

VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF CHARLOTTESVILLE

FREDERICK W. PAYNE, et al.,
Plaintiffs,

v.

Case No. CL 17 - 145

CITY OF CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA, et al., Defendants.

ORDER: CASE STATUS

The Court having requested a conference on October 30, 2019 for purposes to discuss the status of the case, and Plaintiffs having appeared that same date by counsel, Ralph E. Main, Jr., and S. Braxton Puryear, and Defendants City of Charlottesville and Charlottesville City Council having appeared that date by counsel, Lisa Robertson and Richard E. Milnor; AND

The Court, having previously on September 11-13, 2019, reserved and taken under advisement its decision as to litigation costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, to be awarded to Plaintiffs, the Court hereby finds and confirms that it has not yet disposed of the entire matter before it (including all claims and causes of action against all parties) and none of the Court's orders, judgments, rulings or decrees previously entered in this case, including, without limitation, those entered on October 15, 2019, are final pursuant to Rule 1:1(b) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia for purposes of appeal.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties are hereby advised that, once the Court has rendered its decision on litigation costs, including attorney's fees, to be awarded, that decision will be the final order in the case, in accordance with Virginia Supreme Court Rule 1:1(b).

The Clerk will forward certified copies of this Order to Counsel.
