Subamendment proposed by the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya:

Replace the words "eighteen experts" between the words "consisting of" and the words "of high moral standing and competence" by the words "twenty-three experts."

Paragraph 2(b): Election of members of the Committee

The members of the Committee shall be elected by secret ballot from a list of persons nominated by the States Parties. Each State Party may nominate one person from among its own nationals:
Paragraph 2(c) Election of members of the Committee

The initial election shall be held six months after the date of the entry into force of this Convention. At least three months before the date of each election the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall address a letter to the States Parties inviting them to submit their nominations within two months. The Secretary-General shall prepare a list in alphabetical order of all persons thus nominated, indicating the States Parties which have nominated them, and shall submit it to the States Parties;

Paragraph 2(d) Election of members of the Committee

Elections of the members of the Committee shall be held at a meeting of States Parties convened by the Secretary-General at United Nations Headquarters. At that meeting, for which two thirds of the States Parties shall constitute a quorum, the persons elected to the Committee shall be those nominees who obtain the largest number of votes and an absolute majority of the votes of the representatives of States Parties present and voting:

Paragraph 2(e) Election of members of the Committee

The members of the Committee shall be elected for a term of four years. However, the terms of nine of the members elected at the first election shall expire at the end of two years; immediately after the first election the names of these nine members shall be chosen by lot by the Chairman of the Committee;

For the filling of casual vacancies, the State Party whose expert has ceased to function as a member of the Committee shall appoint another expert from among its nationals, subject to the approval of the Committee;

| Paragraph 2(g) Expenses of members of the Committee | Paragraph 3: Procedure and service of the Committee |

States Parties shall be responsible for the expenses of the members of the Committee while they are in performance of Committee duties.

| Paragraph 3(d): Meetings of the Committee | Paragraph 5: Meetings of the Committee |

The Committee shall normally meet for a period of not more than two weeks annually to consider the reports submitted in accordance with paragraph 4 above.

The meetings of the Committee shall normally be held at United Nations Headquarters or at any other convenient place as determined by the Committee.
Article 19

Paragraph 5: Report of the Ad Hoc Group to the superior body on its activities

The ad hoc Group shall report to the Commission on the Status of Women on its activities and may make general recommendations based on the examination of the reports from the States Parties. The Commission shall transmit the report of the Group, together with its own comments, to the Economic and Social Council.

Paragraph 6: Report of Committee to the superior body on its activities

(a) The Committee shall, through the Economic and Social Council, report annually to the General Assembly on its activities and, on the basis of the examination of the reports from the States Parties, may make suggestions and general recommendations, including recommendations on the advisability of measures likely to contribute to the effective progressive implementation of the present Convention;

(b) The Secretary-General shall transmit the reports of the Committee to the Commission on the Status of Women.

Subamendment to paragraph 6 proposed by Australia

Add additional sentence to the end of the paragraph: "States Parties comment, if any, on the suggestions and recommendations put forward by the Committee shall also be reported to the General Assembly."

Paragraph 4: Report on implementation of the Convention

States Parties undertake to submit to the Secretary-General of the United Nations for consideration by the Committee, a report on the legislative, judicial, administrative or other measures which they have adopted to give effect to the provisions of the Convention and on the progress made in this respect:

(a) within one year after the entry into force for the State concerned; and

(b) thereafter every four years and whenever the Committee so requests.

Reports may indicate factors and difficulties affecting the degree of fulfillment of obligations under the Convention.

Amendment to paragraph 2(a) proposed by New Zealand
A/32/218, para. 154

Substitute the word "shall" for the word "may".

(b) In preparing their reports, the States Parties shall make use of national machinery established to promote the advancement of women and of appropriate non-governmental organizations;

(c) The States Parties shall furnish their reports in stages, in accordance with a programme to be established by the ad hoc Group set up under this article after consultation with the States Parties and the specialized agencies concerned.

Paragraph 7: Reports on the implementation of the Convention

The Economic and Social Council shall submit periodically to the United Nations General Assembly reports with recommendations of a general nature and a summary of the information received from the States Parties to the present Convention and the specialized agencies on the measures taken and the progress made in achieving full observance of the rights recognized in the present Convention.

Paragraph 8: Reports on the implementation of the Convention

The Economic and Social Council may bring to the attention of other organs of the United Nations, their subsidiary organs and specialized agencies concerned with furnishing technical assistance any matters arising out of the reports referred to in this part of the present Convention, which may assist such organs in deciding, each within its field of competence, on the advisability of international measures likely to contribute to the effective progressive implementation of the present Convention.

Paragraph 6: Role of specialized agencies

Specialized agencies shall be entitled to be represented at different stages of the consideration of the implementation of such provisions of the present Convention as fall within the scope of their activities. They shall be entitled to submit reports on the implementation of relevant instruments adopted by them or under their auspices.

Paragraph 7: Role of specialized agencies

Specialized agencies shall be entitled to be represented at the consideration of the implementation of such provisions of the present Convention as fall within the scope of their activities. They shall be entitled to submit reports on the implementation of relevant instruments adopted under their auspices.
