MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DENIAL OF LEGISLATIVE IMMUNITY

Defendants A. Michael Signer, Wesley J. Bellamy, Kathleen M. Galvin, and Kristin L. Szakos, by their new counsel, respectfully move the Court to reconsider its ruling of June 13, 2018, that common law legislative immunity does not apply to their actions at issue in this litigation. As the Court itself recognized in that ruling, all of the councilors' alleged actions were "legislative in nature and function." Ruling 5. Under longstanding common law principles set forth in the attached brief, that characterization entitles the councilors to absolute immunity from suit altogether. And it is imperative to revisit the question of the councilors' immunity now, because deferring the issue amounts to denying immunity—the purpose of which is protection from the burdens of suit altogether. See, e.g., Allen v. Cooper, 895 F.3d 337, 357 (4th Cir. 2018).

Request for Relief

The councilors respectfully request that this Court reconsider its ruling of June 13, 2018, hold them absolutely immune under common law legislative immunity for their legislative actions, and dismiss them from this lawsuit. In the alternative, the councilors ask the Court to hold that they cannot be held personally liable for any damages, attorney's fees, or costs.
