NOTES

1. The summary records of the meetings are issued in final form by meeting, subject to correction. Any corrections to the records of the meetings of the current session will be issued in a single corrigendum – E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/SR.1-SR.40/Corrigendum.

2. The number in parenthesis following the name of a member of the Sub-Commission, country or organization indicates the meeting at which a statement was made by the member, country or organization and corresponds to the relevant summary record.

3. At its thirty-seventh session, in resolution 17 (XXXVII) of 10 March 1981, the Commission on Human Rights requested the Sub-Commission, in drawing up its annual report to the Commission, to present and indicate clearly in an introductory chapter all matters requiring the approval of the Commission; such matters include all resolutions and decisions of the Sub-Commission other than those bearing on internal procedural questions or those which follow up previously approved or specifically mandated courses of action.

4. Chapter I has been prepared in accordance with that resolution. Draft resolutions recommended to the Commission for adoption are contained in section A and draft decisions referring to matters which require action or consideration by the Commission are indicated in section B. Sub-Commission resolutions and decisions referring to matters which are drawn to the attention of the Commission and which require consideration or action by the Commission are indicated in section C.
I. ISSUES REFERRED TO THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
FOR ITS ATTENTION, ACTION OR CONSIDERATION

A. Draft resolutions

I. Human rights monitoring mechanisms established within the United Nations framework

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking into account Sub-Commission resolution 1989/11 of 31 August 1989,

1. Emphasizes the need to enhance the effectiveness of, and co-ordination between the human rights monitoring mechanisms established within the United Nations framework, and to increase their impartial contribution to the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms in all parts of the world, and to constantly improve their relevant procedures;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to consider convening not later than 1991 an international meeting of experts on issues related to the international monitoring in the field of human rights and to inform the Sub-Commission, at its forty-second session, under the item "Review of further developments in fields with which the Sub-Commission has been concerned", of his plans with regard to the organization of the meeting, in particular relating to participation and background documentation on the functioning of international monitoring mechanisms in the field of human rights.

II. Movement and dumping of toxic and dangerous products and wastes

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1989/42 of 6 March 1989,

Taking into consideration General Assembly resolution 42/183 of 11 December 1987,

Taking into account the Final Act of the Basle Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and Their Disposal, adopted on 22 March 1989,

Aware that the African Group which participated at the Conference of Plenipotentiaries at Basle did not sign the Convention of 22 March 1989,

Noting that the resolution of the Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity (CM/Res. 1225 (L)) held at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 17 to 22 July 1989, reaffirmed the position taken by the African Group that participated at the Conference of Plenipotentiaries at Basle,

Reaffirming that the movement and dumping of toxic and dangerous products endanger basic human rights such as the right to life, the right to live in a sound and healthy environment and consequently the right to health,
1. Requests the United Nations Environment Programme to enter into negotiations with the Organization of African Unity so as to find global solutions to the problem of the transboundary movement of hazardous wastes and their disposal;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the result of the negotiations between the United Nations Environment Programme and the Organization of African Unity to the forty-seventh session of the Commission on Human Rights and forty-second session of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, respectively.

   [See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1989/12 and chap. V.]

III. Compensation for victims of gross violations of human rights

The Commission on Human Rights,

Deeply concerned over the substantial damages and acute sufferings caused to individuals, groups, communities and peoples as a result of gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling the United Nations standards for compensation so far adopted, in particular article 8 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 14, paragraph 6 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, article 6 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, article 14 of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and articles 8 to 21 of the Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims of Crime and Abuse of Power (General Assembly resolution 40/34, of 29 November 1985), as well as relevant provisions of regional human rights instruments,

Considering the importance of further developing international standards and of filling remaining gaps in order to ensure that victims of gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms have an enforceable right to restitution, compensation and rehabilitation, as appropriate, fully recognized at the international level,

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

The Economic and Social Council,

Authorizes the Sub-Commission to entrust Mr. Theo van Boven with the task of undertaking a study concerning the right to restitution, compensation and rehabilitation for victims of gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms, taking into account, inter alia, relevant existing international human rights norms on compensation and judgments by courts, decisions and views of international human rights organs and bodies, with a view to exploring the possibility of developing basic principles and guidelines in this respect, Requests the Secretary-General to provide Mr. van Boven with all the assistance which he may require for the completion of his task.

[See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1989/13 and chap. V.]

IV. Right to freedom of opinion and expression

The Commission on Human Rights,

Guided by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which affirms the right of everyone to freedom of opinion and expression,

Bearing in mind the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which reaffirms the right of everyone to hold opinions without interference as well as the right to freedom of expression,

Considering that the effective protection and promotion of human rights of persons who exercise the right to freedom of opinion and expression is of fundamental importance to the safeguarding of human dignity,

Having examined the work done by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities relating to the right to freedom of opinion and expression,

Having examined also the Working Paper on the right to freedom of opinion and expression, prepared by Mr. Danilo Türk in accordance with the Sub-Commission's decision 1988/110 of 1 September 1988 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/26),

Welcoming the recommendations made by Mr. Türk (paras. 63-65) and endorsed by the Sub-Commission in its resolution 1989/14 of 31 August 1989,

Endorses the decision of the Sub-Commission to entrust Mr. Louis Joinet and Mr. Danilo Türk with the preparation of a study on the right to freedom of opinion and expression, the current problems of its realization and on measures necessary for its strengthening and promotion,

Requests the Secretary-General to provide the two Special Rapporteurs with all the assistance they may require,

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:
The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling also the decision of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities 1988/110 of 1 September 1988 and its resolution 1989/14 of 31 August 1989,

Taking into account the Working Paper on the right to freedom of opinion and expression prepared by Mr. Turk,

1. Endorses the decision of the Sub-Commission to entrust Mr. Louis Joinet and Mr. Danilo Türk, members of the Sub-Commission, with the preparation of a study on the right to freedom of opinion and expression, the current problems of its realization and on measures necessary for its strengthening and promotion;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteurs to carry out the said study;

3. Requests the Special Rapporteurs to submit a preliminary report on their study to the Sub-Commission for consideration at its forty-second session and to the Commission on Human Rights for comments at the Commission's forty-seventh session.

[See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1989/14 and chap. V.]

V. Assistance to Paraguay in the field of human rights

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking note of resolution 1989/15 of 31 August 1989 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international instruments promoting and protecting human rights,

Reiterating that the Governments of all Member States are under the obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling that international co-operation in the field of human rights is one of the purposes of the Charter of the United Nations,

Noting with satisfaction the ratification by Paraguay of the American Convention on Human Rights and the readiness to ratify shortly the major international instruments on human rights,

Bearing in mind the positive developments in the overall situation in Paraguay and the endeavours of the Government and the people to consolidate democracy and guarantee the full observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,
Noting with satisfaction that the Government of Paraguay has repealed repressive Laws Nos. 209 and 294, and has allowed all exiles to return, thus complying with the request made by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities and the Commission on Human Rights in earlier resolutions,

Noting with gratification the full observance of freedom of the press and the acknowledged progress achieved in the effective enjoyment of political rights,

Noting with interest the process of trade union reorganization initiated in Paraguay and the Government's announcement of a comprehensive agrarian reform in Paraguay,

Welcoming the request by the Government of Paraguay to receive as soon as possible technical assistance and advisory services in the field of human rights, something which highlights the will of the Government to continue to intensify the process of reforms to secure the effective and full enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 41/154 of 4 December 1986 and 43/90 of 8 December 1988, as well as its resolutions 1985/26 of 11 March 1985 and 1989/72 of 8 March 1989 which highlight the duty of the United Nations to render effective assistance to countries which, living through a particular period in their history, stand in need of international co-operation to consolidate their democratic institutions and adapt their internal legislation to the demands of the proper rule of law,

Taking note of the importance of experts services, fellowships, training courses and seminars under the programme of advisory services, as forms of practical assistance to States to enable them to develop the infrastructure necessary to meet international standards in the field of human rights,

1. Welcomes the process of democratization in Paraguay, which is a crucial step towards the full and effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms;

2. Notes with particular interest the ratification of the American Convention on Human Rights, the repeal of repressive Laws Nos. 209 and 294, as well as the full exercise of freedom of the press and the other reforms undertaken for the benefit of the Paraguayan population as a whole;

3. Encourages the Government of Paraguay to further the process of democratization and to continue the institutional and legal reforms to guarantee the effective enjoyment and full exercise of fundamental rights and freedoms;

4. Notes with satisfaction the request by the Government of Paraguay to receive technical assistance and advisory services in the field of human rights, as well as its full readiness to co-operate with the Commission on Human Rights;
5. Requests the Secretary-General to provide such advisory services and other appropriate forms of assistance in the field of human rights as are requested by the constitutional Government of Paraguay to foster democratic advances and the strengthening of the institutions responsible for ensuring respect for human rights;

6. Appeals to the international community to render all possible assistance to Paraguay so as to contribute to the realization of economic, social and cultural rights, as well as civil and political rights;

7. Decides to consider, at its forty-seventh session, the question of assistance to Paraguay in the field of human rights, under the agenda item, entitled "Advisory services in the field of human rights".

VI. Discrimination against HIV-infected people or people with AIDS

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking note of resolution 1989/17 of 31 August 1989 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

1. Endorses the appointment by the Sub-Commission of Mr. Luis Varela Quirós to undertake a study of problems and causes of discrimination against HIV-infected people or people with AIDS;

2. Recommends the following draft decision to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

The Economic and Social Council,

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking note of Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities resolution 1989/24 of 31 August 1989,

Sharing the view expressed by the Sub-Commission that better respect for humanitarian law and the law of human rights is needed in times of armed conflict,

1. Calls upon all Governments to give particular attention to the education of all members of security and other armed forces, and of all law enforcement agencies, in the international law of human rights and of humanitarian law applicable in armed conflicts;

2. Considers it desirable that this education include transmission of knowledge of at least the following instruments: the Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the two Additional Protocols of 1977, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and other relevant instruments in the field of human rights as well as of the Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials, the Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners, the Declaration and the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman and Degrading Treatment or Punishment, and Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary, with a view to ensuring respect for the principles and rules contained in these provisions;

1. Calls upon all Governments:

(a) To incorporate into their national legislation and practice United Nations standards on the use of force by law enforcement officials, and to ensure full implementation of these standards;

X. Report of the Seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1988/48 of 8 March 1988, recommending that a seminar be organized on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States,

Recalling also its resolution 1989/34 of 6 March 1989, taking note of the report of the Seminar (E/CN.4/1989/22), and requesting that it be given the widest possible distribution,

Believing that many of the recommendations of the Seminar relating to the development process offer positive ideas of practical and co-operative action by indigenous peoples and States,

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:
The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1988/35 of 27 May 1988, authorizing the convening of a seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States,

Having examined the report of the Seminar (E/CN.4/1989/22) as well as the report and recommendations of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations on its seventh session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/36),

1. Requests the Secretary-General to organize in 1991, within the existing resources and framework of the United Nations regular programmes of technical co-operation, a technical conference on practical experience in the realization of sustainable and environmentally sound self-development by indigenous peoples, with the participation of experts from governments, appropriate specialized agencies and indigenous peoples organizations; this conference should be held along the same lines and with the same participation as the Seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States;

2. Invites the Secretary-General to consider requests from indigenous peoples organizations for technical assistance from the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights, and from other United Nations system programmes providing technical assistance in the field of human rights, development and the environment and, in appropriate cases, to accept and utilize the assistance contributed by indigenous peoples organizations themselves for this purpose.

XI. International Year for Indigenous Rights

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful of the recommendation of the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, Mr. José Martínez Cobo, regarding the proclamation of an international year of the world's indigenous populations (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1983/22/Add.8),

Recalling that the Economic and Social Council, by its resolution 1988/37 of 27 May 1988, recommended that the General Assembly should, when appropriate, proclaim such an international year,

Having considered the recommendation of the Sub-Commission, in its resolution 1989/36 of 1 September 1989, that an International Year for Indigenous Rights should be proclaimed in 1993,

Recommends the adoption by the Economic and Social Council of the following draft resolution:

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1988/37 of 27 May 1988, which recommended that the General Assembly should, when appropriate, proclaim an international year of the world's indigenous populations,
Noting that the General Assembly did not act on this recommendation at its forty-third session,

Believing that the proclamation of an International Year for Indigenous Rights would be timely and would, inter alia, serve a significant promotional function in view of the ongoing standard-setting work of the United Nations in this field,

Believing also that such an International Year could serve as a basis for mobilizing and co-ordinating the work of the United Nations system, in furtherance of the social and economic development of indigenous peoples,

Recommends the adoption of the following draft resolution by the General Assembly:

The General Assembly,

Recalling resolution 1982/34 of 7 May 1982 of the Economic and Social Council, establishing annually a Working Group on Indigenous Populations with the mandate to review developments in this field, with a view to the development of standards,

Recalling also its resolution 40/131 of 13 December 1985 establishing a United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations to contribute to the future promotion and protection of human rights in that field,

Guided by its resolution 43/128 of 8 December 1988, which reaffirmed that programmes of teaching, education and information are central to the achievement of lasting respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, and recognized the catalytic effect of initiatives of the United Nations in these fields,

Taking into account the guidelines for international years and anniversaries adopted by its decision 35/424 of 5 December 1980,

1. Proclaims 1993 the International Year for Indigenous Rights, to commence at the forty-seventh session of the General Assembly;

2. Invites the Working Group on Indigenous Populations to recommend specific and practical activities of a promotional and educational nature which might be undertaken by the United Nations, Member States, the specialized agencies, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations in preparation for and in connection with the International Year for Indigenous Rights, within existing United Nations resources, and with the aim of strengthening international co-operation with indigenous peoples in the fields of human rights, development and the environment;

3. Invites the specialized agencies, and in particular the International Labour Organisation and United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Education, to consider the contributions they could make to the success of the International Year for Indigenous Rights;
4. Authorizes the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations to receive before 1 January 1993, and to disburse by or before 1 January 1994, voluntary contributions by Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations for the purpose of augmenting the programme of activities for the International Year;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, through the Centre for Human Rights, to co-ordinate the programme of activities for the International Year for Indigenous Rights.

XII. Sale of children

The Commission on Human Rights,

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of such rights and freedoms wherever they occur,

Recalling the provisions of the Declaration on the Rights of the Child proclaimed by the General Assembly on 20 November 1959 in its resolution 1386 (XIV) and, in particular:

Principle 2, whereby the child shall enjoy special protection and shall be given opportunities and facilities, by law and by other means, to enable him to develop physically, mentally, morally, spiritually and socially in a healthy and normal manner and in conditions of freedom and dignity; and

Principle 9, whereby the child shall be protected against all forms of neglect, cruelty and exploitation and shall not be the subject of traffic, in any form,

Recalling the provisions of resolution 1989/36 of 6 March 1989, by which the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities is invited to continue to give due regard to new developments in the field of human rights,

Having considered the report of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/39) submitted to the Sub-Commission,

Deeply concerned about the existence in many parts of the world of cases of serious violations of the rights of children, particularly cases of the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography,

1. Decides to appoint for a period of one year a special rapporteur to consider matters relating to the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, including the problem of the adoption of children for commercial purposes;
2. Requests the Chairmen of the Commission, following consultations with the other members of the Bureau, to appoint as special rapporteur a person of international reputation;

3. Invites the special rapporteur to take account, in fulfilling his mandate, of the need to be in a position to use any credible and reliable information made available to him, to request the Governments concerned to state their views and comment on any information he intends to include in his report and to carry out his task with discretion and independence;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to urge all Governments to co-operate closely with the special rapporteur and to offer their co-operation and assistance so that he may fulfil his mandate effectively;

5. Also requests the Secretary-General to give the special rapporteur any necessary assistance;

6. Requests the special rapporteur to submit a comprehensive report to the Commission at its forty-seventh session on his activities relating to these matters, including the frequency and extent of such practices, as well as his conclusions and recommendations;

7. Decides to consider the question at its forty-seventh session.

XIII. Programme of action for prevention of sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography

The Commission on Human Rights,

Having noted with great concern the information about the world-wide occurrences of the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography,

Noting also that most of the victims of sexual abuse are children from third world countries exploited by foreign tourists,

Gravely concerned with the damage this causes for the children affected,

Endorsing the view expressed by the Sub-Commission that a concerted programme of action should be adopted to counteract these abuses,

Having examined the various elements in the draft Programme of Action proposed by the Sub-Commission,

1. Decides to transmit to Governments, specialized agencies and other intergovernmental organizations as well as non-governmental organizations, the draft Programme of Action for their comments contained in the report of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/39);
2. Requests the Secretary-General to present to the next session of the Commission an analytical summary of the responses received;

3. Further decides to examine at its forty-seventh session the draft Programme of Action and the report by the Secretary-General.

   [See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1989/43 and chap. XV.]

   (c) That international regional seminars be held on the subject of harmful traditional practices in Africa and Asia;

A. Resolutions

1989/1. New international economic order and the promotion of human rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1985/34 of 30 August 1985 on the consideration of the future work of the Sub-Commission and of the draft provisional agenda for the thirty-ninth session of the Sub-Commission,

Recalling also resolution 1985/28 of 11 March 1985 of the Commission on Human Rights,

Considering that one of the reasons for the non-realization of human rights and fundamental freedoms in developing countries is caused by economic, social and cultural problems,

Mindful of the difficulties it encounters in allocating sufficient time to the various items on its agenda,

Convinced however of the importance in dealing, on an annual basis, with the issue concerning the realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

Decides that the following item will be considered on an annual basis:

"The new international economic order and the promotion of human rights."

35th meeting
30 August 1989

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. IV.]

1989/2. Protection of journalists

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that the press and all other forms of mass media have served and continue to serve as very valuable and indispensable sources of information on gross violations of human rights,

Recalling further that journalists and mass media personnel perform a most honourable and useful role under most difficult conditions often when their very lives are being constantly threatened,

Taking into consideration the views expressed on this subject during the debate of the Sub-Commission,
1. Expresses its appreciation of journalists and other mass media personnel who promote human rights and provide valuable information on human rights violations worldwide;

1989/3. Situation in South Africa

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1989/4 and 1989/5 of 23 February 1989,

Conscious of the worsening situation in South Africa as a result of the policies of repression pursued by the Government of South Africa,

Condemning the arrest, torture and killings of peaceful and defenceless demonstrators and workers on strike as well as the arbitrary arrest of leaders and activists of mass organizations,

Concerned about the forthcoming general election which is scheduled to be held along racial lines later this year, despite widespread black opposition to such an action,

Deeply concerned about the further curtailment of black trade-union rights, which is contained in the Labour Relations Amendment Act, passed in the racially-constituted Parliament of South Africa, and also the Illegal Squatting Bill aimed at relocating blacks to be passed by the racist Parliament of South Africa and deeply concerned that similar measures should not be introduced,

Noting with deep concern the ban imposed in 1988 by the Government of South Africa on all anti-apartheid groups, including the United Democratic Front and the End Conscription Campaign,
Seriously concerned about the alarming number of reported executions in South Africa,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 33/165 of 20 December 1978 on the status of persons refusing service in military or police forces used to enforce apartheid,

Conscious of the great courage, perseverance and sacrifices of the people of southern Africa in the face of aggression, occupation and oppression by the Pretoria régime,

Deeply concerned also about the planned sports tournament of South Africa by British rugby and cricket rebel groups,

Welcoming once again the establishment and launching of the Action for Resisting Invasion, Colonialism and Apartheid Fund (A/41/697-S/18392) at the Eighth Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries,

1. Reaffirms that apartheid is a crime against humanity;

2. Demands once again the immediate lifting of the state of emergency, immediate cessation of all acts of brutality by the South African army and security forces and the immediate release of all political prisoners;

3. Urges the Government of South Africa to lift promptly the ban on anti-apartheid organizations;

4. Reaffirms the right of all persons to refuse service in military or police forces which are used to enforce apartheid;

5. Calls upon the international community to assist the front-line States to safeguard their independence and territorial integrity against the aggression and destabilization carried out by the Government of South Africa;

6. Urges all States to provide, both individually and collectively, moral and material assistance to the oppressed people of South Africa and Namibia;

7. Appeals to the international community to put pressure upon the South African Government not to proceed with the execution of the 66 opponents of apartheid, including the "Upington Fourteen" who have been on death row for more than a year;

8. Requests the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights to urgently transmit this appeal to the South African Government;

9. Calls upon the international community to continue its efforts towards total economic, cultural and political isolation of the South African apartheid régime until that country abandons its policy of apartheid;

10. Calls for immediate and complete disinvestment by foreign companies in a manner that all their links with the South African apartheid economy are cut off, including, inter alia, licensing and management contracts;
11. Urges foreign companies engaged in disinvestment from South Africa to ensure that financial and other benefits that have accrued to the black labour force are fully respected;

12. Strongly condemns the South African apartheid régime for:

   (a) the recent sentence of capital punishment on 66 opponents of apartheid, including the "Upington Fourteen";

   (b) The continuing acts of international terrorism and destabilization carried out against the front-line and other neighbouring States;

   (c) The decision to go ahead, despite widespread black opposition, with a general election along racial lines;

13. Vigorously condemns all collaboration, particularly in the nuclear, military and economic fields, with the Government of South Africa;

14. Vigorously condemns any breach, circumvention or undermining of the international sports boycott against apartheid in South Africa by any group or individuals including the British cricket and rugby players;

15. Calls upon all countries that have not yet done so, and in particular Israel and Equatorial Guinea, to cut all military links with South Africa.

31 August 1989

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. VII.]

1989/4. Situation in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the United Nations and, in particular, respect for the principles of equal rights and self-determination of all peoples,

Mindful of the principles and humanitarian provisions of the four Geneva Conventions of 1949, of the principles and provisions of international law, and of the obligations arising from the regulations annexed to The Hague Convention IV of 1907 on the laws and Customs of War on Land,

Noting that all States parties to the Geneva Conventions of 1949 have undertaken to respect and to ensure respect for the Conventions under all circumstances,
Recalling all the resolutions of the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights concerning the practices of the Israeli occupation authorities affecting the human rights in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel,

Taking note of the reports of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories, and the relevant reports of the International Labour Organization, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Health Organization,

Recalling with interest the press releases issued by the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva on 13 January 1988 and on 18 and 19 August 1988 with respect to Israel's repeated violations of the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949,

Affirming its previous resolutions in this respect,

Deeply alarmed at Israel's persistent refusal to respect the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 1949 and to apply it to the Palestinians in the occupied Palestinian territories, and at Israel's systematic and established violation of human rights over the past 20 years, and its persistence in perpetrating massacres against the Palestinian people, as happened recently at Nahalin village on 13 April 1989, and in the deportation and extradition of Palestinian citizens,

Welcoming the outcome of the 19th Special Session of the Palestine National Council as a positive contribution to the achievement of a peaceful settlement of the conflict in the area,

Welcoming the accession of Palestine to the four Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the two Additional Protocols thereto, of 1977,

1. Reaffirms that the Israeli occupation itself constitutes a gross violation of the human rights in the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories, and a crime prejudicial to the peace and security of humanity under international law;

2. Reaffirms that the acts perpetrated by the Israeli occupation authorities of deliberate killing of Palestinians, including children, breaking limbs of young men and causing grave harm to their physical safety, subjecting cities, villages and camps to living conditions designed to destroy them by imposing curfews thereon and preventing their provision with food and medical supplies, firing gas bombs inside the houses, mosques and hospitals thus causing the death of many people by asphyxia, preventing new births by aborting pregnant women through severe beating and throwing gas bombs inside their homes, all such acts constitute grave violations of international law;
3. Reaffirms that the Fourth Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 12 August 1949 is applicable to the Palestinians and to the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel, and that Israel's violation of the provisions of these Conventions, by torturing the Palestinian detainees and treating them in an inhuman manner, imposing collective punishment and administrative detention on thousands of them, expelling and deporting the citizens outside their homeland by force and attacking and destroying properties and homes, are crimes of war under international law;

4. Affirms once again the right of the Palestinian people to resist the Israeli occupation by all means in accordance with United Nations resolutions, and affirms that the intifada of the Palestinian people against occupation since 8 December 1987 is one such means confirming their determination to liberate their land and exercise their established rights;

5. Reaffirms the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people to return to their homeland, to self-determination without foreign interference and the establishment of their independent and sovereign State on their national soil in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and General Assembly resolutions, and the need to enable the Palestinian people to enjoy full sovereignty over their land without foreign interference;

6. Condemns Israel for:

   (a) Its gross violations of the international conventions, rules of international law, and the Geneva Conventions of 1949 through its systematic and established practices mentioned herein, and calls upon Israel to desist therefrom forthwith and withdraw from the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by force, in accordance with the principles of international law and the relevant United Nations resolutions;

   (b) Establishing Israeli settlements in the occupied Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories and calls for their dismantlement. It confirms that all measures taken by Israel with the purpose of altering the political, cultural, religious and other characters in the occupied
       Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories are illegal, null and void;

   (c) Its continued occupation of the Syrian Arab Golan and its defiance of the relevant United Nations resolutions, in particular Security Council resolution 497 (1981) of 17 December 1981, and considers that the decision issued by Israel in 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian territory is null and void;

   (d) The inhuman treatment and terrorist practices in violation of human rights which the Israeli occupation authorities continue to exercise against Syrian Arab citizens in the occupied Syrian Arab Golan for their refusal to carry Israeli identity cards and in order to force them to carry such cards; which practices constitute a flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and requests all States and competent international organizations not to recognize any Israeli laws, jurisdiction or administration in respect of the occupied Syrian territory;
7. Supports the call to convene an international peace conference on the Middle East with the participation of all parties to the conflict, including the Palestine Liberation Organization as an equal partner and the five permanent Member States of the Security Council in accordance with Security Council resolution 242 (1967) of 22 November 1967, and on the basis of the established rights of the Palestinian people, especially their right to self-determination, and the withdrawal of the Israeli occupation forces from all occupied Arab territories, including Jerusalem;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Sub-Commission, at its forty-second session, with an updated list of reports, studies, statistics and other documents relating to the question of Palestine and other Arab territories, with the texts of the relevant United Nations decisions and resolutions, as well as with the report of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories.

1989/6. Situation of human rights in Guatemala

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Taking note with satisfaction of the efforts made by the Constitutional Government of Guatemala to restore respect for, and the protection of, human rights in that country,
Noting with interest that a plan for co-operation between the Centre for Human Rights and the Government of Guatemala, adopted pursuant to the programme of advisory services recommended by the Expert, Mr. Héctor Gros Espiell, on the situation of the human rights of the indigenous populations, referred to in Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/74 of 8 March 1989, is currently being implemented,

Deeply concerned, however, at the fact that the Government has still not been able fully to control the situation of continuing violence caused by certain groups or sectors in authority,

Disturbed by information that despite the efforts by the Constitutional Government serious violations of human rights continue to occur, such as disappearances and extrajudicial executions affecting the lives and security of many persons, including defenders of human rights,

Seriously concerned about the human rights situation of the indigenous peoples, in particular with regard to respect for economic, social and cultural rights,

Having noted with appreciation the implementation, in the report submitted by the Expert to the Commission at its forty-fifth session, of the recommendation in paragraph 7 of Sub-Commission resolution 1988/14 of 1 September 1988,

1. Urges the Government of Guatemala to intensify its efforts to ensure that the human rights and fundamental freedoms of its citizens are fully respected and that it adopts and applies energetic measures to prevent violation of those rights and freedoms;

2. Encourages the Government of Guatemala to adopt concrete measures to improve the economic, social and political conditions of the indigenous peoples, taking into account their demands and proposals, as well as all relevant international standards in this field;

3. Encourages the Government of Guatemala to intensify its efforts to create the conditions which would allow refugees to return to their places of origin with full guarantees for their safety and the exercise of their human rights;

4. Deems it urgent that the Government of Guatemala intensify its efforts to ensure that all authorities and security forces fully respect the human rights and fundamental freedoms of its citizens;

5. Draws attention to the importance of an independent judiciary as a vital means of effectively protecting human rights and punishing violations thereof;

6. Underlines the need to provide whatever assistance is possible to the Government in achieving these aims;
7. Takes note of the report of the Expert, Mr. Gros Espiell, on advisory services and other forms of assistance that can be rendered to the Government of Guatemala in pursuance of resolutions 1987/53, 1988/50 and 1989/74 of the Commission on Human Rights of 11 March 1987, 8 March 1988 and 8 March 1989, respectively;

8. Recommends that the Expert in his forthcoming report give particular attention to the existing obstacles in Guatemala to the full realization of human rights, and that he indicate ways in which this situation may be resolved.

1989/7. Situation in East Timor

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the universally accepted rules on international humanitarian law,

Considering the repeated allegations that the people of East Timor continue to be subjected to gross violations of human rights,

1. Welcomes the action taken by the Secretary-General regarding East Timor;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to encourage all parties concerned, that is the administering Power, the Indonesian Government and representatives of the East Timorese people, to co-operate fully in order to achieve a durable solution, taking full account of the rights and wishes of the people of East Timor;

3. Takes note of the letter from Bishop Carlos Filipe Ximenes Belo, dated 6 February 1989 (A/AC.109/991), addressed to the Secretary-General calling for a referendum in East Timor;

4. Appreciates the Indonesian Government's new policy of openness in East Timor since January 1988;

5. Regrets however that more arrests, torture and summary executions are alleged to have taken place since the end of 1988;

6. Hopes therefore that the Indonesian Government will go a step further and allow representatives of human rights organizations to visit the territory;
7. Recommends to the Commission on Human Rights that it consider, at its forty-sixth session, the human rights situation and fundamental freedoms in East Timor.

1989/8. Situation in Lebanon

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by internationally recognized human rights and humanitarian law in armed conflicts,

Gravely concerned by the escalating violence in Lebanon which causes extensive loss of life,

1. Calls on all parties in Lebanon to initiate confidence-building measures towards the restoration of peaceful democratic processes making it possible to solve conflicts by peaceful means;

2. Underlines that humanitarian aid should reach, without discrimination, all parts of the civilian population and must not be used for achieving political purposes, selectively depriving parts of the population of their access to basic needs;

3. Considers that restoration of confidence among the Lebanese groups is possible only through restoration of Lebanon's sovereignty and territorial integrity, and therefore, calls for this purpose on all parties to comply with the relevant resolutions by the Security Council;

4. Recommends to the Commission on Human Rights to consider, at its forty-sixth session, the human rights situation in Lebanon and, in particular the role of external powers in aggravating that situation.

37th meeting
31 August 1989

[Adopted by secret ballot by 18 votes to 2, with 3 abstentions. See chap. VII.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and article 3 common to the Geneva Conventions and Additional Protocol II thereto,
Bearing in mind that at their recent sessions, the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights regretted that in El Salvador, for political reasons, there had been an increase in the number of violations of human rights and of the humanitarian rules of war,

Deeply concerned at the continued raids on trade union premises, the military encirclement of university campuses and the repressive measures against organized workers attempting to exercise their labour rights,

Alarmed by the intensification of activities to terrorize the population that are being carried out by the death squads composed of police and armed forces personnel operating in civilian clothing under the orders of senior officers,

Regretting that the Government of El Salvador has continued to prevent the International Committee of the Red Cross from evacuating the war-wounded and maimed to other countries and frequently does not even allow it to transfer the seriously wounded to a local emergency hospital, and has attacked military hospitals,

Concerned at the frequent attacks and blockades against rural areas in zones of conflict and also at the destruction of the economic infrastructure resulting from the armed conflict,

Dismayed at the continued extremely unsatisfactory capacity of the judicial system to punish those guilty of violations of human rights,

Taking note with satisfaction that the Central American Presidents, at a recent meeting in Tela, urged the Government of El Salvador and the Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional to devise a negotiating process for the attainment of a just and lasting peace and requesting that all efforts be made for a dialogue between the Government of El Salvador and the Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional,

Believing that the efforts to establish a climate for the protection of human rights and a process leading to a political solution could be frustrated unless States refrain from intervening in the internal situation in El Salvador and suspend all supplies of arms and any type of military assistance,

1. Expresses its deep concern at the continuing increase in the number of human rights violations being committed in El Salvador and at the persistent failure to observe the fundamental norms of humanitarian law proclaimed in the Geneva Conventions and in the Additional Protocols thereto;

2. Expresses its satisfaction at the invitation of the Government of El Salvador for the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to visit that country soon;

3. Confirms that, in accordance with the basic principles of humanitarian law, persons not participating directly in combat, although they may sympathize with, accompany, supply food to and live in zones under the control of the insurgents, preserve their civilian character and therefore must not be subjected to military attacks by the government forces, nor may the latter prevent them from receiving any medical, food and material assistance they may require;

4. Reminds the Government of El Salvador that in accordance with Additional Protocol II to the Geneva Conventions, it must respect and give protection to the war wounded and disabled, it may not prevent their evacuation by the International Committee of the Red Cross so that they may receive the medical attention they require, and under no circumstances may it punish the health personnel for carrying out their medical activities;

5. Strongly urges the Government of El Salvador to take all necessary measures to ensure that those responsible for the murder of Monsignor Romero, Archbishop of San Salvador, be brought to trial, and that human rights are respected by all military, paramilitary and police forces; to ensure the independence and effectiveness of the judicial system and to ensure that all the provisions of its amendments to the Penal Code are compatible with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights;

6. Expresses the hope that the Government of El Salvador and the Frente Democrático Revolucionario-Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional, bearing in mind the Esquipulas II Accords and the recent meeting held in Tela, as well as the proposed solution submitted by the Frente, may develop a negotiation process for the achievement of a comprehensive negotiated political solution that will put an end to the armed conflict and guarantee the full exercise of the economic, political and social rights of all Salvadorians;

7. Repeats its request to the Special Rapporteur on Human Rights and Disability to undertake all measures available to him for the achievement of prompt and regular evacuation of the war wounded and disabled and to inform the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session of the results of his humanitarian effort;

8. Decides to consider the situation of human rights in El Salvador at its forty-second session.

Considering General Assembly resolutions, particularly the most recent one, resolution 43/137 of 8 December 1988, which expressed grave concern over the new wave of political executions,

Referring to numerous resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights and, in particular, resolution 1989/66 of 8 March 1989, in which the Commission expressed its grave concern at the reports of a wave of summary executions from July 1988 onwards, and also its deep concern about apparent flaws in the legal system, the large number of arrests and the numerous reports of ill-treatment and torture in prisons,

Taking note of numerous reports by United Nations special rapporteurs and by non-governmental organizations, and noting, in particular, reports by Mr. Reynaldo Galindo Pohl, the United Nations Special Representative on the situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran, including the most recent report of 26 January 1989 in which the names and particulars of 1,000 political prisoners executed since July 1988 were mentioned,

Concerned at the reports of the executions of thousands of political prisoners, many as alleged drug-smugglers, concerning which the names of more than 1,000 persons executed since January 1989 have been announced officially by the Islamic Republic of Iran,

Concerned also at reports of denial of the rights of minorities to enjoy their own culture, to profess and practise their own beliefs,

Further concerned at reports about persecution and detention of members of the Bahá'í community in the Islamic Republic of Iran,

1. Expresses its deep concern about the grave human rights violations in the Islamic Republic of Iran to which numerous resolutions and reports have referred, namely, those related to the right to life, the right to freedom from torture and from cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, the right to liberty and security of person, the right to a fair trial, and the right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion, and expression;

2. Expresses its grave concern at the reports of a wave of summary executions since July 1988, as reported by the United Nations Special Rapporteur on summary or arbitrary executions and by non-governmental organizations;

3. Urgently calls upon the Islamic Republic of Iran to cease executions in particular those of political prisoners;

4. Urges the Islamic Republic of Iran to co-operate fully with the United Nations Special Representative and to enable him to pursue his investigations within the Islamic Republic of Iran, including facilitating visits to prisons and other places of detention;
5. Requests the Secretary-General to inform the Sub-Commission, at its forty-second session, of the report of the Special Representative, and of relevant reports by other special rapporteurs or bodies in the field of human rights, as well as of steps which have been and are being taken by United Nations organs to prevent violations of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran.

1989/11. Human rights monitoring mechanisms established within the United Nations framework

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, Member States pledged themselves to take joint and separate action in co-operation with the Organization for the achievement of universal respect for, and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Emphasizing that international monitoring in the field of protection and promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms is an essential instrument of strengthening confidence and co-operation among peoples and an element of constructive co-operation among States, based on the purposes and the principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Taking note of the entry into force of a variety of international instruments in the field of human rights, the implementation of which has led to the establishment of new procedures and new monitoring bodies in this field,

Considering that the effective functioning of the monitoring mechanisms set up in accordance with the said United Nations instruments is indispensable for their effective implementation,

Recalling that a number of specialized agencies and other United Nations bodies perform important fact-finding and monitoring tasks in the field of human rights,

Considering the great importance of the various fact-finding and monitoring mechanisms established under the international instruments and the Charter of the United Nations for the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms in all countries,

Acknowledging the importance of the non-governmental human rights organizations at international, regional, bilateral and national levels, which constitute a key element in the analysis, reporting and monitoring in this field,
Conscious of the valuable contribution of the Centre for Human Rights which provides necessary assistance to the human rights monitoring mechanisms established within the United Nations framework,

Noting the need to use all United Nations resources in the field of human rights more fully and effectively and the need to promote the implementation by Member States of their obligations through the existing mechanisms of co-operation and monitoring in this field,

Recalling further resolution 1988/57 of 9 March 1988 of the Commission on Human Rights in which the Commission requested the Sub-Commission to consider measures to be taken at the national and international levels to eliminate such practices, and to submit a report to the Commission at its forty-sixth session in 1990,

Taking note of the report (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/42 and Add.1) presented by Ms. Warzazi, and sharing her concern about the lack of information supplied, in particular information from Governments, which has resulted in the presentation of a preliminary report,

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that, in the Charter of the United Nations, the peoples of the United Nations reaffirmed their faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and the equal rights of men and women, and determined to promote social progress and better standards of life for everyone,

Considering that all men and women have the right to health and medical care, that they are equal before the law and that they are entitled to equal protection under the law from all discrimination and from all incitement to discrimination related to their state of health,

Deeply concerned by the fact that it is not uncommon to observe discriminatory practices that are incompatible with medical ethics and human rights,
Convinced that the development of international co-operation and information in the field of health can help to diminish discrimination among human beings in health matters, and to prevent it,

Recalling also World Health Assembly resolutions WHA 23.41 of 21 May 1970, WHA 30.43 of 19 May 1977, WHA 33.24 of 23 May 1980, WHA 35.23 of 14 May 1982 and WHA 41.24 of 13 May 1988,

1989/19. Measures to combat racism and racial discrimination and the role of the Sub-Commission

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1983/10 of 5 September 1983 entrusting Mr. Asbjørn Eide with the preparation of a study on the achievements made and obstacles encountered during the Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination,

Recalling further the progress reports submitted by the Special Rapporteur to the Sub-Commission at its thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth sessions,

Having considered the Special Rapporteur's excellent and erudite final report (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/8 and Add.1) on the subject,

Conscious of the fundamental and far-reaching importance of further developing and strengthening effective measures to combat racism and racial discrimination,

1989/20. Realization of economic, social and cultural rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights provides that all persons are entitled to the realization of the economic, social and cultural rights which are indispensable to their dignity and the free development of their personality,

Convinced that in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Proclamation of Teheran and General Assembly resolution 32/130 of 16 December 1977 equal attention and urgent consideration should be given to the implementation, promotion and protection of civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights,

Concerned that the implementation and promotion of economic, social and cultural rights and the obstacles to their realization have not yet received sufficient attention within the framework of the United Nations system,

Conscious of the need to secure full respect for the rights contained in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, particularly the rights of the most disadvantaged,

Conscious also of the fact that the implementation of efficient measures to promote enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms requires a better understanding of extreme poverty and its effects on the exercise of human rights,

Convinced of the need to consider more effective and practical measures for the fuller realization of economic, social and cultural rights, which take into account recent developments in the world economic and social situation as well as in international law,
1. Welcomes the preliminary report entitled "Realization of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights" prepared by Mr. Danilo Türk, Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/19);

2. Endorses the preliminary conclusions made in that preliminary report (para. 94);

3. Requests the Special Rapporteur to prepare a progress report on the realization of economic, social and cultural rights, taking into account comments made in the discussion on the preliminary report at the forty-first session of the Sub-Commission;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the assistance he may require for successful completion of this task;

5. Decides to consider the above-mentioned progress report at its forty-second session under a separate agenda item entitled "The realization of economic, social and cultural rights".

1989/21. Foreign debt, economic adjustment policies and their effects on the enjoyment of human rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the Declaration on the Right to Development adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 41/128 of 4 December 1986,

Recalling also resolution 32/130 adopted by the General Assembly on 16 December 1977,

Bearing in mind the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Declaration on Social Progress and Development,

Bearing in mind also Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/15 of 2 March 1989,

Bearing in mind also the assessments contained in the report on the world social situation (E/CN.5/1989/2), according to which debt-related structural adjustment programmes have had adverse effects on the health and education sectors and on public services as a whole,

Considering that social progress and economic development in all countries are key factors in the full promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms,
Deeply concerned that the adverse effects of debt-related structural adjustment programmes have exacerbated poverty in the developing countries, particularly among vulnerable groups, and have limited the capacity of these countries to achieve their social and economic objectives,

1. Affirms that any foreign debt strategy must be designed not to hamper the steady improvement of conditions guaranteeing the enjoyment of human rights and must be intended, inter alia, to ensure that debtor developing countries achieve an adequate growth level to meet their social and economic needs and their development requirements;

2. Stresses the need to revive the economic growth and development of these countries, reduce the political and social costs of structural adjustment programmes and to guarantee the necessary conditions for the full enjoyment of all human rights;

3. Considers it necessary to invite the developed countries and multilateral financial institutions to take particular account, in formulating their debt policies, of social objectives and growth and development priorities;

4. Invites the Special Rapporteur on problems, policies and progressive measures relating to the more effective realization of economic, social and cultural rights to take these factors into account in his study.

1989/22. Independence and impartiality of the judiciary, jurors and assessors and the independence of lawyers

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Convinced that an independent and impartial judiciary is a prerequisite for ensuring that there shall be no discrimination in the administration of justice,

Recognizing that adequate protection of the rights of citizens requires, inter alia, that all persons have effective access to legal services provided by lawyers who are able to perform effectively their proper role in the defence of those rights, and to counsel and represent their clients in accordance with the law and their established professional standards and judgement without any undue interference from any quarter,

Disturbed at the continued harassment and persecution of judges and lawyers in many countries,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/32 of 6 March 1989 in which it requested that the Sub-Commission consider effective means of monitoring the implementation of the United Nations Basic Principles on the Independence of the Judiciary and the protection of practising lawyers, Bearing in mind the co-operation in this area between the United Nations Centre for Human Rights and the United Nations Programme on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice,

1. Calls on Governments to respect and observe the independence of the judiciary and refrain from arbitrary interferences in the performance of its duties;

2. Recommends that States provide for protection of practising lawyers against arbitrary restrictions and pressures in the exercise of their functions;

3. Invites Mr. Louis Joinet to prepare, without financial implications, a working paper on means in the area of monitoring by which the Sub-Commission could assist in ensuring respect for the independence of the judiciary and the protection of practising lawyers as requested in Commission resolution 1989/32;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide Mr. Joinet with all the assistance necessary for the successful completion of his task;

5. Decides to consider Mr. Joinet's report under the item "The independence and impartiality of the judiciary, jurors and assessors and the independence of lawyers" at its forty-second session.

1989/23. Elimination of all forms of intolerance and of discrimination based on religion or belief

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Conscious of the need to enhance and encourage understanding, tolerance and respect in matters relating to freedom of religion and belief,

Noting the work already accomplished in the elaboration of international legal standards and norms concerning the elimination of intolerance and discrimination based on religion or belief,

Recalling its resolution 1988/32 of 1 September 1988 in which it recommended to the Commission on Human Rights that it should consider establishing a pre-sessional open-ended Working Group to draft a binding instrument of freedom of religion or belief,

Taking into account the recommendations made at the Seminar on the Encouragement of Understanding, Tolerance and Respect in Matters relating to Freedom of Religion or Belief, held from 3 to 14 December 1984, at Geneva (ST/HR/SER.A/16),
Taking further into account the recommendations contained in the reports by Ms. Elizabeth Odio-Benito (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1987/26) and the Commission’s Rapporteur, Mr. Angelo Vidal d’Almeida Ribeiro (E/CN.4/1989/44),

1. Expresses its appreciation and thanks to Mr. Theo van Boven for his working paper, prepared pursuant to Commission resolution 1988/55 and Sub-Commission decision 1988/112 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/32);

2. Decides to submit the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/31 and Add.1), the said working paper by Mr. van Boven and the summary records for the consideration by the Sub-Commission thereon to the Commission, at its forty-sixth session;

3. Brings to the attention of the Commission, at its forty-sixth session, the following issues and considerations:

   (a) The Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief shall continue to serve as a basis for any further work both in standard-setting and in considering measures to ensure respect for the right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief;

   (b) The possibility of drafting any new binding instrument should be considered in the light of the complexity of the subject matter which requires careful preparatory work, sound research and analysis, along the lines of General Assembly resolution 41/120 of 4 December 1986;

   (c) The Secretary-General might be requested to organize within the programme of advisory services, and not later than 1991, a seminar on the interrelationship which exists between the enjoyment of the right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief and the other human rights and fundamental freedoms, taking into account the work carried out by the Committee on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and the Human Rights Committee in this field;

   (d) Consideration may also be given to organize, in co-operation with UNESCO, the United Nations University, other interested intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations as well as academic and research institutions, a global consultation on the positions and approaches of different religions and beliefs to human rights and fundamental freedoms;

4. Reaffirms the willingness and interest of the Sub-Commission to make a further contribution to activities which may be considered by the Commission on Human Rights as a further means of strengthening international efforts to promote and protect the right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief.
1989/24. Human Rights in times of armed conflicts

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Having considered, at its fortieth session, the interrelationship between human rights and international peace,

Noting that while some international conflicts have been brought to an end during the last years, a very high number of non-international armed conflicts can be observed in different parts of the world,

Noting that human rights shall continue to apply also during times of armed conflict, within the limits set by legitimate derogations during emergency,

Noting also the wide range of provisions in international humanitarian law adopted over the years which seek to ensure that human rights apply during armed conflicts,

Deploring the frequent lack of respect, during such conflicts, of relevant provisions in international humanitarian law and the law of human rights,

Considering it essential, therefore, that steps be urgently taken to ensure better respect for these provisions,

Noting also that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed "to the end that every individual and every organ of society, keeping this Declaration constantly in mind, shall strive by teaching and education to promote respect for these rights and freedoms and by progressive measures, national and international, to secure their universal and effective recognition and observance",

Convinced that this is of particular importance for everyone who is or may come to take part in an armed conflict, where the right to life and to integrity is constantly at risk both for combatants and the civilian population,

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1989/25. Right of everyone to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1982/23 of 8 September 1982 entrusting Mr. C.L.C. Mubanga-Chipoya with the preparation of an analysis of current trends and developments in respect of the right of everyone to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country,

Having considered the Special Rapporteur's excellent study on the subject (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1988/35 and Add.1 and Add.1/Corr.1), as well as the Draft Declaration on Freedom and Non-Discrimination in Respect of the Right of Everyone to Leave Any Country, Including His Own, and to Return to His Country, annexed to the study,

Having also considered the comments received from Governments, specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations on the Draft Declaration (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/44 and Add.1-7),

Recalling its resolution 1988/39 of 1 September 1988,

Mindful also of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/39 of 6 March 1989,

1. Expresses its appreciation and thanks to the Special Rapporteur, Mr. Mubanga Chipoya, for the important contribution he has made to the legal doctrine relating to the right of everyone to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare an analytical compilation of the comments on the Draft Declaration received from Governments, specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations and of the comments made by the members of the Sub-Commission;

3. Decides to establish, at its forty-second session, a sessional open-ended working group with the view to preparing a revised version of the Draft Declaration on Freedom and Non-Discrimination in Respect of the Right of Everyone to Leave Any Country, Including His Own, and to Return to His Country.

38th meeting
31 August 1989

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. XVII.]

The Sub-Commission on the Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Mindful of Security Council resolution 579 (1985) of 18 December 1985 and 618 (1988) of 29 July 1988 on hostage-taking, as well as the statement made by the President of the Security Council on 28 January 1987 (S/18641) condemning all cases of hostage-taking,
Recalling a report submitted by the staff representatives of the United Nations Secretariat to the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly in 1988 (A/C.5/43/27 and Corr.1) which contained a list of 12 staff members who, over the past 12 years, have been killed, executed, assassinated, have died, or are presumed to have died in detention in conditions that have never been clarified,

Further recalling the report of the Secretary-General to the forty-third session of the General Assembly which stated, in conclusion, that during that reporting period, there had been a disturbing overall increase in the number of cases involving the arrest and detention of officials of the United Nations, the specialized agencies and related organizations,

Distressed by the abduction of innocent citizens and persons and the detaining of these hostages contrary to all precepts of international law,

Horrified by the physical and mental ill-treatment and/or torture of these hostages in the most brutal manner over a prolonged period of time,

Expressing revulsion at the murder of some of these hostages in violation of the most fundamental principle of humanity,

Alarmed by the deliberate attempts to obstruct efforts of United Nations personnel to maintain peace by detaining, abducting, physically and/or mentally injuring or murdering representatives of the United Nations,

Profoundly disturbed by this continued assault on humanity in violation of both international law and universal standards of decency,

1. Condemns hostage-taking and the torture and murder which frequently accompanies such practice;

2. Condemns all who actively participate in or implicitly tolerate such activities by failing to take appropriate corrective steps;

3. Specifically condemns the abduction and murder of United Nations personnel as most recently exemplified by the brutal murder of the Commander of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization (UNTSO) in Lebanon, Lt. Col. William R. Higgins;

4. Expresses its deepest sympathy and grief to the families of United Nations personnel whose members have been abducted and/or murdered;

5. Requests that all States take steps to prevent hostage-taking and to charge and bring to trial in conformity with international standards any who may participate in hostage-taking;

6. Calls upon all Governments to become parties to the International Convention against the Taking of Hostages and to observe faithfully its terms, in particular, the obligation to prosecute or extradite hostage-takers without exception;
7. Urges the Secretary-General to take all possible measures pursuant to previous resolutions of the Security Council and the Commission on Human Rights to stop hostage-taking and to seek the release of all hostages now being unlawfully detained;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Sub-Commission prior to its forty-second session a complete, up-to-date list of all United Nations personnel held in captivity with all available information concerning the names and whereabouts of the captors, if known;

9. Decides to remain seized of this question at its forty-second session.

1989/27. Right to a fair trial

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling article 10 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which states that "everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him";

Recalling further article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and, in particular, its subparagraph 3 (a) which states that everyone is entitled to "be informed promptly and in detail in a language which he understands of the nature and cause of the charge against him",

Noting there is no current comprehensive study of recent developments concerning standards guaranteeing the right to a fair trial,

Noting further that under the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the right to a fair trial is considered a derogable right and therefore may be suspended in certain circumstances, such as times of public emergency,

1. Decides to appoint Mr. Stanislav Chernichenko and Mr. William Treat as rapporteurs to prepare a report on existing international norms and standards pertaining to the right to a fair trial for submission to the Working Group on Detention and to the Sub-Commission;

2. Requests that the rapporteurs recommend which provisions guaranteeing the right to a fair trial should be made non-derogable;
3. Decides to add the issue of a right to a fair trial to the agenda of its forty-second session as a sub-item of the item entitled "The administration of justice and the human rights of detainees".

1989/28. Question of human rights and states of emergency

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that, by its resolution 1985/32 of 30 August 1985, the Sub-Commission requested Mr. Leandro Despouy to draw up and update a list of countries which proclaim or terminate a state of emergency each year and to prepare an annual report containing reliably attested information on compliance with the rules, national and international, guaranteeing the legality of the introduction of a state of emergency,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolutions 42/103 and 42/147 of 7 December 1987 and 43/114 of 8 December 1988 in which the General Assembly stressed the importance of avoiding the erosion of human rights by derogation and observed that the maintenance of states of emergency constitutes the source of frequent violations of human rights and gives rise to the arbitrary intervention of the authorities in the free exercise of democratic freedoms,

Bearing in mind also Commission on Human Rights decision 1989/105 of 6 March 1989 that the Special Rapporteur on the question of human rights and states of emergency should continue to update his work and submit to the Sub-Commission, at its forty-first session, an annual report and a list updated on the basis of the information received, and that he update his report submitted to the Sub-Commission at its forty-first session for the forty-sixth session of the Commission on Human Rights, and that the Secretary-General give the Special Rapporteur all the assistance he might require in order to enable him to carry out his work,

Having noted during the work of its thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth and forty-first sessions the importance for the effective enjoyment of human rights of the principles concerning respect for the rules, national and international, guaranteeing the legality of the introduction of the state of emergency,

Noting with interest the usefulness, indicated by several speakers, of the provision by the Special Rapporteur and the Secretariat of technical assistance to States requesting it under the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights,
Having noted the need to strengthen the observance of all the intangible human rights, as well as the legal guarantees enabling a remedy to be sought from the competent authorities,

Having noted further that, in some circumstances, such as situations of war, armed conflict or internal unrest, emergency measures are taken without a state of emergency being officially proclaimed and that such measures have an impact on human rights which warrants thorough study by the Special Rapporteur,

1. Expresses its satisfaction with the Special Rapporteur's third annual report and with the list of States which have proclaimed, extended or terminated a state of emergency since 1 January 1985 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/30 and Add.1 and Add.2/Rev.1);

2. Expresses its appreciation also to Governments, competent organs of the United Nations, specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status which have submitted their information and comments to the Special Rapporteur on the question of human rights and states of emergency;

3. Invites Governments, competent organs of the United Nations, specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status to provide further information to the Special Rapporteur;

4. Invites Governments to limit the introduction of states of emergency exclusively to situations which are sufficiently serious and exceptional to justify them, particularly in the case of internal unrest, in order to avoid making the use of states of emergency commonplace and thus possibly perpetuating them;

5. Recognizes the fundamental importance of the existence, in each country, of specific and effective national legislation enabling such situations to be dealt with in a manner conforming to international norms, invites Governments which have not yet done so to consider the adoption of internal legislation consistent with the requirements of international instruments concerning states of emergency and requests the Special Rapporteur to continue his work with the aim of submitting to the Sub-Commission draft standard provisions on emergency situations, including situations of internal unrest;

6. Requests the Secretary-General, under the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights, to give consideration to the technical assistance which might be furnished by the Special Rapporteur or by the Secretariat to States requesting it;

7. Invites the Special Rapporteur to continue the work with which he has been entrusted and to present to the Sub-Commission, at its forty-second session, the next annual report and list updated on the basis of the information received and to update his present report so that the Commission on Human Rights, at its forty-sixth session, will have before it the most recent and accurate information available;
8. Requests the Secretary-General to give the Special Rapporteur all the assistance he may require in order to enable him to carry out his work successfully;

9. Decides to examine the updated report and list transmitted by the Special Rapporteur as a matter of priority under the agenda item "Administration of justice and human rights of detainees: Question of human rights and states of emergency".

1989/29. Question of human rights of persons subjected to any form of detention and imprisonment: detainees and hostages in Lebanon

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Expressing its deep concern at the continuing detention of foreign and Lebanese hostages in Lebanon in violation of the basic principles of human rights, in particular article 9 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 36/55 of 25 November 1981,

Recalling its resolution 1988/23 of 1 September 1988,

Taking note of the repeated condemnations expressed by the Government of Lebanon of all the acts of abduction which took place on the territory of Lebanon, and its intention to co-operate within its power with all the international parties concerned to release those hostages as soon as possible,

1. Considers that a lasting solution to the tragedy of the hostages in Lebanon should be sought primarily by helping Lebanon to recover its sovereignty and legal authority and to re-establish the rule of law in its territory;

2. Calls upon all parties, local and regional, involved in the war in Lebanon to release immediately and unconditionally all their detainees and hostages detained for political, religious or ethnic reasons or any other reason inconsistent with the norms of human rights, and to use whatever influence they have on those in direct control of detainees and hostages.

1989/30. Protection of staff members of the United Nations system

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 42/219 of 21 December 1987 and 43/225 of 21 December 1988, in which the Assembly deplored the increase in the number of cases where the functioning, safety and well-being of officials had been adversely affected, including cases of detention in Member States and abduction by armed groups and individuals, and the increasing number of cases in which the lives and well-being of officials had been placed in jeopardy during the exercise of their official functions,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1988/41 of 8 March 1988 and 1989/28 of 6 March 1989, respectively, in which it requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that the human rights and privileges and immunities of the United Nations staff members and their families were fully respected,

Recalling also its resolution 1987/21 of 3 September 1987, in which the Sub-Commission expressed its concern that some 50 staff members of the United Nations system were still detained, imprisoned, reported missing - some even having died in detention - or held in a country against their will and requested the Secretary-General to submit to it a detailed report on the situation of these staff members and their families,

Recalling also its resolution 1988/9 of 31 August 1988, in which the Sub-Commission recognized that the violations of the fundamental rights of staff members of the United Nations system and the threats against their security and independence could only have negative effects on the implementation of the mandates of the organs and agencies of the United Nations system,

Having examined the report (E/CN.4/1989/19) by the Secretary-General submitted to the Commission at its current session as an updated version of the report on detention of staff members of the United Nations and its specialized agencies presented to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities at its fortieth session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1988/17),

Taking note of the report prepared by Ms. Mary Concepción Bautista on the violations of human rights of staff members of the United Nations system, their families and experts as well as of the repercussions of these violations on the functioning of the United Nations organs and agencies,

Gravely concerned that a significant number of personnel in the service of the United Nations continue to be held captive or are otherwise unaccounted for,

Conscious that these violations of the fundamental rights of staff members of the United Nations system and these threats against their security and independence can only have negative effects on the implementation of the mandates of the organs and agencies of the United Nations system,
Noting with grave concern that, according to reliable reports, the health of detained officials has in some cases seriously deteriorated during their period of detention,

Preoccupied by the inordinate delays which different organizations of the United Nations system face when trying to exercise fully the right of functional protection of their staff members,

Greatly appreciating the efforts of the Secretary-General to promote a satisfactory resolution of all cases of this kind, and noting that these efforts have already produced concrete results to ensure the security of international civil servants or to settle in a satisfactory way some cases,

1. Appeals again to Member States to respect and to ensure respect for the rights of staff members and others acting under the authority of the United Nations, and their families;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to redouble his efforts to ensure that the human rights and privileges and immunities of the United Nations staff members and experts and their families are fully respected;

3. Urges Member States to allow medical teams to investigate cases in which the health of staff members and experts and their families who are being detained is reported to have suffered and to permit the necessary medical treatment to be made available;

4. Urges Member States, in accordance with the Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment adopted by the General Assembly in resolution 43/173 of 9 December 1988, to provide adequate and prompt information concerning the arrest or detention of United Nations staff members and their families, and to grant the representative of the competent international organization access to them without delay;

5. Expressed its appreciation to Ms. Bautista for the work she has accomplished and for her preliminary report;

6. Invites Ms. Bautista to continue her study so as to submit to the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session an updated version of the report submitted to it at its current session on the situation of international civil servants and their families detained, imprisoned, missing or held in a country against their will, including those cases which have been successfully settled during the year, as well as on the implementation of the measures referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the present resolution;

7. Requests the Member States, the Secretary-General, and the heads of secretariat of the specialized agencies who have not yet done so, including the International Atomic Energy Agency and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, to communicate all information concerning cases of arrest, detention, or abduction of officials of the United Nations or the specialized agencies, since 1980, in order to enable the Special Rapporteur to complete the mission assigned to her;
8. Invites the Special Rapporteur to continue her study and to submit a report to the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session, with proposals for practical measures to improve the present system and ensure that staff members of the United Nations and the specialized agencies are protected.

1989/31. Application of international standards concerning the human rights of detained juveniles

The Sub-Commission on the Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1985/19 of 29 August 1985, and the subsequent report of the Secretary-General concerning the incarceration of children under the age of 18 with adult prisoners (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1987/30),

Bearing in mind that the separation of detained juvenile persons from adults is stipulated in the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights (article 10 (b)), the Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners (rule 8 (d)), the Standard Minimum Rules for the Administration of Juvenile Justice, or "Beijing Rules" (rule 13.4), and in article 37 of the draft Convention on the Rights of the Child as well as in regional human rights instruments,

Considering that document E/CN.4/Sub.2/1987/30 has not yet been discussed by the Sub-Commission and that further information has been made available to the Secretary-General on the question of children deprived of their liberty since that document was prepared,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to actualize document E/CN.4/Sub.2/1987/30 and to submit the said revision to the forty-second session of the Sub-Commission, for its discussion under item 10 of the provisional agenda;

2. Decides to appoint Ms. Mary Concepción Bautista to prepare a report, without financial implications, on the application of international standards concerning the human rights of detained juveniles, in particular the separation of juvenile and adult offenders in penal institutions, detention pending trial, least possible use of institutionalization, and the objectives of institutional treatment;

3. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit this resolution to Governments, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations requesting their comments on these matters;

4. Decides to continue studying these matters at its forty-second session, under the item of its agenda, entitled "Administration of justice and human rights of detainees".

1989/32. Application of the death penalty to persons under 18 years of age

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that the non-applicability of the death penalty to persons under the age of 18 is stipulated by the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (article 6.5), the American Convention on Human Rights (article 4.5), the draft Convention on the Rights of the Child (article 37.a) and the Geneva Conventions on International Humanitarian Law of 1949 and their Additional Protocols,

Recalling also Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/25 of 6 March 1989 transmitting the text of the Draft Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty to the forty-fourth session of the United Nations General Assembly for suitable action,

Considering that the General Assembly has repeatedly opposed the imposition of the death penalty on persons under the age of 18 inter alia in its resolutions 35/172 of 15 December 1980 and 40/143 of 13 December 1985, indicating that the application of the death penalty for crimes committed by persons below said age violates minimum international standards for the protection of human rights applicable to all Member States,

1. Urgently appeals to all those Member States that at present apply the death penalty to persons under the age of 18 to take the necessary legislative and administrative measures with a view to stopping forthwith this practice;

2. Requests all States in which the death penalty is currently applicable to consider the possibility of enacting legislation specifically prohibiting its application to persons under 18 years of age, in accordance with existing international standards;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit this resolution to all Governments, requesting comments and information on their respective legislation in this matter, and to specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations for their comments on this issue;

4. Further requests the Secretary-General to prepare, on the basis of the information received from Governments, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations, a report that will be submitted to the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session;

5. Decides to continue to review the question of the application of the death penalty to persons under the age of 18 years at its forty-second session under the item of its agenda, entitled "Administration of justice and human rights of detainees".

1989/33. Use of force by law enforcement officials

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials, adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 34/169 of 17 December 1979,

Seriously disturbed by information that excessive force is used by law enforcement officials in various regions of the world,

Bearing in mind the need for international co-operation in the elaboration and adoption of agreed measures to ensure effective compliance with international standards and guidelines in this field,

Noting with satisfaction the progress made on the draft basic principles on the use of force and firearms by law enforcement officials, now under preparation for the Eighth United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders,

Confirming the inalienable right of everyone to peaceful assembly, which includes the right to peaceful demonstrations,

Re-emphasizing that law enforcement officials should not use force in ways which effectively would undermine the enjoyment of this right,

Underlining that the use of force in law enforcement should take place only in exceptional circumstances and only to the extent strictly required to uphold law and order in a democratic society,

Underlining also that law enforcement officials should refrain from the use of firearms, tear gas and other equally harmful devices, except in cases of extreme circumstances where less dangerous means would be clearly insufficient,

Stressing the need to spell out, in national legislations, the list of means which can be used by law enforcement officials, and that actions taken by such officials shall always be subject to supervision by higher officials and to public scrutiny,

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

40th meeting
1 September 1989

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. X.]
The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its resolution 1985/22 of 29 August 1985, which endorsed the decision of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations to emphasize its standard-setting activities, with the aim of producing a draft declaration on indigenous rights which may be proclaimed by the General Assembly,

Recalling also that the Economic and Social Council, by its resolution 1988/36 of 27 May 1988, requested the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group, Ms. Erica-Irene A. Daes, to prepare a working paper containing a set of principles and preambular paragraphs for inclusion in a draft declaration, for consideration by the Working Group at its sixth session,

Recalling further its resolution 1988/18 of 1 September 1988, which endorsed the decision of the Working Group to adopt the working paper prepared by its Chairman-Rapporteur as the framework for the drafting of a universal declaration on indigenous rights, and entrusted the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group with the task of preparing a first revised text based on the comments made and written observations and suggestions received,

Mindful that the Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 1989/34 of 6 March 1989, urged the Working Group to intensify its efforts to continue and to complete, as soon as possible, the elaboration of standards of this field,

Noting the adoption, by the International Labour Organisation, of the Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, No. 169 (1989),

Having examined with satisfaction and appreciation the revised draft declaration prepared by the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group, Ms. Daes, as well as the report and recommendations of the Working Group on its seventh session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/36),

Believing that the Working Group can best fulfil its standard-setting task with the greatest possible direct participation and consultation with interested Governments and organizations of indigenous peoples,

Reaffirming the importance of ensuring that the activities of the Working Group are better known in every country, in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/23 of 4 March 1983,

Convinced of the urgent need to promote and protect indigenous rights by means of a continued and comprehensive review of developments in this field, as well as through the evolution of standards, particularly by means of the preparation of a draft declaration on indigenous rights,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Working Group, and especially to its Chairman-Rapporteur, Ms. Daes, for the progress made at its seventh session in carrying out its mandate, with particular reference to her first revised draft of a universal declaration on indigenous rights;
2. Expresses its deep satisfaction with the continued constructive participation of observers for Governments, indigenous peoples, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations, in the annual sessions of the Working Group;

3. Welcomes the contributions made by Governments, indigenous peoples and non-governmental organizations to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Populations, which was able to facilitate the participation of a significant number of representatives of indigenous peoples in the seventh session of the Working Group, and encourages continued support for the activities of the Fund;

4. Welcomes also the planned information material by the Secretary-General relating to indigenous rights, as well as efforts by the Secretary-General to prepare and disseminate the text of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in indigenous languages;

5. Endorses the programme of work and procedure adopted by the Working Group for the continuation and completion of the drafting of a Universal Declaration of Indigenous Rights, including its proposal to invite Governments and indigenous peoples organizations to participate in informal, in-sessional and open-ended drafting groups to seek agreement on recommendations which may be made for consideration by the Working Group;

6. Encourages Governments and indigenous peoples organizations also to conduct joint meetings at the national level to seek agreement on texts which may be submitted to the Working Group for consideration;

7. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To transmit the Working Group's report to Governments, indigenous peoples, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, as soon as possible after the present session of the Sub-Commission, for specific comments and proposals for the further elaboration of the revised text which is now contained in annex II of the report;

(b) To give all necessary assistance to the Working Group in discharging its tasks, including the dissemination of information about its activities to indigenous organizations in every country to encourage their wider participation, and to consider ways and means of better publicizing the aims and procedures of the Working Group within the framework of the information activities of the Centre for Human Rights keeping in mind, among others, Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/23;

8. Recommends that the Chairman-Rapporteur of the Working Group, Ms. Daes, be entrusted with the task of preparing a second revised text of the draft declaration to be based on comments received in writing by members of the Working Group as well as those made orally in the session of the Working Group and on the written observations and suggestions received in accordance with subparagraph 7 (a) above;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Chairman-Rapporteur with all necessary assistance in carrying out this task;
10. Reiterates its recommendation that the reports of the Working Group should be made available to the Commission on Human Rights at each of its sessions;

11. Decides to include in the agenda of its forty-second and future sessions, as a matter of high priority, an item entitled "Discrimination against indigenous peoples";

12. Recommends the following draft decision to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

   [For the text, see chap. I, sect. B, draft decision 3.]

1989/35. Report of the Seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling the final report of Mr. José Martínez Cobo, Special Rapporteur, on the problem of discrimination against indigenous populations, in which he recommended the organization of international seminars within the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1986/7 and Add.1-4),

Recalling also Commission on Human Rights resolution 1988/48 of 8 March 1988, which recommended to the Economic and Social Council the organization of a seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States,

Noting that this Seminar was conducted in Geneva on 16 to 20 January 1989, with the participation of 10 governmental experts and 9 experts from the indigenous non-governmental organizations,

Conscious of the need to secure full respect for the rights contained in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, especially for the most vulnerable and disadvantaged, such as indigenous peoples,

Mindful of the importance of the widest possible exchange of views in this field among Governments, specialized agencies, competent organs of the United Nations, and organizations of indigenous peoples,

Believing that the report of the Seminar (E/CN.4/1989/22) contains a number of practical recommendations for strengthening international co-operation and for improving the political, economic and social conditions of indigenous peoples, in particular through the development process,
Having examined the report and recommendations of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations on its seventh session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/36),

1. Requests the Secretary-General to encourage the global consultation of the realization of the right to development, to be held in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1989/45 of 6 March 1989, to take due account of the rights and concerns of indigenous peoples, and in particular of the report of the Seminar on the effects of racism and racial discrimination on the social and economic relations between indigenous peoples and States, and to consider the extent to which the same principles may be applicable to other groups;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to organize, within the framework and resources of the Voluntary Fund for Advisory Services in the Field of Human Rights, regional training courses for indigenous peoples organizations on international human rights standards and procedures, to facilitate their participation in the work of the Working Group, and their attendance at other human rights organs and bodies of the United Nations system;

3. Invites the United Nations Centre for Transnational Corporations to assist the Working Group on Indigenous Peoples in compiling information on investments and operations on the lands of indigenous peoples, including lands which are currently in dispute;

4. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

   [For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution X.]

   40th meeting
   1 September 1989

   [Adopted without a vote. See chap. XIV.]

1989/36. International Year for Indigenous Rights

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its recommendation, by its resolution 1988/19 of 1 September 1988, that an international year for the promotion of indigenous rights should be proclaimed in 1993,

Conscious of the recommendations of the Second World Conference to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, with regard to the protection of indigenous rights, and to the use of education and the mass media to combat racial discrimination,

Mindful that the Economic and Social Council, by its resolution 1988/35 of 27 May 1988, encouraged States to ensure that educational and informational activities give an accurate interpretation of history, and do not perpetuate or justify theories of racial superiority or the subjugation of indigenous or other peoples,
1. Entrusts Mr. Asbjørn Eide and Ms. Christy Mbonu with the task of preparing a working paper on possible United Nations activities for an international year for indigenous rights, with an explicit focus on the development process and on promoting international co-operation with indigenous peoples organizations;

2. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

   [For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution XI.]

1989/37. Relocation of Hopi and Navajo families

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling its decisions 1987/110 of 4 September 1987 and 1988/105 of 1 September 1988, regarding the relocation of Navajo and Hopi families,

Having reviewed the reports [E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/35 (Part I) and Add.l and E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/35 (Part II)] submitted by Ms. Erica-Irene A. Daes and Mr. John Carey, pursuant to these decisions,

Mindful of the role the United Nations should play in facilitating the resolution of situations involving violations of universally-recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms, including the rights of indigenous peoples,

Believing that human rights and fundamental freedoms must be respected by institutions of local, internal or autonomous self-government, no less than by States,

Conscious of the complex historical factors which are responsible for the present condition of those Navajo and Hopi families which have been relocated,

1. Expresses its appreciation to Ms. Daes and Mr. Carey for their thorough, informative and useful reports;

2. Welcomes the initiatives recently taken by the Navajo Nation and Hopi Tribe to resolve the present situation by agreement;

3. Expresses the hope that involuntary resettlement will be suspended pending the conclusion of such an agreement, if both tribes consent;

4. Encourages the parties to ensure the effective participation of the families and communities affected in the negotiation and implementation of any settlement agreement.

1989/38. Study on treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements between States and indigenous populations

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling resolution 1989/77 of 24 May 1989 of the Economic and Social Council authorizing the appointment of Mr. Miguel Alfonso Martínez as Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements between States and indigenous populations,

Noting the discussion of the report of the Working Group on Indigenous Populations (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/36, paras. 93-95) with regard to this study, as well as recommendation No. 7 of the Working Group,

Looking forward to reviewing the preliminary report of the Special Rapporteur at its forty-second session,

1. Authorizes the Special Rapporteur, in the course of preparing his preliminary report, to undertake the necessary travel for consulting the Centre for Human Rights in Geneva and institutions in Washington D.C. and Seville;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all assistance required by the Special Rapporteur to carry out his study and, in particular, to take the necessary steps to secure the appointment of the consultant who will assist him during the biennium 1990-1991.

1989/39. Respect for the right to life; elimination of chemical weapons

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights, and the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 42/99 of 7 December 1987 and 43/111 of 8 December 1988, reaffirming that all people have an inherent right to life,

Taking note of Security Council resolutions 612 (1988) of 9 May 1988 and 620 (1988) of 26 August 1988, on the need to consider appropriate and effective measures for eliminating the use of chemical weapons,
Mindful that the General Assembly, by its resolution 43/74 A of 7 December 1988, called upon all States to be guided by the need to curb the spread of chemical weapons pending the conclusion of a convention on the complete, effective and verifiable prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of all chemical weapons and on their destruction, and requested the Secretary-General to investigate reports of the use of such weapons,

Recalling its resolution 1988/27 of 1 September 1988,

Concerned, in particular, by the reports of alleged use of such weapons against civilian populations, resulting in death, misery, and disability,

Concerned, further, by the long-term effects of the use of such weapons upon human health and the environment,

Convinced that the use of such weapons is also incompatible with the prohibition against any form of torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment,

Believing also that continued efforts must be undertaken to sensitize public opinion to the massive, inhuman, and indiscriminate effects of the use of chemical weapons, and of the need for their complete elimination,

Having considered the report by the Secretary-General on this subject (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/4),

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on this issue (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/4);

2. Calls upon all States to strictly abide by their international obligations in this field;

3. Decides to give further consideration to this matter, at its forty-second session, on the basis of any further information which may be contained in reports by the Secretary-General to the United Nations bodies, or submitted by Governments or non-governmental organizations in consultative status.

1989/40. Congratulations to the Anti-Slavery Society

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling that the Anti-Slavery Society for the Protection of Human Rights, the oldest human rights organization in the world, is in 1989 celebrating its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary,

Noting that the Society in 1909 had merged with an even older organization, the Aborigines Protection Society, founded in 1837,
Aware of the great contribution that the Anti-Slavery Society has made to the cause of human rights over the last century-and-a-half by its tireless advocacy, research and concern for indigenous peoples as well as those suffering from abuses of slavery and slavery-like practices,

Conscious of the important and continuing vital work the Society does in maintaining its global programmes and providing information to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities and its working groups, and of the need for these valuable sources to be maintained,

Congratulates the Anti-Slavery Society on its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary and hopes that it will continue its good work in the years ahead.

40th meeting
1 September 1989

[Adopted without a vote. See chap. XV.]

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Welcoming the draft convention on the rights of the child and hoping that it will be adopted at the forty-fourth session of the General Assembly,

Taking note of the debate that took place during the fourteenth session of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery and the forty-first session of the Sub-Commission regarding articles 21 and 38 of the draft convention,

Deeply concerned about the fact that in many parts of the world there is evidence of the sale and trafficking of children for adoption for commercial purposes,

Deploring the suffering that illicit adoptions inflict on children, on their biological family, and on adoptive parents acting in good faith,

Taking note also of the ongoing deliberations concerning article 38,

Deeply concerned that in many parts of the world children continue to take part in hostilities and are recruited into armed forces,

Recognizing that children who have been trained to hate and have participated in war are often mentally and morally crippled for life,

Deploring the fact that many child soldiers have been killed or seriously injured and that others languish as prisoners of war,

1. Expresses deep concern that some Governments and non-governmental entities solicit, encourage and at times coerce children to participate in military training and hostilities;
2. Expresses concern that the present formulation of article 21 of the draft convention is open to differing interpretations and should be subjected to a technical revision to preclude that adoption be used as a source of profit of any kind in favour of any party;

3. Recognizes that in connection with article 38 no effort should be spared to prevent the militarization of children;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to bring this resolution to the attention of the forty-fourth session of the General Assembly;

5. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Sub-Commission, at its forty-second session, a report on the adoption of children for commercial purposes and on the recruitment of children into government and non-governmental armed forces and their participation in hostilities, taking into account the comments of Governments, and further information received by him;

6. Decides to consider these matters in subsequent sessions under the agenda item entitled "Contemporary forms of slavery".

1989/42. Sale of children

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Having considered the report of the Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery on its fourteenth session (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/39), which was submitted to it at its forty-first session,

Recommends to the Commission on Human Rights that it should adopt the following draft resolution:

[For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution XII.]

1989/43. Programme of action for prevention of sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Taking note of the report of the fourteenth session of its Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/39) where the main theme was prevention of the sale of children, including the problem of adoption of children for commercial purposes, child prostitution, and child pornography,
Recognizing the extremely serious nature of the information there presented and that the international community should urgently take steps to prevent such practices,

Considering it desirable therefore to launch a concerted programme of action with the least possible delay,

1. Endorses the draft Programme of Action prepared to this effect by its Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery, the text of which is found in the report of the Working Group (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/39);

2. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1989/44. Possible ways and means of facilitating the peaceful and constructive solution of problems involving minorities

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 217 C (III) of 10 December 1948, in which the Assembly expressed concern for the fate of minorities, and requested the Sub-Commission to study effective measures for their protection,

Mindful of its mandate to make recommendations in this field, in accordance with resolutions 5 (I) of 16 February 1946 and 9 (II) of 21 June 1946 of the Economic and Social Council, and resolution 1 A (V) of 16 May 1949 of the Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1988/36 of 1 September 1988,

Mindful also of the Study on the rights of persons belonging to ethnic, religious and linguistic minorities prepared at the request of the Sub-Commission by Mr. Francesco Capotorti (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.78.XIV.1),

Guided by the Declaration of Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, in particular the inviolability of the territorial integrity and national unity of States,

Having examined the working paper (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/43) prepared by Ms. Palley in accordance with its resolution 1988/36,
Convinced that the Sub-Commission can best contribute to preventing situations involving minorities by studying and promoting positive measures for the development of minorities and for the peaceful and constructive solution of problems concerning them within the States in which they live,

Believing in the need for the study and dissemination of positive and practical approaches to questions of the assimilation, integration, or autonomy of minorities,

1. Expresses its appreciation to Ms. Claire Palley for her proposals;

2. Decides to entrust Mr. Asbjørn Eide with the preparation of a further report on national experience in this field, in accordance with the guidelines and principles contained in the working paper, for consideration at its forty-third session;

3. Invites Mr. Eide to present a progress report to the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session;

4. Decides to give further consideration to these issues at its forty-second and future sessions under a separate item of its agenda entitled "Protection of minorities";

5. Recommends to the Commission on Human Rights the adoption of the following draft decision:

1989/45. Report on human rights and youth prepared by Mr. Dimitru Mazilu

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling in particular Commission on Human Rights resolution 1985/13 of 11 March 1985 emphasizing the necessity to ensure full enjoyment by youth of the rights stipulated in all relevant international instruments as indispensable for human dignity and the free development of the human personality, and requesting the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to pay due attention to the role of youth in the field of human rights,
Recalling its resolution 1985/12 of 29 August 1985 by which it requested Mr. Dimitru Mazilu, in order to facilitate the Sub-Commission’s discussion of the topic, to prepare a report on human rights and youth analysing the efforts and measures for securing the implementation and enjoyment by youth of human rights, particularly the right to life, education and work,

Having in mind Commission on Human Rights resolution 1987/44 of 10 March 1987 in which the Commission took note with appreciation of Sub-Commission resolution 1985/12 in which the Sub-Commission requested one of its members to prepare a report on human rights and youth analysing the efforts and measures for securing the implementation and enjoyment of human rights by youth, particularly the right to life, education and work, and to submit it to the Sub-Commission at its thirty-ninth session,

Noting the report on human rights and youth presented by Mr. Dimitru Mazilu (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/41),

Further noting the difficult circumstances in which this report was prepared and the fact that the information collected by the Secretary-General relating to this subject appears not to have been delivered to Mr. Mazilu,

Noting with deep concern the information on the personal situation of Mr. Mazilu and his family,

Noting with great regret that the Special Rapporteur was unable to present in person his report to the forty-first session of the Sub-Commission,

Recalling its debate on this subject during its forty-first session,

Aware of the great importance of the subject of human rights and youth,

Reaffirming the need to observe the guidelines and practices of the Sub-Commission concerning the contents and the structure of theme reports, in particular the inappropriateness of discussing them in the absence of the Special Rapporteurs,

1. Decides to request Mr. Mazilu to update his report in the light of the discussion during the Sub-Commission’s forty-first session, the information already collected for him by the Secretary-General and any other pertinent information;

2. Further requests the Special Rapporteur to present his updated report to the forty-second session of the Sub-Commission;

3. Decides to invite Mr. Mazilu now to present his updated report in person to the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to gather and furnish to Mr. Mazilu information relating to his study, and to provide Mr. Mazilu with all the assistance he might need in updating his report, including consultations with the Centre for Human Rights;
5. Expresses its deep concern at the reports of the personal situation of Mr. Mazilu and his family and requests the Secretary-General to follow closely the personal situation of Mr. Mazilu and his family in order that he informs the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of United Nations staff members, experts and their families accordingly, and requests this Special Rapporteur to report to the Sub-Commission on this matter at its forty-second session, and to present through the Secretary-General a note to the Commission on Human Rights, at its forty-sixth session, on the situation of Mr. Mazilu;

6. Decides to consider the updated report on human rights and youth at its forty-second session under its agenda item "Promotion, protection and restoration of human rights at national, regional and international levels".

1989/46. Status of the individual and contemporary international law

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Recalling resolution 18 (XXVII) of the Commission on Human Rights of 10 March 1981, by which the Commission recommended to the Economic and Social Council that it authorize the Sub-Commission to appoint Ms. Erica-Irene A. Daes as Special Rapporteur with the mandate of undertaking a study on the topic entitled: "The Status of the Individual and Contemporary International Law",

Recalling also its resolutions 1985/31 of 30 August 1985 and 1988/40 of 1 September 1988,

Having considered the study elaborated by Ms. Daes (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/40),

Having also heard the relevant introductory statement by the Special Rapporteur,

1. Expresses its gratitude and deep appreciation to the Special Rapporteur, Ms. Daes, for the work she has accomplished and for the valuable and important study she has presented;

2. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Commission on Human Rights for adoption:

1989/47. Interrelationship between human rights and international peace

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Taking into account the recommendations contained in Commission on Human Rights resolution 1982/7 of 19 February 1982,

Recalling its resolutions 1985/1 and 1985/2 of 19 February 1985 in which it stressed the interrelationship between the full realization of human rights and questions of peace and security,

Recalling further its resolution 1988/27 of 7 March 1988 in which it called for urgent measures to ensure the right to life,

Taking into account that in the contemporary world the interrelationship between the realization of human rights and peace and security is becoming even more evident,

Having discussed the report of the Secretary-General entitled "Interrelationship between human rights and international peace" (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1988/2), which was prepared in accordance with Sub-Commission resolution 1985/2,

Taking into account the views expressed during the debate on this item during its present session,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the thorough analysis of the problem provided in his report (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1988/2);

2. Emphasizes that strengthening of international peace and security, as well as the reduction of expenditure for arms are important conditions for social and economic development and for the materialization of all human rights, particularly the right to life and the right to development;

3. Underlines further that the effective realization of all human rights in all areas of the world will contribute to achieve international peace and security;

4. Expresses its conviction that it is necessary to undertake the study requested by the Commission on Human Rights in its resolution 1982/7;

5. Emphasizes also that the problem of interrelationship between human rights and international peace in all its aspects requires further examination, in particular taking account of the desire for transparency which, in certain regions of the world, is producing positive effects with respect to disarmament and peace;
6. Invites Mr. Murlidhar Bhandare to prepare, without financial implications, a working paper on the problem of the interrelationship between international peace and the effective materialization of all human rights, particularly of the rights to life and the right to development for consideration at its forty-third session.

1989/103. List of studies already undertaken

The Sub-Commission at its 35th meeting, on 30 August 1989, taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1986/43 of 23 May 1986, Commission on Human Rights resolution 1988/43 of 8 March 1988, in which the Sub-Commission was invited to continue its efforts to rationalize its agenda, and resolution 1989/36 of 6 March 1989, by which the Commission recommended that the Sub-Commission should propose a new study with financial implications only when a study previously authorized is fully completed,

(a) decided, without a vote, to examine at its forty-second session ways and means of rationalizing proposals for studies and to consider the possibility of drawing up a medium-term programme that would ensure the participation of the greatest number of members of the Sub-Commission in this programme,
(b) requested the Secretary-General to submit to it at its forty-second session a note listing all the studies which have already been undertaken and the names of those who prepared them.

[See chap. IV.]

1989/104. Establishment of a sessional working group

At its 35th meeting, on 30 August 1989, the Sub-Commission decided, without a vote, that, at the beginning of its forty-second session, it would establish a sessional working group of five of its members, appointed by the various regional groups and open to the participation of other members of the Sub-Commission, to prepare an overview and an analysis of the suggestions and proposals which have been made in order to enable the Sub-Commission to better discharge its responsibilities in dealing with violations of human rights as discussed under item 6 of its agenda, taking also into account the functions and duties of the Commission on Human Rights in the matter.

The Sub-Commission further decided to request the same sessional working group, in preparing the overview and analysis, to submit to the Sub-Commission its views and recommendations as to the possible advantages and disadvantages of the various suggestions and proposals referred to above, and to present its findings in the light of the deliberations of the Sub-Commission at its forty-second session under the agenda item relating to the question of the violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

In order to facilitate the implementation of the above two paragraphs, the Sub-Commission also decided to continue discussing the agenda item entitled "Review of the work of the Sub-Commission" at its forty-second session in 1990, expressing the view that the item relating to the question of the violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms should be taken up at an early stage of that session.

1989/108. Human rights and the environment

The information on human rights and the environment provided to the Sub-Commission at its forty-first session by Friends of the Earth, the Sierra Club and the Association of Humanitarian Lawyers, and by certain members, together with the Environmental Perspective to the Year 2000 (General Assembly resolution 42/186 of 11 December 1987), justified consideration of whether the Sub-Commission should study the problem of the environment and its relation to human rights.

The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Guided by the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights, and the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto,
Recalling General Assembly resolutions 42/99 of 7 December 1987 and 43/11 of 8 December 1988, reaffirming that all people have an inherent right to life,

Taking note of Security Council resolutions 612 (1988) of 9 May 1988 and 620 (1988) of 26 August 1988, on the need to consider appropriate and effective measures for eliminating the use of chemical weapons,

Mindful that the General Assembly, by its resolution 43/74 A of 7 December 1988, called upon all States to be guided by the need to curb the spread of chemical weapons pending the conclusion of a convention on the complete, effective and verifiable prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of all chemical weapons and on their destruction, and requested the Secretary-General to investigate reports of the use of such weapons,

Recalling its resolution 1988/27 of 1 September 1988,

Concerned, in particular, by the reports of alleged use of such weapons against civilian populations, resulting in death, misery, and disability,

Concerned, further by the long-term effects of the use of such weapons upon human health and the environment,

Convinced that the use of such weapons is also incompatible with the prohibition against any form of torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment,

Relieving also that continued efforts must be undertaken to sensitize public opinion to the massive, inhuman, and indiscriminate effects of the use of chemical weapons, and of the need for their complete elimination,

Having considered the report by the Secretary-General on this subject (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/4),

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on this issue,

2. Calls upon all States to strictly abide by their international obligations in this field;

3. Decides to give further consideration to this matter, at its forty-second session, on the basis of any further information which may be contained in reports by the Secretary-General to the United Nations bodies, or submitted by Governments or non-governmental organizations in consultative status."

127. The draft resolution E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/L.52 was withdrawn by the sponsor.

"The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Mindful of General Assembly resolution 43/125 of 8 December 1988, in which the Assembly expressed concern at the disparity existing between established norms and principles and the actual situation of all human rights and fundamental freedoms in the world,

Guided by General Assembly resolution 43/90 of 8 December 1988, in which the Assembly invited the Commission on Human Rights to consider a programme of action in the field of human rights, including measures to strengthen the United Nations machinery for the promotion and protection of human rights,

Recalling Commission on Human Rights resolution 8 (XXIII) of 16 March 1967, which authorized the Sub-Commission to report annually on situations which appear to reveal a consistent pattern of gross violations of human rights,

Recalling also Economic and Social Council resolution 1235 (XLII) of 6 June 1967, welcoming Commission resolution 8 (XXIII) and concurring in the Commission's request for assistance in this regard from the Sub-Commission,

Reaffirming the important role of resolutions drawing the attention of the Commission to situations in particular countries,

Conscious none the less of the difficulties of adopting resolutions on each situation which may merit consideration by the Commission,

Believing in the need for more comprehensive and balanced approaches to its annual review of violations of human rights, which place situations in their wider regional and global contexts,

Recognizing that situations in various countries may differ in degree of severity, that governments may differ in the extent to which they demonstrate a commitment to resolve them in accordance with international standards, and that the response of the Sub-Commission and Commission should reflect these differences,
Convinced that consideration by the Commission on Human Rights of specific situations of alleged violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms can contribute to the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Deeply preoccupied by continuing reports of racial discrimination, discrimination against minorities and widespread violations of the right to life and physical integrity by summary or arbitrary execution, enforced or involuntary disappearances, torture and the excessive use of force by police and military personnel,

IX. COMMUNICATIONS CONCERNING HUMAN RIGHTS: REPORT OF THE WORKING GROUP EMBRACED UNDER SUB-COMMISSION RESOLUTION 2 (XXIV) IN ACCORDANCE WITH ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL RESOLUTION 1503 (XLVIII)

291. The Sub-Commission considered item 8 of its agenda at its 28th to 31st closed meetings, and at its 40th meeting (closed part), held on 25 and 28 August and on 1 September 1989.

292. By resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970, the Economic and Social Council authorized the Sub-Commission to appoint a working group of not more than five of its members to meet annually for 10 working days, immediately before each session of the Sub-Commission, to consider all communications received by the Secretary-General under Council resolution 728 F (XXVIII) of 30 July 1959, including replies of Governments thereon, with a view to bringing to the attention of the Sub-Commission those communications which appear to reveal a consistent pattern of gross and reliably attested violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

293. The procedure to be followed by the Working Group on Communications in deciding on the admissibility of communications was established by Sub-Commission resolution 1 (XXIV) of 13 August 1971, and the Working Group itself was set up in accordance with Sub-Commission resolution 2 (XXIV) of 16 August 1971.

294. At its forty-first session, the Sub-Commission had before it a confidential report on the work of the seventeenth session of the Working Group on Communications, held from 24 July to 4 August 1989 (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/R.1 and Addenda), as well as certain communications which had been kept pending before it since its fortieth session in 1988. The Chairman/Rapporteur of the Working Group on Communications, Mr. Yimer, introduced the report and drew attention, as appropriate, to the material which was pending before the Sub-Commission since its fortieth session.

295. At the outset of the consideration of the item, the Sub-Commission took two decisions of a procedural nature relating to the implementation of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII), namely: (a) a decision to suspend rule 59 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, so as to allow for voting by secret ballot for decisions adopted at its forty-first session under Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII); and (b) a decision to the effect that, henceforth, the Sub-Commission's Working Group on Communications, acting under operative paragraph 1 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII), shall not consider a communication unless the Government concerned has had five months for the submission of a reply, counted from the day on which the communication is transmitted to the Government under Economic and Social Council resolution 728 F (XXVIII).

296. For the text of the decisions, as adopted, see Chapter II, section B, decisions 1989/101 and 1989/102, respectively.

297. Following a discussion which ensued, the Sub-Commission decided, pursuant to paragraph 5 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII), to refer to the Commission on Human Rights for consideration certain particular situations which appear to reveal a consistent pattern of gross and reliably attested violations of human rights. The Sub-Commission decided to defer action on certain communications to its forty-second session in 1990 and to take no action with regard to certain other communications which it had before it.

298. At its 40th meeting (closed part) held on 1 September 1989, the Sub-Commission adopted a report, by which it communicates, confidentially, its decisions to the Commission on Human Rights, in accordance with paragraph 8 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII).

299. The Sub-Commission noted with satisfaction that there is a growing willingness of Governments to reply to communications forwarded to them under Economic and Social Council resolution 728 F (XXVIII). The Sub-Commission welcomes this positive development in international co-operation which is essential for the work of the bodies entrusted with the implementation of the procedure governed by Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII).

300. At its 40th meeting, on 1 September 1989, the Sub-Commission decided on the composition of its Working Group on Communications to meet prior to its forty-second session.

   Bearing in mind the fact that the former Sub-Commission member, Mr. Dimitru Mazilu, submitted a document (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1989/41 and Add.1) which clearly shows that his obvious intention is to use his mission as Special Rapporteur for personal political purposes in relation with the authorities of his country, contrary to the mandate entrusted to him,
