September 1991, which abruptly and violently interrupted the democratic process in that country and have resulted in the loss of human lives and violations of human rights,

Concerned at the mass exodus of Haitian nationals fleeing the country because of the steadily deteriorating political and economic situation since 29 September 1991,
Deeply alarmed at the persistence and worsening of violations of human rights, in particular, summary and arbitrary executions, involuntary disappearances, reports of the torture and rape of women and children, which have increased dramatically since 1993, arbitrary arrests and detentions, denial of freedom of expression, assembly and association, and the grave deterioration of the political, economic and social situation in the country,

Concerned about the expulsion, on 11 July 1994, by the de facto Haitian authorities of the International Civilian Mission established by the United Nations and the Organization of American States,

Taking into account the signature by all parties of the Governors Island Agreement of 3 July 1993 and the New York Pact of 16 July 1993,

Observing that the de facto regime in Haiti has not implemented those agreements and has not fulfilled its obligations under the resolutions adopted by various organs and bodies of the United Nations system,

Aware of the urgent need to keep a close watch on the situation of human rights in Haiti,

1. Once again strongly condemns the overthrow of the constitutionally elected President, Mr. Jean-Bertrand Aristide, and the use of violence and military coercion, and the deterioration of the situation of human rights in that country;

2. Expresses its conviction that the full implementation of the Governors Island Agreement by all parties is the only valid framework for resolving the crisis in Haiti and guaranteeing the constitutional order, in order to achieve an improvement in the human rights situation in the country, and that the refusal by the Haitian military to implement this Agreement has led to a deterioration of the human rights situation;

3. Expresses its deep concern about the considerable worsening of the human rights situation in Haiti since the coup d’état in September 1991 and the resulting increase in violations of the human rights embodied in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the American Convention on Human Rights and other international human rights instruments;

4. Again condemns the human rights situation, in particular since mid-1993, characterized by deaths, disappearances and assassinations, persecution, arbitrary arrests, torture, rape, improper demands by members of the armed forces for payment by citizens, abandonment of legislative programmes, the reappearance of the section chiefs, the banning of demonstrations and police repression of all acts of protest against the military authorities, as well as the grave deterioration of the political, economic and social situation in the country;
5. Draws the attention of the members of the international community to the fate of the Haitian nationals who are fleeing their country, and requests their support for the efforts being made to assist them, inter alia by considering possibilities of offering them temporary asylum;

6. Greatly hopes that the International Civilian Mission established by the United Nations and the Organization of American States will very soon be able to resume its work in Haiti, thus helping to prevent the perpetuation of certain human rights violations;

7. Expresses the hope that the mission of good offices being prepared by a group of Latin American countries will meet with success and thus permit the deployment of the United Nations Mission in Haiti with the objective of cooperating with the lawful authorities for the professionalization of the army, the creation of a separate police force and the setting up of the necessary structures to guarantee the country a climate for the establishment of democracy, as provided in the Governors Island Agreement;

8. Requests the Secretary-General of the United Nations to take any initiatives which may lead to a prompt solution to the crisis, particularly those which will peacefully re-establish constitutional order in the country, allow the constitutional President of the Republic, Jean-Bertrand Aristide, to return to Haiti and thus guarantee human rights;

9. Calls upon the States Members of the United Nations and other international organizations to intensify their humanitarian assistance to the people of Haiti, support all the efforts made to solve the problems of displaced persons and encourage the strengthening of the institutional coordination between the specialized agencies of the United Nations and between the United Nations and the Organization of American States;

10. Decides to continue its consideration of the situation of human rights in Haiti at its forty-seventh session, under agenda item 6.

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. VII.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the other international human rights instruments, as well as by the relevant norms and principles of international humanitarian law,

Recalling its resolution 1993/16 of 20 August 1993,
Bearing in mind that, in its resolution 1994/58 of 4 March 1994, the Commission on Human Rights took note with appreciation of the report by the independent expert on the situation of human rights in Guatemala, Ms. Mónica Pinto (E/CN.4/1994/10), which contains important recommendations to improve the human rights situation in the country,

Welcoming the measures adopted by the President of Guatemala in order to strengthen democracy and the rule of law,

Taking note with satisfaction of the signing of the agreements between the Government of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca,

Having considered the Framework Agreement for the Resumption of the Negotiating Process for a Firm and Lasting Peace between the Government of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca, signed in Mexico on 10 January 1994,

Recalling that the parties agreed in the Framework Agreement that all their agreements should be accompanied by appropriate verification mechanisms at both the national and the international levels, and that the United Nations will be responsible for such international mechanisms,

Emphasizing the importance of the signing of the Comprehensive Agreement on Human Rights, the Agreement on a Timetable for a Firm and Lasting Peace, the Agreement for the Resettlement of the Populations Uprooted by the Armed Confrontation and the Agreement on the Establishment of the Commission to Investigate Human Rights Violations and Acts of Violence which have Caused Suffering to the Guatemalan Population, signed between the Government of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca, the first two in Mexico on 29 March 1994 and the third and fourth in Oslo on 17 and 20 June 1994, respectively,

Taking into consideration that, in the Comprehensive Agreement on Human Rights, the parties request the Secretary-General to organize a mission for the verification of compliance with commitments contained in the Agreement,

Mindful of the importance of the role to be played by the Assembly of Civil Society, provided for in the Framework Agreement, in making recommendations to the parties on the most important points of the negotiations, including those relating to the identity and rights of indigenous peoples,

Concerned because, more than four months after the signing of the Comprehensive Agreement on Human Rights, the United Nations verification mission has still not been established,

Concerned also that there continue to be complaints about human rights violations, whatever the source of the violations,
Concerned further at the fact that cases of impunity continue to exist and little progress has been made in the investigations and judicial proceedings concerning cases of human rights violations,

Concerned at the situation of the displaced population in the areas affected by the internal armed conflict, as well as the extremely difficult conditions in which returnees are living,

Distressed at the persistence of the age-old marginalization and discrimination suffered by the indigenous populations in Guatemala,

1. Expresses its support for the Government of Guatemala and the Unidad Revolucionaria Nacional Guatemalteca, as well as the United Nations Mediator, for their endeavours to secure a firm and lasting peace;

2. Also expresses its firm support for the independent expert responsible for reporting on the situation of human rights in Guatemala, Ms. Mónica Pinto, and requests the Government of Guatemala to continue to cooperate fully with her;

3. Expresses its concern at the fact that the signing of the Comprehensive Agreement on Human Rights has not led to an improvement in the human rights situation;

4. Exhorts the Government of Guatemala to intensify its efforts to guarantee full respect for human rights by all the authorities, the armed and security forces and to bring to trial anyone guilty of serious violations of human rights and guarantee proper functioning of the administration of justice;

5. Requests the Government of Guatemala, as soon as possible, to increase economic and social development programmes and to strengthen in particular policies and programmes concerning the indigenous population, promoting its full participation, taking into account its proposals and respecting the country’s multicultural nature;

6. Requests all the parties to proceed to fulfil the commitments entered into and in particular requests the Government to implement the Comprehensive Agreement on Human Rights, which has been in force since 29 March 1994, and any other immediately applicable provision, as well as to prepare the urgent and necessary conditions for prompt implementation of the other agreements, once the Firm and Lasting Peace Agreement is signed;

7. Appeals, to this end, to the Secretary-General to ensure, by every means at his disposal, the establishment, as soon as possible, of the United Nations Verification Mission in Guatemala;
8. Requests the parties to take into special account, for the purposes of future agreements, the proposals agreed on by the Assembly of Civil Society and encourages the Assembly to continue its constructive work in finding consensus for the necessary transformation of the Guatemalan State and in society, in particular in all matters pertaining to full realization of the civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights of the entire population, within the framework of the peace agreements.

1994/24. The right to freedom of movement

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Reaffirming the right of everyone lawfully within the territory of a State to liberty of movement and freedom to choose his residence, and the prohibition of arbitrary deprivation of the right to enter one’s own country as set out in article 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and article 13 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Recognizing that practices of forcible exile, mass expulsions and deportations, population transfer, "ethnic cleansing" and other forms of forcible displacement of populations within a country or across borders deprive the affected populations of their right to freedom of movement,

Noting that policies of forcible displacement are one of the major causes of flows of refugees and internally displaced persons,

Concerned that more than 20 million refugees and even larger and growing numbers of internally displaced persons exist worldwide,

1. Affirms the right of persons to remain in peace in their own homes, on their own lands and in their own countries;

2. Also affirms the right of refugees and displaced persons to return, in safety and dignity, to their country of origin and/or within it, to their place of origin or choice;

3. Urges Governments and other actors involved to do everything possible in order to cease at once all practices of forced displacement, population transfer and "ethnic cleansing" in violation of international legal standards;
4. Decides to include under the agenda item entitled "Freedom of movement" a sub-item relating to questions of displacement entitled "Population displacement" and to keep under constant review respect for the right to freedom of movement, including the right to remain and to return.

[36th meeting 26 August 1994]

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. XX.]

1994/25. Question of the implications for human rights of United Nations action, including humanitarian assistance, in addressing international humanitarian problems and in the promotion and protection of human rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Mindful that one of the purposes of the United Nations is to achieve international cooperation in solving problems of an economic, social, cultural or humanitarian character and in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion,

Considering that all States Members of the United Nations have the duty to respect and to promote respect for the basic principles of international law enshrined in Article 2 of the Charter of the United Nations, as well as to implement Articles 55 and 56,

Reaffirming the principles of the sovereignty and territorial integrity of States, and that it is the responsibility of each State to care for the victims of natural disasters and other emergency situations occurring on its territory,

Reaffirming also the functions and competence as established in the Charter for the principal organs of the United Nations, in particular those relating to the need to foster international cooperation to achieve the promotion of universal respect for and observance of the human rights and fundamental freedoms of all,

Aware of the growing involvement of the United Nations in providing and coordinating humanitarian assistance to the victims of disasters and other emergency situations,

Reaffirming the close relationship which exists between general international law, international humanitarian law, international human rights law, refugee law and humanitarian assistance,

Aware that effective United Nations actions in the humanitarian field require a comprehensive analysis of the relevant legal principles and norms in relation to international cooperation in the humanitarian and human rights spheres in the light of the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and other applicable international norms, and that such United Nations actions would benefit from a thorough evaluation and clarification of the issues involved,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 45/100 of 14 December 1990, in which the Assembly reaffirmed the cardinal importance of humanitarian assistance for the victims of natural disasters and similar emergency situations,

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 45/102 of 14 December 1990, in which the Assembly encouraged the international community to contribute substantially and regularly to international humanitarian activities, and stressing, in this context, the importance of further developing international cooperation in the humanitarian field to facilitate better understanding, mutual respect, confidence and tolerance among countries and peoples, thus contributing to a more just and non-violent world,

Noting General Assembly resolution 47/120 V of 18 December 1992, in which the Assembly, welcoming the increasing role of the United Nations system in providing humanitarian assistance, encouraged the Secretary-General to continue to strengthen the capacity of the Organization in order to ensure coordinated planning and execution of humanitarian assistance programmes, drawing upon the specialized skills and resources of all parts of the United Nations system, as well as those of non-governmental organizations, as appropriate,

Noting also General Assembly resolution 48/116 of 20 December 1993, in which the Assembly, noting with concern that the number of refugees and other persons to whom the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees was called upon to provide assistance and protection had continued to increase and that their protection continued to be seriously jeopardized in many situations as a result of, inter alia, the failure to respect and ensure their fundamental freedoms and human rights, reaffirmed its support for the High Commissioner’s efforts to provide humanitarian assistance and protection, taking into account the complementarities of the mandates and expertise of other relevant organizations,

Welcoming the activities of the newly created Department for Humanitarian Affairs, which should be reinforced,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 48/57 of 14 December 1993, in which the Assembly expressed its deep concern about the increasing number and growing magnitude and complexity of natural disasters and other emergencies and stressed the need for improved coordination within the United Nations system and the necessity for the Department of Humanitarian Affairs to collect and disseminate timely information on natural disasters and other humanitarian emergencies in order to provide early warning of a crisis, and to assess needs on a continuing basis,

Mindful of the complexity and sensitivity of United Nations humanitarian action currently being undertaken in a number of countries plagued by war or internal conflict,
Mindful also of the role of the Sub-Commission, as a body of independent experts in the field of human rights, in providing competent United Nations bodies with its views within its area of competence, with the aim of establishing, in a collective effort, a better understanding of the complex interrelationship between human rights and humanitarian considerations, thereby providing the United Nations with a more secure foundation for future action,

1. Expresses its appreciation to Ms. Claire Palley for her further preparatory document on the question of the implications of humanitarian activities for the enjoyment of human rights (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/39);

2. Reaffirms the important role of the United Nations system as a whole in encouraging international cooperation in order to protect and promote human rights, as well as to address natural and man-made disasters, provide humanitarian assistance and coordinate disaster relief;

3. Decides to recommend to the Commission on Human Rights the appointment of Ms. Claire Palley as Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on the question of the implications for human rights of United Nations action under the Charter, including humanitarian assistance, in addressing international humanitarian problems and in the promotion and protection of human rights;

4. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit a preliminary report at its forty-seventh session, a progress report at its forty-eighth session and her final report at its forty-ninth session;

5. Invites the members of the Sub-Commission to submit to the Special Rapporteur their views on the question;

1994/26. Minimum humanitarian standards

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Appalled by the massive violations of human rights and humanitarian law in recent conflicts, particularly those in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Rwanda,
Considering that situations of internal violence, disturbances, tensions and public emergencies continue to cause serious instability and great suffering in all parts of the world,

Emphasizing that all persons, groups and public authorities should observe and themselves benefit from respect for the principles of international law derived from human rights, humanitarian law and established custom, including the principles of humanity and the dictates of public conscience,

Conscious of the need to reaffirm and develop principles governing the behaviour of all persons, groups and public authorities in situations of public emergency,

Observing that the Commission on Human Rights in recent years has dealt extensively with situations of massive violations of humanitarian principles, particularly during the special sessions on the former Yugoslavia and on Rwanda, making it desirable to achieve further clarification of international standards in this field,

Having considered, at its forty-third session, the Declaration of Minimum Humanitarian Standards, adopted by a group of experts at a meeting in Turku (Åbo), Finland, in December 1990 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1991/55),

Noting that the Declaration, having been adopted by a group of experts, does not in itself constitute an international legal instrument but aims at the reaffirmation and progressive development of international law,

1. Decides to transmit the text of the Declaration of Minimum Humanitarian Standards to the Commission on Human Rights;

2. Recommends that the Commission examine the Declaration with a view to its further elaboration and eventual adoption.

36th meeting
26 August 1994
[Adopted without a vote. See chap. V.]
Having examined the final report, including the annexes, prepared by the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/9),

Convinced that continued work on human rights and the environment is essential for the full realization of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

1. Expresses its deepest appreciation to the Special Rapporteur, Ms. Fatma Zohra Ksentini, for her comprehensive and profound final report on human rights and the environment;

2. Welcomes especially the conclusions and recommendations contained in the final report, as well as the draft principles on human rights and the environment;

3. Decides to transmit the final report to the Commission on Human Rights for its consideration, with a view to its publication and widest possible dissemination;

4. Invites the Commission on Human Rights to pay particular attention to the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report, taking into account its resolution 1994/65 of 5 March 1994 and the comments and observations made at the forty-sixth session of the Sub-Commission;

5. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1994/28. Recognition of gross and large-scale violations of human rights as an international crime

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Aware that gross and large-scale violations of human rights are a matter of grave concern for mankind,

Believing that such violations, if they are perpetrated on the orders of Governments or are sanctioned by them, pose the greatest danger to mankind,

Having discussed the working paper (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/10 and Corr.1) submitted by Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko in accordance with its decision 1992/109 of 27 August 1992,
Referring to its resolution 1993/30 of 25 August 1993, concerning the appointment of Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko as Special Rapporteur to prepare a report entitled "Recognition of gross and large-scale violations of human rights perpetrated on the orders of Governments or sanctioned by them as an international crime",

Taking into account decision 1994/103 of 4 March 1994 of the Commission on Human Rights, in which it decided to request the Sub-Commission to reconsider, without prejudice to the independence of the Sub-Commission and its members, its decisions to recommend new studies and related efforts, including the above-mentioned report,

Considering, however, that the preparation of this report is very important and opportune,

Taking into account that the Special Rapporteurs on the right to a fair trial, Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko and Mr. William Treat, completed their study in 1994,

Expressing its appreciation to Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko for the working paper on the definition of gross and large-scale violations of human rights as an international crime,

1. Decides to recommend to the Commission on Human Rights the appointment of Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko as Special Rapporteur to prepare a report entitled "Recognition of gross and large-scale violations of human rights perpetrated on the orders of Governments or sanctioned by them as an international crime";

2. Also decides to consider the report of the Special Rapporteur at its forty-seventh session under the agenda item entitled "Review of further developments in fields with which the Sub-Commission has been concerned";

3. Further decides to recommend that the Special Rapporteur take into account the comments made on his working paper at its forty-fifth and forty-sixth sessions, as well as relevant work of the International Law Commission;

4. Recommends that the Special Rapporteur include in his report a draft declaration on the question;

5. Recommends the following draft decision to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1994/29. Discrimination in the context of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) or acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS)

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Mindful that respect for the principle of non-discrimination is the key to the protection and realization of fundamental human rights and freedoms as recognized and protected by international standards,

Convinced that discrimination against any person on the grounds of AIDS or HIV infection, actual or presumed, violates fundamental human rights and freedoms,

Alarmed at discriminatory laws and policies and the emergence of new forms of discriminatory practices which deny people with HIV infection or AIDS, their families and associates, as well as those presumed to be infected or at risk of infection, enjoyment of their fundamental rights and freedoms,

Concerned that lack of full enjoyment of their fundamental rights by persons suffering from economic, social or legal disadvantage heightens their vulnerability to the risk of HIV infection,

Noting that, according to a report submitted to the Commission on the Status of Women at its thirty-third session (E/CN.6/1989/6/Add.1), women are especially vulnerable to the risk of HIV infection and to the economic and social impact of AIDS as a result of their disadvantaged social, legal and economic status,

Concerned that evidence indicates that other groups in society suffering discrimination in the enjoyment of their fundamental rights and freedoms, notably indigenous peoples, minorities, street children and other children with inadequate care and those living in poverty and social disadvantage, are also more vulnerable to the risk of infection as a result of disadvantage in access to education, health care and social services, and that they suffer disproportionately from the economic and social consequences of the pandemic,

Concerned also that the fear and ignorance surrounding AIDS are leading to increased stigmatization of and prejudice against people with HIV and AIDS and members of particular groups in society resulting, in some countries, in increasing violence against such individuals, arbitrary detention and deportation,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/49 of 4 March 1994 in which the Commission called upon all States to ensure respect for human rights in the context of AIDS and to ensure full enjoyment of all rights by people with HIV and AIDS, their families and those associated with them, and to take measures to combat social stigmatization and discrimination,

Bearing in mind World Health Assembly resolution WHA.45.35 of 14 May 1992 in which the Assembly recognized that there was no public health rationale for any measures that limit the rights of the individual, notably measures establishing mandatory screening, and called upon States to reinforce efforts to oppose discrimination against persons and specific groups known to be or suspected of being infected with HIV,

Recognizing that measures to combat discrimination and social stigma form an essential part of an effective public health strategy,

Welcoming the decision of the Economic and Social Council, contained in its resolution 1994/24 of 26 July 1994, endorsing the establishment of a joint and co-sponsored United Nations programme on HIV/AIDS,

1. Confirms that discrimination on the basis of AIDS or HIV status, actual or presumed, is prohibited by existing international human rights standards, and that the term "or other status" in non-discrimination provisions in international human rights texts should be interpreted to cover health status, including HIV/AIDS;

2. Calls upon all States to review their laws, policies and practices in the context of HIV and AIDS in order to ensure that they respect human rights standards, including the prohibition of AIDS-related discrimination, and to take all the necessary steps, including the introduction of protective legislation and appropriate education, to combat discrimination, prejudice and stigma, and to ensure the full enjoyment of civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights by people with HIV and AIDS, their families and those associated with them, and people presumed to be at risk of infection;

3. Also calls upon all States to strengthen their efforts to advance the legal, economic and social status of women, children and indigenous peoples, as well as of minorities and other groups suffering discrimination in the enjoyment of their rights, in order to render them less vulnerable to the risk of HIV infection and to the adverse socio-economic consequences of the AIDS pandemic;

4. Commends the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery for giving attention to protecting children from the risk of HIV infection resulting from sexual exploitation;

5. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to consider recommending the organization by the Centre for Human Rights of a second international expert consultation on human rights and AIDS, with particular emphasis on the prevention of AIDS-related discrimination and stigma;

6. Also requests the Commission on Human Rights to consider the appropriate methods by which to keep under continuous review the protection of the rights of people affected by AIDS-related discrimination;

7. Welcomes the request by the Commission on Human Rights to the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission at its fifty-first session a report on international and domestic measures taken to protect human rights and prevent discrimination in the context of HIV/AIDS, and recommends that this report consider the development of a declaration on respect for human rights in the response to AIDS and guidelines for the prevention of AIDS-related discrimination;

8. Also welcomes the report of the Secretary-General on developments in the United Nations system concerning HIV and AIDS, in particular the progress made in establishing a joint and co-sponsored United Nations programme on HIV/AIDS (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/8), and requests the co-sponsors of the future programme to integrate a strong human rights component into the programme’s strategies and work;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to bring the present resolution to the attention of the relevant United Nations agencies and bodies, including working groups and special rapporteurs, as well as the treaty monitoring bodies, and urges all relevant bodies and procedures to consider the impact of AIDS-related discrimination within the context of their mandates and to include consideration of this issue in their reports;

10. Decides to keep the issue of AIDS-related discrimination under continuous review, and to give consideration to this issue under all relevant items of its agenda as well as in the work of its relevant working groups and special rapporteurs.

1994/30. Traditional practices affecting the health of women and children

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolutions 1991/23 of 29 August 1991 and 1993/33 of 25 August 1993,

Recalling also Commission on Human Rights decision 1994/104 of 4 March 1994, by which the Commission endorsed the recommendations of the Sub-Commission,

Taking note with appreciation of the report of the second United Nations Regional Seminar on Traditional Practices affecting the Health of Women and Children (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/10 and Corr.1) and in particular of the Plan of Action for the Elimination of Harmful Traditional Practices affecting the

1. Expressing its appreciation to the Government of Sri Lanka for hosting the second United Nations Regional Seminar on traditional practices affecting the health of women and children at Colombo from 4 to 8 July 1994;
2. Expresses its deep appreciation to the Special Rapporteur, Ms. Halima Embarek Warzazi, for her constructive contribution to the seminar and specifically to the elaboration of the Programme of Action;

3. Adopts the Programme of Action on Traditional Practices affecting the Health of Women and Children submitted by the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/10/Add.1 and Corr.1);

4. Decides to recommend that the Commission on Human Rights extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for two more years, in order to enable her to undertake an in-depth study to assess, inter alia, the differences and the similarities between traditional practices affecting the health of women and children in many parts of the world, taking into consideration, among other relevant documents and information, the conclusions and recommendations of the two regional seminars and the effects of the implementation of the Plan of Action;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the Plan of Action to the International Conference on Population and Development, to be held at Cairo in September 1994, and to the Fourth World Conference on Women, to be held in Beijing in 1995, as well as to all competent organs and bodies of the United Nations system and to all intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations concerned;

6. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit her preliminary report at the forty-seventh session and her final report at the forty-eighth session of the Sub-Commission;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all the assistance that the Special Rapporteur may require in the exercise of her mandate;

8. Decides to keep this item on its agenda, and recommends that the Commission on Human Rights continue to include it in its agenda also;

9. Recommends the following draft decision to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

   [For the text, see chap. I, sect. B, draft decision 8.]

   36th meeting
   26 August 1994
   [Adopted without a vote. See chap. V.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1992/1 of 14 August 1992, in which it requested its Chairman to appoint one of its members to report to the Sub-Commission on the progress made in the universal acceptance of human rights instruments,

Bearing in mind steps taken in earlier years by the Sub-Commission to consider ways and means of encouraging Governments which had not yet done so to ratify or accede to international human rights instruments,

Considering that since 1979, the year when the Sub-Commission began systematically to address the issue of encouraging universal ratification of international human rights instruments, no substantive progress has been made in its attempt to convince Governments of the utility of the involvement of the United Nations in assisting them to ratify human rights instruments,

Taking note of the absence of any formal response from Member States to the invitations extended to them to offer clarification as to why they are unable to ratify these instruments,

Taking note also of the absence of advisory services on this issue provided by the Centre for Human Rights at the request of States, resulting from the continued lack of interest by States in the matter,

Noting with appreciation the extensive and continuous attempts to promote further ratifications undertaken by the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Rights and the Centre for Human Rights,

Reaffirming the importance of the ongoing informal consultations between these United Nations entities and Member States resulting from those promotional activities,

Bearing in mind the ongoing problems in the rationalization of its work, especially during its forty-sixth session,

1. Decides to discontinue consideration of this matter under a separate agenda item;

2. Also decides to take up these issues when they arise under the existing items of its agenda.

36th meeting

1994/32. Strengthening of the Centre for Human Rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling all relevant General Assembly and Commission on Human Rights resolutions,

Considering that the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms is one of the basic purposes of the Charter of the United Nations and an issue of the utmost importance for the Organization,

Acknowledging the increasing attention given to the activities undertaken by the United Nations system in the field of human rights,

Recalling that the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23) stresses the importance of strengthening the Centre for Human Rights,

Noting that the activities envisaged in the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action will add further to the workload and the responsibilities of the Centre for Human Rights,

Emphasizing the important role of the Centre for Human Rights as a coordinating unit within the United Nations system in the promotion, protection and implementation of human rights and the need to provide it with sufficient human and financial resources, particularly in view of the fact that its workload has dramatically increased while resources have failed to keep pace with the expansion of its responsibilities,

Emphasizing also the need to pay particular attention to the recruitment to the Centre for Human Rights of personnel from developing countries, to ensure equitable geographical distribution and in this regard to give priority in particular to recruitment to high-level and Professional posts and also to the recruitment of women,

Welcoming the fact that the World Conference on Human Rights made recommendations for securing the necessary financial and other resources for United Nations activities in the field of human rights,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to enhance further the role and importance of the Centre for Human Rights, under the overall supervision of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, as the coordinating unit within the United Nations system with respect to human rights;

2. Welcomes the efforts of the Secretary-General, and encourages him to continue to implement measures to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Centre for Human Rights;
3. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that sufficient financial, human and other resources are accorded to the Centre for Human Rights to enable it to undertake all its functions, in full and on time;

4. Also requests the Secretary-General and the competent United Nations bodies to implement, as appropriate and as a matter of urgency, the relevant recommendations which the World Conference on Human Rights made with regard to securing the necessary financial and other resources for the strengthening of the Centre for Human Rights;

5. Decides to consider the question again at it forty-seventh session.

1994/33. Right to restitution, compensation and rehabilitation for victims of gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling resolution 1994/35 of 4 March 1994 of the Commission on Human Rights in which the Commission recommended that the Sub-Commission, in conformity with Sub-Commission resolution 1993/29 of 25 August 1993, take measures to examine the basic principles and guidelines proposed by the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Theo van Boven, in his study on the right to restitution, compensation and rehabilitation for victims of gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/8) with a view to making proposals thereon and report to the Commission,

Noting with interest the report of the Secretary-General prepared pursuant to Sub-Commission resolution 1993/29 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/7 and Add.1) containing comments on the proposed basic principles and guidelines received from States, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations,

Noting also the report of its sessional working group on the administration of justice and the question of compensation (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/22) and the preliminary consideration given by the sessional working group to the proposed basic principles and guidelines,

1. Decides to continue the consideration of the proposed basic principles and guidelines at its forty-seventh session with a view to making substantive progress in the matter;
2. Requests the Secretary-General to invite States and competent intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations which have not yet done so to submit their comments on the proposed basic principles and guidelines.

1994/34. Question of the impunity of perpetrators of violations of human rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, other relevant human rights instruments and the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949,

Recalling the interdependence and indivisibility of civil and political rights and economic, social and cultural rights,

Convinced that the increasingly widespread practice worldwide of impunity for perpetrators of violations of human rights is a fundamental obstacle to the observance of human rights,

Recalling its resolution 1992/23 of 27 August 1992, in which it decided to request Mr. El Hadji Guissé and Mr. Louis Joinet to draft a study on the impunity of perpetrators of violations of human rights, and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1993/43 of 5 March 1993, in which the Commission endorsed the decision of the Sub-Commission,

Recalling also its resolution 1993/37 of 26 August 1993 and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/44 of 4 March 1994,

Bearing in mind paragraph II.91 of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23), in which the World Conference on Human Rights supported the efforts of the Commission and the Sub-Commission to intensify opposition to the impunity of perpetrators of serious violations of human rights,

1. Welcomes with satisfaction the preliminary report (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/11) on the question of the impunity of perpetrators of violations of human rights (economic, social and cultural rights);

2. Decides, in order to facilitate the treatment of the question, to entrust Mr. Joinet with the completion of the first aspect, concerning civil and political rights, and Mr. Guissé with the second aspect, concerning economic, social and cultural rights;
3. Requests the Special Rapporteurs to submit their respective reports to the Sub-Commission at its forty-seventh session;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteurs with any assistance required to enable them to discharge their task;

5. Invites Governments, competent bodies of the United Nations, the specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations to provide or continue to provide information on the question;

6. Decides to consider the question of the impunity of perpetrators of violations of human rights at its forty-seventh session under the agenda item entitled "The administration of justice and the human rights of detainees".

1994/35. The right to a fair trial

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1990/18 of 30 August 1993, in which it decided to entrust Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko and Mr. William Treat with the preparation of a study entitled "The right to a fair trial: current recognition and measures necessary for its strengthening",

Recalling, in particular, Commission decision 1994/107 of 4 March 1994, by which it decided to consider at its fifty-first session the final report of the Special Rapporteurs including, if appropriate, the desirability of a third optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, aimed at guaranteeing under all circumstances the right to a fair trial and a remedy,

Recalling also articles 8, 10 and 11 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which affirm the right of every individual to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, the right to be presumed innocent until proven guilty and the right to an effective remedy,

Recalling further article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, which reaffirms the right of every individual to a fair and public hearing,
Mindful of article 9, paragraphs 3 and 4, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which require States parties to ensure that an arrested or detained person is brought promptly before a judge or similar officer and that anyone who is deprived of liberty is entitled to take proceedings before a court in order that the court may without delay determine the lawfulness of the detention and order release if the detention is not lawful,

Mindful also of article 2, paragraph 3, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and article 8 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which assure the right to an effective remedy for violations of human rights,

Noting that the fair trial provisions contained in articles 5, 6, 7 and 26 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights are non-derogable,

Noting also that the judicial guarantees for the protection of the rights made non-derogable by article 27 of the American Convention on Human Rights are non-derogable,

Noting further the guarantees of a fair trial and a remedy incorporated in articles 5, 7, 12, 13 and 15 of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment,

Noting in addition that articles 96 and 99 to 108 of the Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War prescribe the rights of prisoners of war in judicial proceedings; that articles 54, 64 to 74 and 117 to 126 of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War provide for the right to a fair trial and a remedy in occupied territories and extend fair trial guarantees in international armed conflicts to all persons, including those arrested for actions relating to the conflict,

Noting additionally that common article 3 of the four Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and article 6 of Additional Protocol II to the Geneva Conventions contain indispensable judicial guarantees for the protection of the right to a fair trial during non-international armed conflicts,

Aware of the Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners, the Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary, the Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment, the Basic Principles on the Role of Lawyers and the Guidelines on the Role of Prosecutors, which are intended to apply at all times,

Aware also that the Human Rights Committee at its fiftieth session decided to communicate to the Sub-Commission its view that the remedies provided in article 9, paragraphs 3 and 4, read in conjunction with article 2 are inherent in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights as a whole,
Aware further that the Human Rights Committee at its twenty-first session adopted General Comment No. 13 on article 14 in which it indicated that States parties should, even in times of public emergency, respect the conditions in paragraph 1 of article 14 of the Covenant,

1. Expresses its appreciation to Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko and Mr. William Treat for their final report and for their recommendations for strengthening the implementation of the right to a fair trial and a remedy;

2. Also expresses its appreciation to the Governments, non-governmental organizations and bar associations that provided information for the study, for example by responding to the questionnaires prepared by the Special Rapporteurs;

3. Reaffirms that article 2, paragraph 3, article 9, paragraphs 3 and 4 and article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights are inherent in the Covenant as a whole and should accordingly be considered to be non-derogable, particularly because they are necessary to protect other non-derogable rights;

4. Endorses the other recommendations of the Special Rapporteurs for strengthening the implementation of the right to a fair trial and a remedy;

5. Recommends, as suggested by the Special Rapporteurs, that the international monitoring of the right to a fair trial and a remedy continue through such bodies as the Human Rights Committee, the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, the Special Rapporteur on the independence and impartiality of the judiciary, jurors and assessors and the independence of lawyers, the European Commission and Court of Human Rights, the Inter-American Commission on and Court of Human Rights, the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights and international trial observers sent by intergovernmental organizations, Governments and non-governmental organizations;

6. Endorses the useful summary of norms and interpretations embodied in the draft body of principles on the right to a fair trial and a remedy (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/24, annex II) and believes it beneficial to consider the draft body of principles;

7. Notes with appreciation and approves the proposal of the Special Rapporteurs to compile, without financial implications, the entire study so that it can be published in one volume to be issued under the United Nations Human Rights Study Series;
8. Recommends the following draft decision to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1994/36. Question of human rights and states of emergency

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/18 of 22 February 1983, in which the Commission requested the Sub-Commission to propose measures designed to ensure respect throughout the world of human rights and fundamental freedoms in situations where states of siege or emergency exist, especially of those rights referred to in article 4, paragraph 2, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, prohibiting derogation from certain rights, even in time of public emergency,

Having taken note of the seventh revised annual report and list of States which, since 1 January 1985, have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency, submitted by the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Leandro Despouy (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/23 and Corr.1),

Bearing in mind that, in its resolution 1991/34 of 5 March 1991, the Commission on Human Rights invited the Sub-Commission to consider the question of the effectiveness of habeas corpus and similar remedies during states of emergencies and to formulate suggestions thereon,

Recalling that it requested the Special Rapporteur to make recommendations on the impact of emergency measures on non-derogable rights, and noting with satisfaction that in May 1994 he organized, for this purpose, an international expert meeting for an initial study process that deserves to be further explored,

1. Takes note with interest of the seventh annual revised report and list of States which, since 1 January 1985, have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency, submitted by the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/23 and Corr.1), and notes with satisfaction that the Special Rapporteur is increasingly enjoying active cooperation from States, as well as competent bodies of the United Nations, the specialized agencies, non-governmental organizations and competent university institutes;

2. Notes with concern that, as is apparent from the seventh report, dated 3 June 1994, since 1 January 1985 a state of emergency has been proclaimed, extended or maintained in various forms on 196 occasions in States and territories, whereas in that same period, it has been terminated only 59 times;

3. Invites all States whose legislation does not contain any explicit provision guaranteeing the legality of the introduction of a state of emergency to adopt provisions in conformity with international rules and principles, as developed in the successive reports of the Special Rapporteur and endorsed by the Commission on Human Rights, and similarly invites States whose legislation explicitly provides for states of emergency to ensure that such legislation is in conformity with international rules on the matter;

4. Notes the increasing interest shown by States in receiving technical assistance concerning states of emergency and the rights which cannot be derogated from in such circumstances, and expresses the hope that the Secretary-General will be able to respond promptly and effectively to requests from States in the context of advisory services in the field of human rights and through the Special Rapporteur;

5. Urges Governments, particularly those facing situations of internal unrest, to limit resort to a state of emergency exclusively to circumstances whose seriousness and exceptional character are such that they justify the introduction of such an emergency and to combine such introduction with guarantees, notably with regard to proportionality, duration and the inalienability of non-derogable rights, intended to maintain respect for human rights, so as to prevent a state of emergency from becoming commonplace and from being unjustifiably perpetuated;

6. Notes with deep concern that, to deal with certain situations, including internal unrest or the threat of such unrest, some States do not hesitate to take emergency measures without officially proclaiming a state of emergency and that such measures have serious repercussions on the enjoyment of human rights, and invites all States to ensure that no emergency measure, including suspension or limitation of certain basic rights, is taken without the corresponding state of emergency being officially proclaimed, in accordance with national law and international rules and principles;

7. Takes note with interest of the consultations entered into by the Special Rapporteur to devise principles to be followed for drafting legal provisions on states of emergency (March 1991) and to study non-derogable rights in states or situations of emergency (May 1994), encourages the Special Rapporteur to organize, in May 1995 at Geneva, a second expert meeting on the question of non-derogable rights to explore the matter further, and requests him to report on the results of the meeting at its forty-seventh session, in the context of his eighth report;
8. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-first session an updated list of States which have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency since 1 January 1985, so that the Commission will have the latest and most comprehensive information possible on the past 10 years;

9. Takes note of the consultations with institutions and experts already held by the Special Rapporteur in implementation of its resolution 1993/28 of 25 August 1993 on the subject of receiving, storing and retrieving information, through a databank, on states of emergency and related human rights questions, and invites him to pursue and broaden such consultations in early 1995 so as to report on the results at its forty-seventh session;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to place at the disposal of the Special Rapporteur all the human and material resources needed to carry out his mandate in accordance with the foregoing;

11. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1994/37. Measures towards the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the provisions of the Charter which establish that one of the purposes of the United Nations is to achieve international cooperation in solving international problems of an economic, social, cultural or humanitarian character, and in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights for all,

Conscious that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights provides that everyone is entitled to realization of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality,

Mindful of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23) adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights, in which the need is underlined for a concerted effort to ensure recognition of economic, social and cultural rights at the national, regional and international levels,

Reaffirming the interdependence and indivisibility of civil, cultural, economic, political and social human rights and that the promotion and protection of any of these rights should never exempt or excuse States from the promotion and protection of the other rights,

Emphasizing the need to secure, within the shortest possible time-frame, the full respect and enjoyment of the rights contained in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, with particular emphasis on the rights of the most vulnerable and disadvantaged,

Welcoming the decisions of the General Assembly to convene the World Summit for Social Development in 1995 and the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II) in 1996, both of which can provide a means of further strengthening economic, social and cultural rights and of expeditiously promoting the full realization of these rights,

Welcoming the working paper (E/C.12/1994/WP.9) submitted by the advisory services programme of the Centre for Human Rights to the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, at its tenth session, held in May 1994, outlining measures taken by the advisory services programme relating to economic, social and cultural rights,

Taking note of Sub-Commission document E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/11 which addresses impunity in the context of economic, social and cultural rights,

Welcoming the valuable work carried out by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Working Group on the Right to Development,

Convinced of the need, throughout the United Nations human rights programme, substantially to increase attention to and to undertake activities on economic, social and cultural rights with a view to promoting the full realization of these rights,

Aware that many of the activities outlined in earlier resolutions on economic, social and cultural rights by the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities have yet to be carried out or completed,

1. Welcomes the efforts of the Secretary-General to publish in one document the compiled reports of the Special Rapporteur on the realization of economic, social and cultural rights, Mr. Danilo Türk;

2. Expresses the hope that the international financial institutions will respond favourably to the request made by the Commission on Human Rights in its resolutions 1993/14 of 26 February 1993 and 1994/20 of 1 March 1994 to consider convening an expert seminar on the role of these institutions in the realization of economic, social and cultural rights, and encourages the international financial institutions to ensure the wide participation of human rights experts in the seminar, including representatives of non-governmental organizations;

3. Urges the international financial institutions, in particular the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, to bear in mind the impact of their policies and programmes on the realization of economic, social and cultural rights;

4. Encourages the United Nations Children’s Fund, the United Nations Development Programme, the regional commissions, the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat), the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, the World Trade Organization and other relevant international programmes and agencies to integrate human rights concerns into their respective mandates;

5. Invites the Preparatory Committee for the World Summit for Social Development, to be held at Copenhagen in 1995, to give due emphasis to economic, social and cultural rights, and in particular to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, in developing general principles and guidelines and the plan of action of the Summit and to respond favourably to the offer by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights to act as the monitoring body for the plan of action arising from the Summit;

6. Also invites the Preparatory Committee for the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II), to be held in 1996, to give due emphasis to economic, social and cultural rights, in particular the right to adequate housing, in developing general principles and guidelines and the plan of action of the Conference;

7. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to:

   (a) Consider the desirability of appointing thematic rapporteurs entrusted with investigating specific economic, social and cultural rights, in particular the right to adequate housing and human rights and the environment, especially in view of the substantial non-realization of these and other economic, social and cultural rights;

   (b) Examine the work carried out by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights concerning the adoption of an optional protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights granting individuals and groups the right to submit communications alleging non-compliance by States parties, whether by act or omission, with the provisions of the Covenant and to forward its specific views to the Committee as to the contents of such an optional protocol;

(c) Consider explicitly requesting each country rapporteur to include a specific reference to the enjoyment of economic, social and cultural rights in his or her reports and to develop guidelines for use by country rapporteurs in this regard;

(d) Request the High Commissioner for Human Rights to take into full consideration economic, social and cultural rights in carrying out his mandate;

(e) Request the international financial institutions, in particular the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and the World Trade Organization, to develop independent mechanisms designed to ensure that international human rights standards are taken fully into account in the adoption of all relevant policies, projects and practices and that these standards are fully respected in this regard;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to:

(a) Complete the preparation of basic policy guidelines on structural adjustment and economic, social and cultural rights, based on the principles of international human rights law and which could serve as a basis for continued dialogue between the United Nations human rights programme and the international financial institutions of the United Nations, in particular the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund;

(b) Continue efforts towards the development of policy guidelines relating to economic, social and cultural rights;

(c) Continue also the survey of the legislative recognition of economic, social and cultural rights and, in this context, make concrete proposals as to the need for further standard-setting in the field of economic, social and cultural rights, and take into account the draft international convention on housing rights contained in the second progress report of the Special Rapporteur on promoting the realization of the right to adequate housing (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/20, chap. IX) and the draft declaration of principles on human rights and the environment contained in the final report of the Special Rapporteur on human rights and the environment (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/9, annex I);

(d) Consider the possibility of convening expert seminars, in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/20, focused on specific economic, social and cultural rights, including (i) the right to work; (ii) the right to social security; (iii) the right to housing; (iv) the right to food; (v) the right to health; (vi) the right to education; and (vii) the right to culture, with a view to clarifying the particular content of these rights and elaborating universally relevant policy guidelines for each of these rights based on international human rights law;
(e) Consider, as a matter of priority, increasing the number of staff of the Centre for Human Rights with practical expertise in the area of economic, social and cultural rights and, in this regard, consider also the establishment of a section devoted exclusively to activities on and the promotion of economic, social and cultural rights, including the right to development, within the Centre for Human Rights;

(f) Develop the capacity necessary for carrying out training sessions for States, United Nations specialized and other agencies and programmes and non-governmental organizations on economic, social and cultural rights;

(g) Prepare for its consideration at its forty-seventh session a background document examining the relationship between the enjoyment of human rights, in particular, international labour and trade union rights, and the working methods and activities of transnational corporations;

9. Decides to consider progress made in implementing the present resolution at its forty-seventh session under the agenda item entitled "The realization of economic, social and cultural rights".

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

1994/39. Forced evictions

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling also Commission on Human Rights resolution 1993/77 of 10 March 1993,

Reaffirming that every woman, man and child has the right to a secure place to live in peace and dignity,

Concerned that, according to United Nations statistics, in excess of one billion persons throughout the world are homeless or inadequately housed, and that this number is growing,

Recognizing that the practice of forced eviction involves the involuntary removal of persons, families and groups from their homes and communities, resulting in increased levels of homelessness, the loss of livelihood, landlessness, inadequate housing and living conditions and growing levels of poverty,

Disturbed that forced evictions and homelessness intensify social conflict and inequality and invariably affect the poorest, most socially, economically, environmentally and politically disadvantaged and vulnerable sectors of society,

Aware that forced evictions can be carried out, sanctioned, demanded, proposed, initiated or tolerated by a range of actors,

Aware also that racially motivated and other discriminatory motives are behind a large number of forced evictions,

Emphasizing that ultimate legal responsibility for preventing forced evictions rests with Governments,
Recalling that General Comment No. 2 (1990) on international technical assistance measures, adopted by the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights at its fourth session, states, inter alia, that international agencies should scrupulously avoid involvement in projects which involve, among other things, large-scale evictions or displacement of persons without the provision of all appropriate protection and compensation (E/1990/23, annex III, para. 6),

Mindful of the questions concerning forced eviction included in the guidelines for States parties’ reports submitted in conformity with articles 16 and 17 of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (E/1991/23, annex IV),

Noting with appreciation that the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, in its General Comment No. 4 (1991), considered that instances of forced eviction were, prima facie, incompatible with the requirements of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and could only be justified in the most exceptional circumstances, and in accordance with the relevant principles of international law (E/1992/23, annex III, para. 18),

Recalling the conclusions and recommendations contained in the analytical report compiled by the Secretary-General on forced evictions (E/CN.4/1994/20), submitted to the Commission on Human Rights at its fiftieth session,

Noting the concluding observations of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights at its fifth (1990) to tenth (1994) sessions concerning forced evictions within specific States parties,

Noting also the inclusion of forced evictions as one of the primary causes of the international housing crisis in the working paper and the first and second progress reports of the Special Rapporteur on promoting the realization of the right to adequate housing, Mr. Rajindar Sachar (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1992/15, E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/15 and E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/20),

1. Reaffirms that the practice of forced eviction constitutes a gross violation of a broad range of human rights, in particular the right to adequate housing;

2. Strongly urges Governments to undertake immediately all necessary measures, at all levels, towards eliminating the practice of forced eviction, in particular those Governments on whose territories forced evictions are currently planned to take place;

3. Also strongly urges Governments to confer legal security of tenure on all persons currently threatened with forced eviction and to adopt all necessary legal, administrative and other measures giving full protection against forced eviction, based upon effective participation, consultation and negotiation with affected persons or groups;
4. Recommends that all Governments provide immediate restitution, compensation and/or appropriate and sufficient alternative accommodation or land, consistent with their wishes or needs, to persons and communities that have been forcibly evicted, following mutually satisfactory negotiations with the affected persons or groups;

5. Invites all international financial, trade, development and other related institutions and agencies, in particular those associated with the United Nations, to take fully into account the views contained in the present resolution, and pronouncements under international law on the practice of forced eviction;

6. Invites the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights to consider adopting a general comment on forced evictions with reference to the specific obligations of States parties as contained in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, in particular as they relate to the right to adequate food and housing;

7. Invites all country and thematic rapporteurs of both the Sub-Commission and the Commission on Human Rights to include cases of forced eviction in their respective reports and to seek to monitor consistently the practice of forced evictions as it relates to the countries and themes involved;

8. Invites the treaty bodies to examine forced evictions within the context of their respective mandates;

9. Requests the Preparatory Committee for the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II), to be held in 1996, to address the issue of forced eviction, in particular as a violation of the right to adequate housing, in the agenda, the principles and guidelines and the plan of action to be developed within the framework of the Conference;

10. Requests the Secretary-General, in view of the numerous developments concerning this practice within various programmes of the United Nations, to compile and publish, within the Human Rights Fact Sheet series, a fact sheet on forced evictions and human rights;

11. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to consider how best to proceed with further activities on the question of forced eviction under the agenda item dealing with the realization of economic, social and cultural rights;

12. Requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with paragraph 172 of his analytical report (E/CN.4/1994/20), to prepare a series of guidelines on international events and forced evictions;
13. Decides to consider the issue of forced evictions at its forty-seventh session under the agenda item entitled "The realization of economic, social and cultural rights" and to determine at its forty-seventh session how most effectively to continue its consideration of the issue of forced evictions.

1994/40. Human rights and income distribution

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Reaffirming the indivisibility, interdependence and interrelated nature of economic, social and cultural rights and civil and political rights,

Mindful that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and a wide range of additional texts provide unequivocally that all persons are entitled to the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

Taking note of the Declaration on the Right to Development (General Assembly resolution 41/128 of 4 December 1986, annex),

Recalling paragraph I.10 of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23), in which the World Conference on Human Rights, inter alia, reaffirmed the right to development as a universal and inalienable right and an integral part of human rights, and urged States and the international community to promote an effective international cooperation for the realization of the right to development and the elimination of obstacles to development,

Aware that all States have legally binding obligations to respect, protect and fulfil economic, social and cultural rights,

Convinced that education plays a fundamental role for the exercise of human rights and for providing equality of opportunity for all,

Recalling the reports of the Special Rapporteur on the realization of economic, social and cultural rights, Mr. Danilo Türk, in particular his final report, which addressed a range of issues concerning the relationship between the enjoyment of human rights and income distribution (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1992/16, paras. 76-84),

Concerned that the implementation of economic, social and cultural rights in general and the right to education in particular have not yet received sufficient attention within the United Nations human rights framework,
Noting its resolution 1993/40 of 26 August 1993 in which it decided to entrust Mr. Asbjørn Eide with the task of producing, without financial implications, a preparatory document on the relationship between the enjoyment of human rights, in particular economic, social and cultural rights, and income distribution, at both national and international levels, taking also into account matters relating to the realization of the right to development, with a view to determining how most effectively to strengthen activities in this field,

Noting also Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/20 of 1 March 1994, in which the Commission endorsed the decision of the Sub-Commission and encouraged the Sub-Commission to continue to give attention to this issue,

Aware that the relationship between income distribution and growing levels of poverty, as well as the violation of human rights, requires further in-depth research and analysis by the human rights community,

Reiterating the fundamental principles of equality of treatment, human dignity, equity and justice,

Affirming the inherent linkages between the enjoyment of all human rights, in particular economic, social and cultural rights, and the striving towards a more equitable distribution of economic resources both within and between nations,

1. Welcomes the preparatory document on the relationship between the enjoyment of human rights, in particular economic, social and cultural rights, and income distribution, prepared by Mr. Asbjørn Eide (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/21);

2. Endorses his conclusion that concentration of wealth constitutes serious obstacles to the realization of human rights, be they economic, social, cultural, political or civil, and that equality of opportunity is an essential element for participating effectively in the processes of development and for obtaining a just share of the benefits from it;

3. Decides to appoint Mr. José Bengoa as Special Rapporteur on the relationship between the enjoyment of human rights, in particular economic, social and cultural rights, and income distribution, at both national and international levels, taking also into account matters relating to the realization of the right to development, with a view to determining how most effectively to strengthen activities in this field;

4. Requests the Special Rapporteur to pay particular attention to the impact of the enjoyment of human rights, and that of the right to education in particular, on income distribution;

5. Also requests the Special Rapporteur to submit a preliminary report at its forty-seventh session, a progress report at its forty-eighth session and a final report at its forty-ninth session;
6. Requests the Secretary-General to invite Governments, United Nations bodies, the specialized agencies and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to provide the Special Rapporteur with information relevant to the preparation of his report;

7. Also requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the assistance he may require for the preparation of his study;

8. Recommends the following draft decision to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

   [For the text, see chap. I, sect. B, draft decision 11.]

1994/41. Human rights and extreme poverty

   The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

   Recalling its resolution 1993/35 of 25 August 1993, in which it took note with appreciation of the preliminary report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1993/16),

   Noting Commission on Human Rights resolution 1994/12 of 25 February 1994, in which the Commission approved the recommendations of the Special Rapporteur relating to the organization of a seminar on extreme poverty and the denial of human rights at a time close to the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty, instituted on 17 October of each year by the General Assembly in its resolution 47/196 of 22 December 1992, and endorsed Sub-Commission resolution 1993/35 taking note of the preliminary report of the Special Rapporteur,

   1. Takes note with appreciation of the interim report on human rights and extreme poverty (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/19) submitted by the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Leandro Despouy;

   2. Welcomes the approach proposed by the Special Rapporteur in his report;
3. Approves the proposals of the Special Rapporteur concerning the holding of a seminar on the topic "Extreme poverty and the denial of human rights" approved by the Commission and scheduled for 12-14 October 1994 in New York, and in particular the proposals intended to encourage participation and statements by persons living in extreme poverty and persons working alongside them in a genuine partnership, thereby responding to paragraphs I.14 and I.25 of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights on 25 June 1993 (A/CONF.157/23);

4. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit, at its forty-seventh session, a second interim report on the topic of human rights and extreme poverty taking account of the comments made, particularly by the members of the Sub-Commission, during consideration of his first interim report, and the results of the seminar on the topic "Extreme poverty and the denial of human rights", and including the initial results of his consultation with persons living in extreme poverty and persons working alongside them;

5. Considers that it would be useful for the Special Rapporteur to submit the results of the seminar to the Commission on Human Rights at its fifty-first session and to the World Summit for Social Development to be held at Copenhagen in March 1995;

6. Expresses the wish that the consultation undertaken by the Special Rapporteur should be continued, and invites Governments, intergovernmental organizations, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations that have not yet done so to answer the questionnaire prepared by him;

7. Requests the Special Rapporteur to submit to it, at its forty-eighth session, a final report focusing on the results of his consultation with persons living in extreme poverty and persons working alongside them, and taking account of the conclusions and relevant data emerging from the World Summit for Social Development in March 1995 and the Fourth World Conference on Women to be held in Beijing in 1995, and of the activities to be undertaken in 1996, which has been proclaimed by the General Assembly International Year for the Eradication of Poverty in resolution 48/183 of 21 December 1993;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to make available to the Special Rapporteur the human and material resources necessary for the fulfilment of his mandate, in particular for the holding of the seminar on the topic "Extreme poverty and the denial of human rights";

9. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

Recalling further that the Sub-Commission in its resolution 1992/28 recognized that practices of population transfer constitute a violation of fundamental human rights,

1. Takes note with appreciation and commends the progress report on the human rights dimensions of population transfer, including the implantation of settlers and settlements (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/18 and Corr.1) submitted by the Special Rapporteur, in particular section VI on state responsibility and population transfer;

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1992/4 of 14 August 1992,

Recalling also the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, adopted by the World Conference on Human Rights, which states that the human rights of women and of the girl child are an inalienable, integral and indivisible part of universal human rights and that the human rights of women should form an integral part of the United Nations human rights activities (A/CONF.157/23, para. I.18),

Welcoming Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1993/46 of 8 March 1993 and 1994/45 of 4 March 1994 regarding the integration of the equal status of women and the human rights of women into the mainstream of United Nations system-wide activity,

4. Requests the Secretary-General to obtain the views of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the Commission on the Status of Women on the question whether it would be desirable to have an advisory opinion on the value and legal effect of reservations concerning the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, and to invite those bodies to formulate, in their replies, any other observations on the question of reservations to that Convention they consider appropriate;

5. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that United Nations human rights and humanitarian relief personnel recognize and deal with the human rights violations particular to women and carry out their work without gender bias;

DRAFT UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION ON THE RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

Affirming that indigenous peoples are equal in dignity and rights to all other peoples, while recognizing the right of all peoples to be different, to consider themselves different, and to be respected as such,

Affirming also that all peoples contribute to the diversity and richness of civilizations and cultures, which constitute the common heritage of humankind,

Affirming further that all doctrines, policies and practices based on or advocating superiority of peoples or individuals on the basis of national origin, racial, religious, ethnic or cultural differences are racist, scientifically false, legally invalid, morally condemnable and socially unjust,

Reaffirming also that indigenous peoples, in the exercise of their rights, should be free from discrimination of any kind,

Concerned that indigenous peoples have been deprived of their human rights and fundamental freedoms, resulting, inter alia, in their colonization and dispossession of their lands, territories and resources, thus preventing them from exercising, in particular, their right to development in accordance with their own needs and interests,

Recognizing the urgent need to respect and promote the inherent rights and characteristics of indigenous peoples, especially their rights to their lands, territories and resources, which derive from their political, economic and social structures and from their cultures, spiritual traditions, histories and philosophies,

Welcoming the fact that indigenous peoples are organizing themselves for political, economic, social and cultural enhancement and in order to bring an end to all forms of discrimination and oppression wherever they occur,

Convinced that control by indigenous peoples over developments affecting them and their lands, territories and resources will enable them to maintain and strengthen their institutions, cultures and traditions, and to promote their development in accordance with their aspirations and needs,

Recognizing also that respect for indigenous knowledge, cultures and traditional practices contributes to sustainable and equitable development and proper management of the environment,

Emphasizing the need for demilitarization of the lands and territories of indigenous peoples, which will contribute to peace, economic and social progress and development, understanding and friendly relations among nations and peoples of the world,
Recognizing in particular the right of indigenous families and communities to retain shared responsibility for the upbringing, training, education and well-being of their children,

Recognizing also that indigenous peoples have the right freely to determine their relationships with States in a spirit of coexistence, mutual benefit and full respect,

Considering that treaties, agreements and other arrangements between States and indigenous peoples are properly matters of international concern and responsibility,

Acknowledging that the Charter of the United Nations, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights affirm the fundamental importance of the right of self-determination of all peoples, by virtue of which they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development,

Bearing in mind that nothing in this Declaration may be used to deny any peoples their right of self-determination,

Encouraging States to comply with and effectively implement all international instruments, in particular those related to human rights, as they apply to indigenous peoples, in consultation and cooperation with the peoples concerned,

Emphasizing that the United Nations has an important and continuing role to play in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples,

"The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, in particular the principles of equal rights and self-determination of all peoples,

Mindful of the principles and humanitarian provisions of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 for the protection of war victims, of the principles and provisions of international law and of the obligations arising from the Regulations concerning the Laws and Customs of War on Land, annexed to the Hague Convention IV of 1907,
Recalling that, in accordance with article 1 of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, all States parties to the Conventions have undertaken to respect and to ensure respect for the Conventions in all circumstances,

Recalling also all the resolutions of the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights condemning the practices of the Israeli occupation authorities in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel which affirm the applicability of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, to these territories, in particular Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1994/3 and 1994/5 both of 18 February 1994,

Taking note of the reports of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Palestinian People and Other Arabs of the Occupied Territories submitted to the General Assembly and the relevant reports of the International Labour Organisation and the World Health Organization,

Reaffirming its previous resolutions in this respect, the most recent being resolution 1993/15 of 20 August 1993,

Deeply alarmed at the persistent refusal of Israel to respect the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and to apply it to the Palestinians in the occupied Palestinian territories,

Welcoming the signing of the Declaration of Principles on Interim Self-Government Arrangements by the Government of Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization on 13 September 1993, which aims at putting an end to human rights violations, as it would lead to a complete withdrawal of Israeli forces from occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories and enable the Palestinian people to exercise their national rights, mainly the right to self-determination, without foreign interference,

1. Reaffirms that the ongoing Israeli occupation of Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem, itself constitutes a gross and systematic violation of human rights and an aggression under international law;

2. Also reaffirms that the continued human rights violations in the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories after the signing of the said accord, as happened at the Tomb of the Patriarchs of Hebron in February 1994, the massacre at the AERZ roadblock at the entry point to the Gaza Strip on 17 July 1994, the Israeli forces’ entry by force into
Victoria Hospital in Jerusalem in July 1994 and the continued imposition of collective punishment and isolation of occupied areas, all constitute grave violations of the principles of international humanitarian law and of the provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;

3. Further reaffirms that the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, is applicable to the Palestinians and to the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel, and that the continued disregard and rejection of the provisions of the Convention by Israel constitute gross violations of the principles of international humanitarian law;

4. Calls upon the States parties to the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, to ensure respect by Israel for the Convention and to secure protection for the Palestinian people under occupation, until the end of this occupation, in accordance with article 1 of the Convention;

5. Reaffirms the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people to return to their homeland in accordance with General Assembly resolution 194 (III) of 11 December 1948, to self-determination without foreign interference and to establish their independent sovereign State on their national soil, in accordance with the principles and provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and with resolutions of the General Assembly and of the Commission on Human Rights;

6. Condemns the policy of Israel for:

   (a) Its rejection of the applicability of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, to the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories, and calls upon Israel to respect its international obligations;

   (b) Its gross violations of the rules of international law and of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949;

   (c) Establishing Israeli settlements in the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories, and calls for them to be dismantled, and confirms that all measures taken by Israel with the purpose of annexing, or of altering the demographic, cultural, religious or other character of, those territories, including Jerusalem, are illegal, null and void;

   (d) Its continued occupation of the Syrian Golan and its defiance of the relevant United Nations resolutions, in particular Security Council resolution 497 (1981) of 17 December 1981, and reaffirms that the decision by Israel in 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan is null and void;
(e) The inhuman treatment and practices in violation of human rights which the Israeli occupation authorities continue to exercise against Syrian Arab citizens in the occupied Syrian Golan for their refusal to carry Israeli identity cards and in order to force them to carry such cards, which practices constitute a flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and requests all States and competent international organizations not to recognize any Israeli laws, jurisdiction or administration in respect of the occupied Syrian territory;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Sub-Commission, at its forty-seventh session, with an updated list of reports, studies, statistics and other documents relating to the question of the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories, with the texts of the most recent relevant United Nations decisions and resolutions and the report of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Palestinian People and Other Arabs of the Occupied Territories, and with all other information relevant to the implementation of the present resolution.

X. COMMUNICATIONS CONCERNING HUMAN RIGHTS: REPORT OF THE WORKING GROUP ON COMMUNICATIONS ESTABLISHED UNDER SUB-COMMISSION RESOLUTION 2 (XXIV) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL RESOLUTION 1503 (XLVIII)

261. The Sub-Commission considered item 9 at its 32nd, 33rd, 36th and 37th meetings on 24 and 26 August 1994.

262. By resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1979, the Economic and Social Council authorized the Sub-Commission to appoint a working group (Working Group on Communications) of no more than five of its members to meet annually for 10 working days, immediately before each session of the Sub-Commission, to consider all communications received by the Secretary-General under Council resolution 728 F (XXVIII) of 30 July 1959, including replies of Governments thereon, with a view to bringing to the attention of the Sub-Commission those communications which appeared to reveal a consistent pattern of gross and reliably attested violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

263. The procedure to be followed by the Working Group on Communications in deciding on the admissibility of communications was established by Sub-Commission resolution 1 (XXIV) of 13 August 1971, and the Working Group itself was set up in accordance with Sub-Commission resolution 2 (XXIV) of 16 August 1971.

264. The Sub-Commission had before it a confidential report on the work of the Working Group on Communications at its twenty-second session, held from 18 to 29 July 1994 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1994/R.1 and addenda), certain communications which had been kept pending before the Sub-Commission since its forty-fifth session in 1993, as well as all government replies relevant to the material before it. The Sub-Commission wishes to stress in this connection that government cooperation is essential for the proper functioning of the bodies entrusted with the implementation of the procedure governed by Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) and expresses the hope that all Governments will in the future respond to communications transmitted to them and thereby contribute to further development in international cooperation in the field of human rights. Mr. F. Yimer, Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group on Communications, introduced the Working Group’s report and drew attention, as appropriate, to the material which was pending before the Sub-Commission since its forty-fifth session.

265. Following the discussion which ensued, the Sub-Commission decided, pursuant to paragraph 5 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII), to refer to the Commission on Human Rights for consideration certain particular situations which appeared to reveal a consistent pattern of gross and reliably attested violations of human rights. The Sub-Commission also decided to defer action on certain communications to its forty-seventh session, in 1995, and to take no action with regard to other communications.
266. At its 36th meeting (closed part), on 26 August 1994, the Sub-Commission adopted a confidential report, pursuant to paragraph 8 of Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII), by which it communicated to the Commission on Human Rights its decisions taken under paragraph 5 of that resolution.

267. At its 37th meeting, on 26 August 1994, the Sub-Commission decided on the composition of its Working Group on Communications that would meet prior to its forty-seventh session. For the composition of the Working Group, see chapter II, section B, decision 1994/119.
