"Taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1982/34 of 7 May 1982, by which the Council authorized the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to establish annually a working group on indigenous populations,

"Taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1984/32 of 12 March 1984,

"Convinced that the establishment of a voluntary trust fund for indigenous populations would constitute a significant development for the future promotion and protection of the human rights of indigenous populations;

"Decides to establish a voluntary trust fund in accordance with the following criteria:

*/ See also chapter II, containing resolutions and decisions adopted by the Commission, some of which make reference to the Economic and Social Council.

Bearing in mind Commission on Human Rights resolution 1985/30 of 11 March 1985,

Considering that the conclusions and recommendations 4/ of the expert appointed by the Secretary-General pursuant to Council resolution 1984/36 of 24 May 1984 concerning his recent mission to Equatorial Guinea indicate that more needs to be done by the United Nations and the Government of Equatorial Guinea to implement and make better use of the plan of action 5/ proposed by the United Nations and accepted by the Government of Equatorial Guinea,

3/ See chap. II, sect. A, resolution 1985/30, and chap. XXII.

4/ E/CN.4/1985/9, chap. II.

5/ Ibid., annex II.

1. Requests the Government of Equatorial Guinea to consider the possibility of continuing to implement the plan of action, taking particular account of the expert's new proposals, especially those concerning amendments to the Fundamental Law of that country;

2. Further requests the Government of Equatorial Guinea to take steps to facilitate the repatriation of all refugees and exiles, including the adoption of measures enabling all citizens of Equatorial Guinea to participate fully in the country's political, economic, social and cultural affairs, thus helping to relieve the shortage of specialized personnel mentioned in the expert's report;

3. Appeals to the Government of Equatorial Guinea to accede to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, among other international instruments concerning human rights and fundamental freedoms;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with the expert's report, to hold discussions with the Government of Equatorial Guinea with a view to carrying out the expert's recommendations regarding assistance to that country, so that the plan of action can be fully implemented in the interests of the full and effective observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms;

5. Further requests the Secretary-General to appoint an expert to co-operate with the Government of Equatorial Guinea in the full implementation of the plan of action proposed by the United Nations and accepted by that Government;

IV. Summary or arbitrary executions 6/

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which guarantees the right to life, liberty and security of person,

Having regard to the provisions of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, which states that every human being has the inherent right to life, that this right shall be protected by law and that no one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his life,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 34/175 of 17 December 1979, in which the General Assembly reaffirmed that mass and flagrant violations of human rights were of special concern to the United Nations and urged the Commission on Human Rights to take timely and effective action in existing and future cases of mass and flagrant violations of human rights,

Mindful of General Assembly resolutions 36/22 of 9 November 1981, 37/182 of 17 December 1982, 38/96 of 16 December 1983, and 39/110 of 14 December 1984,

6/ See chap. II, sect.A, resolution 1985/37, and chap. XII.

Taking note of resolution 1982/13 of 7 September 1982 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, in which the Sub-Commission recommended that effective measures should be adopted to prevent the occurrence of summary or arbitrary executions,

Taking note also of the work done by the Committee on Crime Prevention and Control in the area of summary and arbitrary executions, 7/ including the elaboration of minimum legal guarantees and safeguards to prevent recourse to such extra-legal executions, to be considered by the Seventh United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders in 1985,

Deeply alarmed at the occurrence on a large scale of summary or arbitrary executions, including extra-legal executions,

1. Strongly deplores, once again, the large number of summary or arbitrary executions, including extra-legal executions, which continue to take place in various parts of the world;
2. Appeals urgently to Governments, United Nations bodies, the specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations to take effective action to combat and eliminate summary or arbitrary executions, including extra-legal executions;
3. Takes note with appreciation of the report of Mr. S. Amos Wako, Special Rapporteur; 8/
4. Decides to continue the mandate of the Special Rapporteur, Mr. S. Amos Wako, for another year, in order to enable him to submit further conclusions and recommendations to the Commission;
5. Requests the Special Rapporteur in carrying out his mandate to continue to examine situations of summary or arbitrary executions;
6. Requests the Special Rapporteur in carrying out his mandate to respond effectively to information that comes before him, in particular when a summary or arbitrary execution is imminent or threatened;
7. Considers that the Special Rapporteur in carrying out his mandate should continue to seek and receive information from Governments, United Nations bodies, specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council and to take due account of official declarations and government information which come to his attention;
8. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to provide all necessary assistance to the Special Rapporteur so that he may carry out his mandate effectively;
9. Urges all Governments and all others concerned to co-operate with an assist the Special Rapporteur;

7/ See Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, 1984, Supplement No. 6 (E/1984/16), chap. VII.

8/ E/CN.4/1985/17.

10. V. The administration of justice and the human rights of detainees - Elaboration of a second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty 9/

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting resolution 1984/7 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1985/46 of 14 March 1985 concerning the idea of elaborating a draft of a second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty,

1. Authorizes the Sub-Commission to entrust Mr. M. Bossuyt, as Special Rapporteur, with the task of preparing an analysis concerning the proposal to elaborate a second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty;
2. Requests the Special Rapporteur to take into account the documents considered and the views expressed in the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission in favour of or against the idea of elaborating such a protocol;
3. Invites the Special Rapporteur to present, on the basis of his analysis, recommendations for further consideration by the Sub-Commission at its thirty-ninth session;

Considering that it was not found possible to complete the work on the draft convention during the forty-first session of the Commission on Human Rights,

9/ See chap. II, sect.A, resolution 1985/46, and chap. XVIII.

10/ See chap. II, sect.A, resolution 1985/50, and chap. XIII.

Taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1985/50 of 14 March 1985,

2. Requests the Secretary-General to extend all facilities to the working group for its meeting prior to and during the forty-second session of the Commission to enable it to fulfil its task successfully, and notes the usefulness of providing the working group, in advance of its session, with such working documents as a compilation of all amendments and new proposals, and relevant provisions of other international instruments.

B 12/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolutions 1982/1 B of 11 February 1982, 1983/1 B of 15 February 1983 and 1984/1 B of 20 February 1984 and General Assembly resolutions 3092 A (XXVIII) of 7 December 1973, 32/91 A of 13 December 1977, 33/113 A of 18 December 1978, 34/90 B of 12 December 1979, 35/122 A of 11 December 1980, 36/147 A of 16 December 1981, 37/88 of 10 December 1982, 38/79 B of 15 December 1983 and 39/95 D of 14 December 1984,

12/ Adopted at the 21st meeting, on 19 February 1985, by a roll-call vote of 33 to 1, with 7 abstentions. See chap. IV.

Recalling resolution III on the application of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, adopted by the Twenty-fourth International Conference of the Red Cross held at Manila in November 1981,

Bearing in mind that the provisions of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 13/ must be fully applied in all circumstances to all persons protected by those instruments, without any adverse distinction based on the nature or origin of the armed conflict or on the causes espoused by or attributed to the conflict,

Recognizing that the persistent failure of Israel to apply the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War creates a situation fraught with danger, and considering that it persists in violating human rights,

Taking into account that States parties to the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War undertake, in accordance with article 1 thereof, not only to respect but also to ensure respect for the Convention in all circumstances,

1. Reaffirms that the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War is applicable to all the Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem;

2. Expresses its deep concern at the consequences of Israel's systematic refusal to apply that Convention in all its provisions to Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem;

3. Condemns the failure of Israel to acknowledge the applicability of that Convention to the territories it has occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem;

4. 5. Urges once more all States parties to that Convention to make every effort to ensure respect for and compliance with the provisions thereof in all the Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to bring the present resolution to the attention of all Governments, the competent United Nations organs, the specialized agencies, the regional intergovernmental organizations, the international humanitarian organizations and non-governmental organizations, and to submit a report on progress in its implementation to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session.

13/ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 75, Nos. 970-973.

1985/2. Human rights situation in occupied Syrian territory 14/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Gravely concerned at the fact that Israel is continuing its occupation of the Arab territories, including Palestine and the Syrian Golan Heights, in spite of all the condemnations of Israel that have been expressed due to that occupation,

Recalling its resolution 1984/2 of 20 February 1984,

Noting with severe disapproval, having considered the report of the Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories, 15/ the deteriorating situation in the occupied Arab territories,

Recalling the resolution adopted by the 71st Inter-Parliamentary Conference, held at Geneva from 2 to 7 April 1984, which condemned all Israeli policies and practices relating to the annexation of occupied Arab territories in Jerusalem and the Syrian Golan Heights,

Recalling World Health Assembly resolution WHA37.26 of 17 May 1984, 16/ which condemned Israel for its continuing occupation of the Arab territories, including Palestine, and its continuing arbitrary practices against the Arab population,

Reaffirming that the acquisition of territory by force is inadmissible under the Charter of the United Nations, the principles of international law and the relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 3314 (XXIX) of 14 December 1974, in which the Assembly defined an act of aggression, inter alia, as "the invasion or attack by the armed forces of a State of the territory of another State, or any military occupation, however temporary, resulting from such invasion or attack, or any annexation by the use of force of the territory of another State or part thereof" and provided that "no consideration of whatever nature, whether political, economic, military or otherwise, may serve as a justification for aggression",

Recalling Security Council resolution 497 (1981) of 17 December 1981 and General Assembly resolutions 36/226 B of 17 December 1981, ES-9/1 of 5 February 1982, 37/88 E of 10 December 1982, 37/123 A of 16 December 1982, 14/ Adopted at the 21st meeting, on 19 February 1985, by a roll-call vote of 30 to 1, with 10 abstentions. See chap. IV.

15/ A/39/591.

16/ World Health Organization, Thirty-seventh World Health Assembly, Geneva, 7-17 May 1984, Resolutions and Decisions (WHA37/1984/REC/1), Geneva, 1984.

38/79 D of 15 December 1983 and 39/146 B of 14 December 1984, relating to the Israeli occupation of the Syrian Golan Heights and the imposition of its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian territory,

Reaffirming once more that the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, 17/ continues to apply to the Syrian territory that has been occupied since 1967,

1. Resolutely condemns Israel for its persistent failure to comply with, and its defiance of, Security Council resolution 497 (1981) and all other resolutions relating to the Syrian Golan Heights adopted by the General Assembly and other United Nations bodies, and strongly deprecates Israel's annexation of the occupied Syrian territory;

2. Declares once more that Israel's decision of 14 December 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan Heights, which has resulted in the effective annexation of this territory, is null and void, has no international legal validity or effect, constitutes a grave violation of international law and the Charter of the United Nations and is an affront to the international community;

3. Strongly deplores the negative vote and pro-Israeli position of a permanent member of the Security Council which prevented the Council from adopting against Israel, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, the "appropriate measures" referred to in resolution 497 (1981), adopted unanimously by the Security Council;

4. Deplores the inhuman treatment, terror and practices contrary to human rights which the Israeli occupation authorities continue to apply against Syrian citizens in the occupied Syrian Golan Heights by reason of their refusal of Israeli nationality and in order to force them to carry Israeli identity cards, which practices constitute a flagrant violation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and the relevant resolutions adopted by the Security Council, the General Assembly and other international bodies and also constitute a threat to peace and international security;

5. Reaffirms its request to all States Members of the United Nations not to recognize any jurisdiction, laws or measures established by Israel in respect of occupied Syrian and other Arab territories;

6. Calls upon Israel, the occupying Power, to rescind without delay its decision of 14 December 1981 and to cease its acts of terrorism directed against Syrian citizens in the occupied Syrian Golan Heights in order to impose Israeli citizenship upon them and force them to carry Israeli identity cards, emphasizes that Israel must allow the evacuees from among the Golan population to return to their homes and to recover their property and residences occupied by Israel since 1967, and firmly emphasizes the overriding necessity of the total and unconditional withdrawal by Israel from all Palestinian and Syrian territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, which is an essential prerequisite for the establishment of a just and comprehensive peace in the Middle East;

17/ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 75, No. 973, p. 287.

7. Decides to place on the provisional agenda of its forty-second session as a matter of high priority the item entitled "Question of the violation of human rights in the occupied Arab territories, including Palestine".

1985/3. Situation in Afghanistan 18/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Bearing in mind that one of the fundamental purposes of the United Nations set forth in the Charter of the United Nations is to develop friendly relations among nations based on respect for the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples,

Recalling its resolutions 3 (XXXVI) of 14 February 1980, 13 (XXXVII) of 6 March 1981, 1982/14 of 25 February 1982, 1983/7 of 16 February 1983 and 1984/10 of 29 February 1984,

Reaffirming that the utmost priority must be accorded to ensuring the full implementation of international instruments as well as the resolutions of the United Nations for the eradication of racism and apartheid and the liberation of the people of South Africa and Namibia from the racist and colonial régime, 38/ Adopted at the 32nd meeting, on 26 February 1985, by a roll-call vote of 31 to 5, with 7 abstentions. See chap. VII.

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 3382 (XXX) and 3383 (XXX) of 10 November 1975, 31/33 of 30 November 1976, 33/23 of 29 November 1978, 35/32 of 14 November 1980, 36/172 A to P of 17 December 1981, 37/39 of 3 December 1982 and 39/15 of 23 November 1984,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3171 (XXVIII) of 17 December 1973, relating to permanent sovereignty over natural resources of both developing countries and territories under colonial and foreign domination subjected to the apartheid régime, and resolution 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975,

Taking into account, in particular, the relevant decisions adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its nineteenth ordinary session, held at Addis Ababa from 6 to 12 June 1983, 39/ and by the Council of Ministers of that organization at its fortieth ordinary session, held at Addis Ababa from 27 February to 5 March 1984, 40/

Mindful of resolution 1984/4 of 28 August 1984 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities,

Taking note of the updated report prepared by the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on the adverse consequences for the enjoyment of human rights of political, military, economic and other forms of assistance given to the racist and colonial régime of South Africa, 41/

Reiterating its appreciation of the opinions, restated by the Group of three members of the Commission appointed under article IX of the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid, that the actions of transnational corporations which operate in South Africa come under the definition of the crime of apartheid and that article III of that Convention could apply to the actions of such transnational corporations, 42/

Noting with profound concern that the major Western and other trading partners of South Africa continue to collaborate with the racist régime, disregarding United Nations decisions relating to the total isolation of South Africa, and that their collaboration constitutes the main obstacle to the liquidation of that racist régime and the elimination of the inhuman and criminal system of apartheid,

Deeply concerned about the ever-increasing investment of foreign capital in the exploitation of uranium and wet gas in Namibia and South Africa and alarmed at the continued collaboration of certain Western States and Israel with the racist minority régime of South Africa in the nuclear field,

Considering that such collaboration promotes the illegal occupation of Namibia and gross violations of human rights in southern Africa and enables South Africa to acquire the means necessary to carry out acts of aggression and blackmail against independent African States, thus increasing the threat to peace and international security,

Regretting that the Security Council has not been in a position to take binding decisions to prevent any collaboration in the nuclear field with South Africa,

Conscious of the continuing need to mobilize world public opinion against the political, military, economic and other forms of assistance given to the racist and colonialist régime of South Africa,

1. Reaffirms the inalienable right of the oppressed peoples of South Africa and Namibia to self-determination, independence and enjoyment of the natural resources of their territories;

2. Again reaffirms the right of those same peoples to dispose of those resources for their greater well-being and to obtain just reparation for the exploitation, depletion, loss or depreciation of those natural resources, including reparation for the exploitation and abuse of their human resources;

3. Vigorously condemns the increased assistance rendered by the major Western countries and Israel to South Africa in the political, economic, financial and particularly the military field and expresses its conviction that this assistance constitutes a hostile action against the people of South Africa, Namibia and the neighbouring States since it is bound to strengthen the military capability of the racist régime, and demands that such assistance be immediately terminated;

4. Condemns the continuing nuclear collaboration of certain Western States, Israel and other States with the racist régime of South Africa and urges those States to cease and desist forthwith from supplying South Africa with nuclear equipment and technology, which enable it to develop a nuclear weapon capability, threaten peace and international security, obstruct efforts to eliminate apartheid and maintain its illegal occupation of Namibia;

5. Strongly condemns the activities of all foreign economic interests operating in Namibia under the illegal South African administration which are illegally exploiting the resources of the Territory and demands that transnational corporations engaged in such exploitation comply with all relevant resolutions of the United Nations by immediately refraining from any new investment or activities in Namibia, by withdrawing from the Territory and by putting an end to their co-operation with the illegal South African administration;

6. Calls once again upon all Governments that have not yet done so to take legislative, administrative or other measures in respect of their nationals and the bodies corporate under their jurisdiction that own and operate enterprises in South Africa and Namibia, with a view to putting a stop to their trading, manufacturing and investing activities in the territory of South Africa as well as on the territory of Namibia illegally occupied by the racist Pretoria régime;

7. Calls again upon the same Governments to take measures to end all technological assistance or collaboration in the manufacture of arms and military supplies in South Africa and Namibia, and in particular to cease all collaboration with South Africa in the nuclear field;

8. Rejects all policies which encourage the racist régime of South Africa to intensify its repression of the people of South Africa and Namibia and escalate its acts of aggression against the neighbouring States in defiance of the resolutions and decisions of the United Nations;

9. Welcomes the request of the General Assembly that the Security Council urgently consider complete and mandatory sanctions under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations against the racist, colonial régime of South Africa, in particular:

(a) The prohibition of all technological assistance or collaboration in the manufacture of arms and military supplies in South Africa;

(b) The cessation of all collaboration with South Africa in the nuclear field;

(c) The prohibition of all loans to, and all investments in, South Africa and the cessation of any trade with South Africa;

(d) An embargo on the supply of petroleum, petroleum products and other strategic goods to South Africa;

10. Strongly condemns South Africa for its persistent acts of subversion and aggression against Angola, including the occupation of a part of its territory, and calls upon South Africa to cease all acts of aggression against, and withdraw all its troops from, that country;

11. Demands that South Africa cease forthwith its acts of aggression aimed at undermining the economies and destabilizing the political institutions of neighbouring States;

12. Appeals to all States, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations to extend all possible co-operation to the liberation movements of southern Africa recognized by the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity;

13. Urgently requests all specialized agencies, particularly the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank, to refrain from granting any type of loan or financial assistance to the racist régime of South Africa;

14. Calls upon States, specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations to continue and intensify their campaign to mobilize international public opinion for the enforcement of economic and other sanctions against the Pretoria régime;

15. Expresses its appreciation to the Special Rapporteur of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities for his updated report;

16. Reaffirms that the updating of the report on the adverse consequences for the enjoyment of human rights of political, military, economic and other forms of assistance given to the racist and colonial régime of South Africa is of the greatest importance to the cause of fighting apartheid and other violations of human rights in South Africa and Namibia;

17. Welcomes the decision of the General Assembly to invite the Special Rapporteur:

(a) To continue to update, subject to annual review, the list of banks, transnational corporations and other organizations assisting the racist and colonialist régime of South Africa, giving such details regarding enterprises listed as the Rapporteur may consider necessary and appropriate, including explanations of responses, if any, and to submit the updated report to the General Assembly at its forty-first session;

(b) To use all available material from other United Nations organs, Member States, national liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity, specialized agencies and other intergovernmental or non-governmental organizations, as well as other relevant sources, in order to indicate the volume, nature and adverse human consequences of the assistance given to the racist régime of South Africa;

(c) To initiate direct contacts with the United Nations Centre on Transnational Corporations and the Centre against Apartheid, with a view to consolidating mutual co-operation in updating his report;

18. Calls upon all Governments to disseminate the updated report and give its contents the widest possible publicity;

19. Attaches special importance to the widest possible dissemination of the updated report by the Secretary-General as a United Nations publication, to make it available to learned societies, research centres, universities, political and humanitarian organizations and other interested groups;

20. Requests the Secretary-General to give the Special Rapporteur all the assistance, including adequate travel funds, that he may require in the exercise of his mandate, with a view, in particular, to establishing direct contacts with the United Nations Centre on Transnational Corporations and the Centre against Apartheid, to expanding his work on the annotation of certain selected cases reflected in his present list and to continuing the computerization of future updated lists;

21. Decides to consider the revised report at its forty-second session within the framework of the agenda item "The adverse consequences for the enjoyment of human rights of political, military, economic and other forms of assistance given to colonial and racist régimes in southern Africa".

Reaffirming the view that the activities of transnational corporations operating in South Africa perpetuate the crime of apartheid,

Reaffirming its conviction that ratification of, or accession to, the Convention on a universal basis and implementation of its provisions are necessary for its effectiveness and therefore will contribute to the eradication of the crime of apartheid,

The Commission on Human Rights,

Reaffirming the obligations of States under the Charter of the United Nations to promote universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 39/16 of 23 November 1984 on the Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, in which the Assembly invited the Commission on Human Rights to continue exercising vigilance in identifying actual or emergent situations of racism or racial discrimination, to draw attention to them where discovered and to suggest appropriate remedial measures,

Further recalling General Assembly resolutions 37/6, 38/3 and 39/5, which reaffirm the conviction that, to bring about a durable peace in South-East Asia, there is an urgent need for the international community to find a comprehensive political solution to the Kampuchean problem that will provide for the withdrawal of all foreign forces and ensure respect for the sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and neutral and non-aligned status of Kampuchea, as well as the right of the Kampuchean people to self-determination free from outside interference,

Welcoming the continued effectiveness of the coalition with Samdech Norodom Sihanouk as President of Democratic Kampuchea,

Recognizing that the continuing illegal occupation of Kampuchea by foreign forces not only deprives the people of Kampuchea of the exercise of their right to self-determination but also forces a large number of Kampucheans to flee their own homeland as refugees and displaced persons outside Kampuchea,

Seriously concerned that the continuing illegal occupation of Kampuchea and the reported demographic changes imposed by foreign occupation forces in Kampuchea are a threat to the survival of the Kampuchean people and culture,

Having considered resolutions 13 (XXXIV) of 10 September 1981, and 1982/22 of 8 September 1982 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, by which the Sub-Commission reiterated its recommendation that the Commission on Human Rights should keep the situation of human rights in Kampuchea under continuing review and should call for a pledge by all States not to interfere in the internal political process of Kampuchea in any way whatsoever after the withdrawal of the foreign forces now in that country,

1. Reiterates its condemnation of the persistent occurrence of gross and flagrant violations of human rights in Kampuchea as expressed in its resolutions 11 (XXXVII), 1982/13, 1983/5 and 1984/12;
2. Deplores the continued violations of the fundamental principles of human rights and the Charter of the United Nations, particularly the repeated military attacks by the occupying troops against civilians along the Thai-Kampuchean border, such as those perpetrated between November 1984 and January 1985, which caused an additional massive exodus of over 160,000 Kampuchean civilians into Thailand, and the reported forced demographic changes and displacement of the Kampuchean population;
3. Reaffirms that the continuing illegal occupation of Kampuchea by foreign forces deprives the people of Kampuchea of the exercise of their right to self-determination and constitutes the primary violation of human rights in Kampuchea at present;
4. Emphasizes that the withdrawal of all foreign forces from Kampuchea, the restoration of Kampuchea's independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity, the recognition of the Kampuchean people's right to self-determination and the commitment by all States to non-interference and non-intervention in the internal affairs of Kampuchea are essential components of a just and durable solution to the Kampuchean problem;
5. Strongly reaffirms its call to parties to the present conflict in Kampuchea to cease all hostilities forthwith and for the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of foreign forces from Kampuchea, as reiterated in the Declaration on Kampuchea 52/ adopted on 17 July 1981, in order that:

52/ Report of the International Conference on Kampuchea, New York, 13-17 July 1981 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.81.I.20), annex I.

(a) The Kampuchean people, free from any foreign interference, aggression and coercion, will be able to exercise their fundamental and inalienable human rights in their totality and indivisibility;

(b) The United Nations may be able to offer its services in the field of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Kampuchea;

(c) In the exercise of their fundamental freedoms and inalienable human rights, the Kampuchean people will then be able to choose and determine their own future through free and fair elections under United Nations supervision;

(d) The exercise of the right of all Kampuchean refugees to return to their homeland in safety may be made possible;

Gravely concerned at the persistence and, in some cases, the recrudescence of various slavery-like practices today, in shocking disregard of accepted international standards on human rights,

Considering, in the light of the work of the Sub-Commission and its Working Group on Slavery, that several issues, such as the ill-treatment and exploitation of women and children, debt bondage and the ill-treatment of domestic servants in various situations, have not until very recently received sufficient attention,

2. Requests the Secretary-General to invite States parties to the Slavery Convention, the Supplementary Convention on the Abolition of Slavery, the Slave Trade, and Institutions and Practices Similar to Slavery and the Convention for the Suppression of the Traffic in Persons and of the Exploitation of the Prostitution of Others to report regularly upon their compliance with the provisions of the Conventions;

3. Invites all States, as well as relevant organs and agencies of the United Nations system, competent intergovernmental organizations, including the International Criminal Police Organization, and non-governmental organizations concerned to continue to supply relevant information to the Working Group on Slavery;

5. Requests the Sub-Commission to consider undertaking, at the appropriate time, a study concerning alleged slavery-like practices against women and children, as mentioned in the report of the Working Group on Slavery, indicating ways and means by which women and children subjected to such practices could best be assisted and rehabilitated, for subsequent consideration by the Commission on Human Rights, and also the study on debt bondage, as recommended on previous occasions by the Sub-Commission;

6. Recommends that the struggle against procuring be intensified at the national level and, further, that international measures be adopted with the twofold purpose of dismantling the networks which feed prostitution and repatriating the victims of these networks, as well as extending assistance to them;

7. Recommends that all States concerned should adopt and implement such social and legal measures as are necessary to ensure the orderly and effective reinsertion into society of the victims of prostitution;

8. Recommends that the mass media, including those of the United Nations system, be more widely used to publicize the evils of slavery and slavery-like practices and to make people more aware of their rights and responsibilities in the struggle against such practices;

9. Recommends that Governments be encouraged to avail themselves of the possibility of requesting assistance under the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights, and other programmes as appropriate, for the elimination of slavery, slavery-like practices, and their sequels;

10. Requests the United Nations Children's Fund, the International Labour Organisation, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to give particular attention in their technical assistance programmes to situations where poverty is leading to or perpetuating slavery and slavery-like practices.

3. Further requests the Secretary-General to consider, in co-operation with interested Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, the possibility of using voluntary contributions for the implementation of projects within the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights;

85/ Adopted at the 51st meeting, on 11 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XXII.

86/ A/39/484, annex.

87/ E/CN.4/1985/30.

4. Recommends that, in cases in which technical assistance in the field of human rights is being considered at the request of a Government, due consideration be given to the organization of information and/or training courses for appropriate government personnel in the country concerned on the provisions of international human rights standards and the experience of relevant international organs;

5. Invites the Secretary-General to report to the Commission at its forty-second session on the progress made in the implementation of the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights and to continue considering further suggestions for both long-term and short-term programmes of action in this field.

Considering the need to take into account the importance of assistance designed to help the Government of Uganda in its efforts to continue guaranteeing the enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Mindful of the needs in the areas of human rights indicated by the Government of Uganda in respect of which assistance could be provided,

Noting with satisfaction the efforts of the Government and people of Uganda to restore in that country a democratic system respectful of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Welcoming the endeavours of the Government and people of Uganda aimed at the reconstruction, rehabilitation and development of their country,

Recalling the report of the Secretary-General, 89/ submitted to the Commission at its fortieth session, in which it was indicated that he had continued contacts with the Government of Uganda with a view to ascertaining the most appropriate methods of providing assistance in the field of human rights as called for by Commission resolution 1982/37 and Economic and Social Council decision 1982/139,

The Commission on Human Rights,

Taking note of the report of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities on its thirty-seventh session, 91/

Expressing appreciation for the positive contribution made by the Sub-Commission to the work of the Commission in the promotion and protection of human rights,

Recalling the terms of reference of the Sub-Commission as defined by the Commission at its first and fifth sessions and its particular responsibilities established in Commission resolutions 8 (XXIII) of 16 March 1967 and 17 (XXXVII) of 10 March 1981, Economic and Social Council resolutions 1235 (XLII) of 6 June 1967 and 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970 and the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolutions 1982/23 of 10 March 1982 and 1983/22 of 4 March 1983 concerning the reports of the Sub-Commission on its thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth sessions,

Recalling also its resolution 1983/21 of 4 March 1983 concerning the election of alternate members of the Sub-Commission and its resolution 1984/60 of 15 March 1984,

Recalling further that members of the Sub-Commission and their alternates are elected by the Commission as experts in their individual capacity, 90/ Adopted at the 51st meeting, on 11 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XIX.

91/ E/CN.4/1985/3.

Convinced that it is essential that the impartiality and objectivity of the Sub-Commission and the independent status of its members and their alternates be its guiding principles,

Mindful of the important contribution which non-governmental organizations make to the work of the Sub-Commission,

Noting that the agenda of the Sub-Commission at its recent sessions has been overloaded,

Welcoming the steps taken so far by the Sub-Commission to rationalize and streamline its work,

Reaffirming that the systematic preparation of incisive and well-researched studies and reports is a most important element of the expert work of the Sub-Commission and of its contribution to the work of the Commission,

Welcoming the interest shown by the Sub-Commission in fostering a more substantial dialogue with the Commission,

Believing that it is helpful and appropriate for the Commission, as the parent body, to give guidance to the Sub-Commission in order to ensure the complementarity of its activities with those of the Commission, and to maximize the effectiveness of its expert contributions to the Commission's work,

1. Calls upon the Sub-Commission, in the fulfilment of its functions and duties, to be guided by the resolutions referred to in the preamble to the present resolution;

2. Reaffirms that the Sub-Commission can best assist the Commission by providing it with the different views and perspectives of independent experts, which should be appropriately reflected in the Sub-Commission's reports as well as in the expert studies carried out under its auspices;

3. Draws the attention of the Sub-Commission to the comments and suggestions made at the forty-first session of the Commission and requests the Sub-Commission to take them into account;

4. Stresses that it is important for the fulfilment of the duties of the Sub-Commission that States nominate as members and alternates persons meeting the criteria of independent experts not subject to government instructions in the performance of their functions as members of the Sub-Commission;

5. Emphasizes that alternates are elected to cover situations in which a member is unavoidably absent, and that in the participation of alternates in the deliberations of the Sub-Commission this principle should be taken fully into account;

6. Notes that the Sub-Commission has reviewed its work and made suggestions contained in its resolution 1984/37 of 31 August 1984;

7. Endorses the desirability of better continuity in the work of the Sub-Commission and requests the Secretary-General, after consultation with Member States, to submit a report on existing election procedures which could provide for such continuity to the Commission at its forty-second session, with a view to a decision being taken on the matter;

8. Endorses the list of regular items to be included in the agenda of the Sub-Commission, as contained in section A of annex IV to the Sub-Commission's report, and urges the Sub-Commission to endeavour to limit its agenda to that list and, in accordance with its own suggestion, to consider items biennially whenever possible;

9. Endorses the principle proposed in Sub-Commission resolution 1984/37 that studies undertaken by the Sub-Commission should be completed within a three-year cycle and the plan and schedule for studies for 1985-1989 as contained in section B of annex IV to the Sub-Commission's report;

10. Recommends that, in order to promote an even work-load and the expeditious performance of its tasks, the Sub-Commission should, as a general rule, propose a new study only when a study previously authorized is in the final stage of completion;

11. Requests the Sub-Commission to give due consideration to recommendations for the printing and distribution of studies, taking into account the long-term plan for studies for 1985-1989 and the availability of financial resources;

12. Requests the Sub-Commission to give priority to those topics on which standards are being prepared, in accordance with decisions taken by the Commission;

13. Invites the Sub-Commission to give due consideration to draft resolutions proposed for adoption and to seek the widest possible measure of agreement on them, bearing in mind that such resolutions should reflect thorough discussion and should be consistent with the role of the Sub-Commission as a body of independent experts;

14. Requests the Sub-Commission to complete the review of its work initiated at its thirty-seventh session and to submit concrete suggestions and recommendations as appropriate, relating especially to the further rationalization of its work, to the Commission at its forty-second session;

15. Requests the Secretary-General to study additional means whereby the Centre for Human Rights may provide the services necessary for the annual sessions of the Sub-Commission and the effective implementation of its five-year programme of work.

1985/29. United Nations voluntary fund for indigenous populations 92/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolutions 1982/19 of 10 March 1982 and 1983/23 of 4 March 1983 regarding the human rights and fundamental freedoms of indigenous populations, and taking into account Economic and Social Council resolution 1296 (XLIV) of 23 May 1968 entitled "Arrangements for consultation with non-governmental organizations",

2. Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

1985/30. Situation in Equatorial Guinea 93/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolutions 15 (XXXV) of 13 March 1979, 33 (XXXVI) of 11 March 1980, 31 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981, 1982/34 of 11 March 1982, 1983/32 of 8 March 1983 and 1984/51 of 14 March 1984 concerning the situation of human rights in Equatorial Guinea,

Bearing in mind that the Economic and Social Council, in its resolution 1982/36 of 7 May 1982, took note of the plan of action proposed by the United Nations and accepted by the Government of Equatorial Guinea, which is based on recommendations submitted by Mr. Fernando Volio Jiménez, the expert appointed by the Secretary-General pursuant to Commission on Human Rights resolution 33 (XXXVI),

Further recalling that the Economic and Social Council, in its resolution 1982/36, requested the Secretary-General, with expert assistance if necessary, to discuss with the Government of Equatorial Guinea the role that the United Nations could play in the implementation of the plan of action and invited the Government of Equatorial Guinea to co-operate with the Secretary-General in that respect,

1. Takes note of the note by the Secretary-General 94/ transmitting the report submitted by the expert, Mr. Fernando Volio Jiménez, on his mission to Equatorial Guinea in November 1984;
2. Further notes the improvement in the observance of human rights in Equatorial Guinea which can be seen from the expert's report;

1985/31. Measures to be taken against all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror, systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences 95/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful of the determination proclaimed by the peoples of the world in the Charter of the United Nations to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid and other relevant international instruments,

Recalling also the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, according to which the subjection of peoples to alien subjugation, domination and exploitation constitutes a denial of fundamental human rights, is contrary to the Charter of the United Nations and is an impediment to the promotion of world peace and co-operation,

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 39/114 of 14 December 1984 entitled "Measures to be taken against Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist activities and all other forms of totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial intolerance, hatred and terror",

Recalling also its resolutions 1983/28 of 7 March 1983 and 1984/42 of 12 March 1984,

Recalling also the close relationship between all totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred and terror and systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Emphasizing that all such ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror, systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences, may jeopardize world peace, constitute obstacles to friendly relations between States and the realization of human rights and fundamental freedoms, 95/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XXI.

Deeply concerned that in the contemporary world there continue to exist racist, colonialist and other repressive régimes which, in their implementation of totalitarian ideologies and practices such as nazism and fascism, practise mass and flagrant violations of human rights and deprive the oppressed peoples of their right to self-determination and free development,

Deeply alarmed at the existence and intensification of activities of groups and organizations which propagate totalitarian ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, which violate human rights and fundamental freedoms, in particular the rights to self-determination, to life, liberty and security of person and to freedom from discrimination, and which thereby threaten the purposes and principles laid down in the Charter of the United Nations,

Noting that the totalitarian entities and régimes based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred or terror or systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms pursue the purpose of ensuring their domination and their economic and social privileges at the expense of other peoples or racial or ethnic groups, which they suppress and exploit,

Bearing in mind that precisely these purposes were pursued by the Nazi and Fascist régimes which plunged mankind into the Second World War,

Expressing also its concern that totalitarian ideologies and practices are applied by other repressive régimes, based on the systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Emphasizing that the doctrines of racial or ethnic superiority, on which the totalitarian entities and régimes are based, contradict the spirit and principles of the United Nations and that the realization of such doctrines in practice leads to wars, mass and flagrant violations of human rights and crimes against humanity, such as genocide, and creates obstacles for friendly relations among nations and for social progress in the world,

Reaffirming that all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic and other exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences, are incompatible with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity, the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid and other relevant international instruments,

Mindful of the principles of international co-operation in the detection, arrest, extradition and punishment of persons guilty of war crimes and crimes against humanity set forth in General Assembly resolution 3074 (XXVIII) of 3 December 1973,

Acknowledging with satisfaction the fact that many States have established systems based on the inherent dignity and the equal and inalienable rights of all human beings, which are the basis of democratic society and the best bulwark against totalitarian ideologies and practices,

Noting that, nevertheless, in the contemporary world there continue to exist various forms of totalitarian ideologies and practices which entail contempt for the individual or a denial of the intrinsic dignity and equality of all human beings and of equality of opportunity in civil, political, economic, social and cultural spheres,

Firmly convinced that the best bulwark against nazism and racial discrimination is the establishment and maintenance of democratic institutions, that the existence of genuine political, social and economic democracy is an effective vaccine and an equally effective antidote against the formation or development of Nazi movements and that a political system which is based on freedom and effective participation by the people in the conduct of public affairs, and under which economic and social conditions are such as to ensure a decent standard of living for the population, makes it impossible for fascism, nazism or other ideologies based on racism and racial discrimination, hatred or terror to succeed.

Acknowledging with satisfaction the fact that many States have set up legal regulations which are designed to prevent the activities of Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist groups and organizations,

1. Again condemns all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror, systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences;

2. Expresses its determination to resist all totalitarian ideologies, and especially their practices, which deprive people of basic human rights and fundamental freedoms and of equality of opportunity;

3. Notes in particular the totalitarian nature of racist régimes which constitutes a domination based on doctrines of racial superiority and enslavement;

4. Considers that the pursuit of all totalitarian ideologies and practices as described in paragraphs 1 and 2 above represents a serious threat to the exercise of many fundamental human rights, including the right to life, liberty and security of person;

5. Considers further that the best defence against all totalitarian ideologies lies in free and effective popular participation in democratic institutions, based on respect for the human rights proclaimed in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other relevant international instruments;

6. Invites Member States to adopt, in accordance with their national constitutional systems and with the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, as a matter of high priority, measures declaring punishable by law any dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or hatred and of war propaganda, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist ideologies;

7. Urges all States to draw attention to the threats to democratic institutions by the above-mentioned ideologies and practices and to consider taking measures, in accordance with their national constitutional systems and with the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, to prohibit or otherwise deter activities of groups or organizations or whoever is practising those ideologies;

8. Urges all States to observe strictly in their international relations the purposes and principles laid down in the Charter of the United Nations, which are aimed at maintaining international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations based on respect for the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples, and achieving international co-operation in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all;

9. Appeals to all States that have not yet done so to ratify, accede to or give serious consideration to acceding to the International Covenants on Human Rights, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity and the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid;

10. Calls upon all States to take the measures necessary to ensure the thorough investigation and the detection, arrest, extradition and punishment of all war criminals and persons guilty of crimes against humanity who have not yet been brought before a court and paid an appropriate penalty;

11. Calls upon the appropriate specialized agencies as well as intergovernmental and international non-governmental organizations to initiate or intensify measures against all totalitarian ideologies and practices, including those described in paragraphs 1 and 2 above;

12. Requests all States to submit to the Secretary-General their comments and information on the implementation of General Assembly resolution 39/114 and of the present resolution;

13. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on this question to the Commission at its forty-second session, taking into account the comments and information received from States under paragraph 12 above;

14. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its forty-second session an item entitled "Measures to be taken against all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror, systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences".

1985/32. Fortieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War 96/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Solemnly commemorating the fortieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War and the founding of the United Nations, 96/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. III.

Noting General Assembly resolution 39/114 of 14 December 1984, in which the General Assembly declared 8 and 9 May 1985 the days of the fortieth anniversary of victory over nazism and fascism in the Second World War and the struggle against them,

Recalling that the United Nations embodies the resolve of peoples to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and the dignity and worth of the human person,

1. Pays a tribute of respect to the people whose great efforts and sufferings led to the end of the Second World War and to the establishment of the United Nations 40 years ago;

2. Considers that the solemn celebration by all States of this anniversary should serve the promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms and in particular the fundamental right to life, liberty and security of person.

1985/33. Torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment 97/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Having regard to article 5 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and article 7 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, both of which provide that no one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment,

Recalling the Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Being Subjected to Torture or Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, adopted by the General Assembly by its resolution 3452 (XXX) of 9 December 1975,

Seriously concerned about the alarming number of reported cases of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment taking place in various parts of the world,

Welcoming the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, adopted by the General Assembly by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984,

Determined to promote the full implementation of the prohibition under international and national law of the practice of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment,

1. Decides to appoint for one year a special rapporteur to examine questions relevant to torture;

97/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 30 to none, with 12 abstentions. See chap. X.

2. Requests the Chairman of the Commission to appoint, after consultation with the other members of the Bureau, an individual of recognized international standing as special rapporteur;

3. Decides further that the special rapporteur, in carrying out his mandate, shall seek and receive credible and reliable information from Governments, as well as specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to appeal to all Governments to co-operate with and assist the special rapporteur in the performance of his tasks and to furnish all information requested;

5. Further requests the Secretary-General to provide all necessary assistance to the special rapporteur;

6. Invites the special rapporteur, in carrying out his mandate, to bear in mind the need to be able to respond effectively to credible and reliable information that comes before him and to carry out his work with discretion;

7. Requests the special rapporteur to submit a comprehensive report to the Commission at its forty-second session on his activities regarding the question of torture, including the occurrence and extent of its practice, together with his conclusions and recommendations;

8. Decides to consider this question again at its forty-second session under the appropriate subitem of the item entitled "Question of the human rights of all persons subjected to any form of detention or imprisonment".

1985/34. Advisory services in the field of human rights -
Assistance to the Government of Bolivia 98/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1984/43 of 13 March 1984 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1984/32 of 24 May 1984, both concerning the request by the Government of Bolivia for assistance in seeking to strengthen human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country,

Recalling that in those resolutions the Secretary-General was requested to examine, under the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights, ways and means for rapid implementation of the projects suggested by the Special Envoy of the Commission on Human Rights in his report, considered by the Commission at its fortieth session, 98/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XXII.

Bearing in mind that, because of the economic and social situation that Bolivia is now experiencing, such assistance in the field of human rights should be provided as speedily as possible,

Bearing in mind that an important aspect of strengthening fundamental freedoms in Bolivia touches on the sphere of enforced or involuntary disappearances and that, consequently, account should be taken of the recommendation made by the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances to furnish technical assistance to the Government of Bolivia in this matter,

1. Urges the Secretary-General rapidly to implement the projects mentioned in paragraphs 4 and 9 of his report; 99/

2. Requests the Secretary-General to communicate to Governments and international organizations the following projects, submitted to the Special Envoy of the Commission on Human Rights and discussed by him, and invites them to consider the assistance that can be provided to the Government of Bolivia and be implemented:

(a) The project submitted by the Ministry of Education and Culture to introduce the teaching of human rights as a subject at all levels of education;

(b) The project submitted by the University of Bolivia to create a chair of human rights in the various higher education centres;

(c) An increase in the number of human rights fellowships in Bolivia;

(d) The project for reform of the national prison system and for training specialized personnel;

(e) Technical assistance in the matter of enforced or involuntary disappearances;

(f) The project submitted by the Ministry of Health requesting assistance in improving basic economic conditions and in overcoming the problems of the health sector, and the project dealing with child health centres;

(g) The project submitted by the Ministry of Planning and Co-ordination entitled "Extreme poverty";

3. Again invites all Member States, United Nations organizations and non-governmental organizations to support Bolivia in its efforts to strengthen the enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms;

4. Requests the Centre for Human Rights to maintain contacts on the setting in motion of the present resolution with the agencies responsible for the various assistance programmes, such as the International Labour Organisation, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Health Organization, with a view to providing the Government of Bolivia with the required assistance in this field.

99/ E/CN.4/1985/31.

The Commission on Human Rights,

Guided by the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the humanitarian rules set out in the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 101/ and Additional Protocols I and II thereto, 102/

Reaffirming that all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and to fulfil the obligations they have undertaken under the relevant international instruments,

Reaffirming also that it is one of the essential tasks of the United Nations to ensure the observance, promotion and strengthening of human rights among the Member States,

Recalling that in resolutions 35/192 of 15 December 1980, 36/155 of 16 December 1981, 37/185 of 17 December 1982, 38/101 of 16 December 1983 and 39/119 of 14 December 1984, the General Assembly expressed its deep concern at the situation of human rights in El Salvador,

Bearing in mind Commission resolution 32 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981, in which it decided to appoint a special representative on the situation of human rights in El Salvador, and its resolutions 1982/28 of 11 March 1982, 1983/29 of 8 March 1983 and 1984/52 of 14 March 1984, whereby it extended the mandate of the Special Representative for another year, requesting him to report, inter alia, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-first session,

Taking note of the report prepared by the Special Representative 103/ at the request of the Commission on Human Rights in resolution 1984/52,

Taking into account that the President of El Salvador stated before the General Assembly that the main task of the lawful mandate he was given by the elections of 6 May 1984 is to achieve social harmony and internal peace in El Salvador, and noting with satisfaction, like the Special Representative, the obvious desire of the new Government to establish a democracy governed by the rule of law and guaranteeing full respect for human rights, thereby helping to create an atmosphere that is more conducive to national reconciliation,

Noting that the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights again points out in his report that, owing to the adoption of a new government policy, the number of human rights violations has markedly decreased, which is a welcome development, but that a situation of war and generalized violence nevertheless continues to exist in El Salvador, that there are still serious violations of human rights, that the number of attacks on life and the economic structure remains a cause for concern and that the capacity of the legal system to investigate and punish human rights violations committed in the country continues to be patently inadequate,

Considering that there is an armed conflict not of an international character in El Salvador in which the Government of that country and the guerrilla forces are under an obligation to apply the minimum standard of protection of human rights and of humane treatment provided for in article 3 common to the 1949 Geneva Conventions and in Additional Protocol II of 1977, 104/

Bearing in mind also the praiseworthy humanitarian work carried out in El Salvador by the International Committee of the Red Cross,

Recognizing that dialogue is the best way, in a spirit of generosity and openness, to achieve a negotiated comprehensive political settlement that will promote genuine national reconciliation, put an end to the suffering of the Salvadorian people and stem the growing tide of internal refugees and displaced persons,

Considering that the two rounds of conversation held to date by the Government of El Salvador and the insurgent forces are an important step forward for the solution of the political crisis in El Salvador and concerned at the fact that some minority sectors in the country are opposed to the continuation of the dialogue, while others do not understand its purpose,

Noting with satisfaction that the parties to the rounds of conversation held at La Palma have decided, inter alia, to establish appropriate machinery to find suitable ways and means of achieving peace with the participation of all sectors of national life,

Aware that the sensitive process of political negotiation which has been initiated in El Salvador may be hampered if any outside assistance is provided to prolong and intensify the war,

1. Commends the Special Representative for his report on the situation of human rights in El Salvador;

2. Expresses its deep concern at the fact that, despite the sharp drop in the number of political assassinations, detentions and disappearances, no doubt as a result of the adoption of a new government policy, as pointed out by the Special Representative, many violations of human rights continue to be committed and the number of attacks on life and the economic structure, with the resulting suffering for the Salvadorian people, is still a cause for concern;

104/ International Committee of the Red Cross, Protocols Additional to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, Geneva, 1977, p. 89.

3. Welcomes the recent measures taken to humanize the armed conflict, such as the release and exchange of prisoners of war and the recent Christmas and New Year's truce, as well as other measures, such as the exchange of prisoners, which have been implemented with the co-operation of humanitarian organizations;
4. Appeals to all States to do everything in their power to support the implementation of such measures and recommends that, until peace is achieved in El Salvador, the Government of that country and the guerrilla forces should humanize the conflict by complying fully with the Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the Additional Protocols of 1977;
5. Reiterates its appeal to the Government of El Salvador and the opposition forces to co-operate fully with the humanitarian organizations dedicated to alleviating the suffering of the civilian population, wherever these organizations operate;
6. Once again recognizes the permanent and inalienable right of the Salvadorian people freely to determine its political, economic and social future, without interference from outside, through a genuine democratic process in an atmosphere free from intimidation and terror;
7. Welcomes with satisfaction the invitation to a dialogue made in the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session by the President of El Salvador on behalf of his Government, as well as the favourable reply to that invitation by the Frente Democrático Revolucionario-Frente Farabundo Martí para la Liberación Nacional;
8. Urges the parties concerned to continue to hold a serious and realistic dialogue, in a spirit of generosity and openness, with a view to achieving as soon as possible a negotiated solution which will put an end to the armed conflict and help to institutionalize and strengthen the democratic system on the basis of the full exercise of civil and political rights and economic, social and cultural rights by all Salvadorians;
9. Requests all States to refrain from any type of intervention in the internal situation in El Salvador that might prolong and intensify the armed conflict, and to encourage the continuation of the dialogue until a just and lasting peace is achieved;
10. Deeply deplores the lack of any perceptible change in the capacity of the judicial system in El Salvador and again urges the competent authorities to speed up the process of reform of the Salvadorian penal judicial system with a view to punishing speedily and effectively those responsible for the serious violations of human rights which have been and are still being committed in the country;
11. Recommends the continuation and intensification of the reforms necessary in El Salvador, including the effective application of agrarian reform, for the solution of the economic and social problems which are the root cause of the internal conflict in that country;
12. Calls upon the competent authorities in El Salvador to amend any legislation or other measures which are incompatible with the provisions contained in the international instruments on human rights binding on the Government of that country;

13. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Representative for another year, in the hope that the human rights situation in El Salvador will have improved satisfactorily;

14. Requests the Special Representative to submit his report on further developments in the situation of human rights in El Salvador to the General Assembly at its fortieth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session;

15. Renews its appeal to the Government of El Salvador and to the other parties concerned to continue to extend their co-operation to the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights;

16. Requests the Secretary-General to give all necessary assistance to the Special Representative of the Commission;

17. Decides to consider the question of human rights in El Salvador as a priority topic at its forty-second session.

The Commission on Human Rights,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Recalling also General Assembly resolutions 38/100 of 16 December 1983 and 39/120 of 14 December 1984, in which the Assembly reiterated its deep concern at the continuing grave and widespread violations of human rights in Guatemala,

Mindful of resolution 1984/23 of 29 August 1984 of the Sub-Commission on the Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, in which the Sub-Commission recognized that in Guatemala there existed an armed conflict of a non-international character, which stemmed from economic, social and political factors of a structural nature,

Welcoming the elections to the Constituent Assembly held in July 1984, which marked the first step of the process for the return of democracy and the institution of a new constitutional government, now scheduled for January 1986, and welcoming the invitation of the Government of Guatemala to political exiles to return to their country and take part in the electoral process with guarantees of full and open participation,

Affirming the importance of creating conditions in which the electoral process can be pursued in a climate free from intimidation and terror,

105/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 32 to none, with 10 abstentions. See Chap. XII.

Appreciating the co-operation of the Government of Guatemala with the Special Rapporteur in the fulfilment of his mandate and noting with satisfaction that a list of cases dealt with by the special tribunals has been given to the Special Rapporteur,

Also appreciating the invitation by the Government of Guatemala to certain international human rights groups to visit Guatemala and assess the situation of human rights there,

Having carefully examined the report of the Special Rapporteur 106/ and other reliable information and reports, which reveal that, although improvements have been noted in some areas, serious and systematic violations of human rights continue to occur in Guatemala,

Alarmed at the continuation of politically motivated violence, particularly killings and kidnappings, and at the fact that many persons continue to disappear,

1. Takes note of the final report of the Special Rapporteur and welcomes the recommendations contained therein;

2. Expresses once more its deep concern at the continuing serious and systematic violation of human rights in Guatemala, particularly the acts of violence against non-combatants, the disappearances, killings, acts of torture and the extrajudicial executions;

3. Further expresses its profound concern at restrictive measures which limit the freedoms of rural and indigenous populations, notably their displacement and relocation in development centres and forced participation in civilian patrols, organized and controlled by the armed forces;

4. Urges the Government of Guatemala to take effective measures to ensure that all its authorities and agencies, including its security forces, fully respect human rights and fundamental freedoms, and also urges all other parties concerned fully to respect human rights and fundamental freedoms;

5. Reiterates its appeal to all parties concerned in Guatemala to ensure the application of the relevant norms of international humanitarian law applicable in armed conflicts of a non-international character;

6. Urges once again the Government of Guatemala to establish the necessary conditions to ensure the independence of the judiciary and to enable it to uphold the rule of law, including the right of habeas corpus, and to prosecute and punish speedily and effectively those, including members of the military and security forces, found responsible for violations of human rights;

7. Reiterates its appeal to the Government of Guatemala to allow an independent and impartial body to function in the country to monitor and investigate alleged human rights violations;

8. Appeals once again to the Government of Guatemala to allow international humanitarian organizations to render their assistance in investigating the fate of persons who have disappeared with a view to informing their relatives of their whereabouts, to visit detainees or prisoners and to bring assistance to the civilian population in areas of conflict;

106/ E/CN.4/1985/19.

9. Welcomes the dialogue between the Government of Guatemala and the Mutual Support group of the families of the disappeared, and the subsequent establishment of a commission to investigate and clarify the fate of persons who have been subjected to involuntary or forced disappearance and are still unaccounted for;

10. Urges the commission referred to in paragraph 9 above to act with vigour and expediency in its investigation of disappearances and calls upon all parties, particularly the police and army, to co-operate fully with that commission;

11. Requests the Government of Guatemala to publish the list of cases which fell within the jurisdiction of the special tribunals and to indicate the outcome of each case;

12. Requests all States to refrain from intervening in any way in the internal situation of Guatemala which could prolong or worsen the conflict and the situation of human rights violations in that country;

13. Appeals to the Government of Guatemala to adhere to its new time-table for the return to democracy and to ensure conditions which would allow the full participation of all in the political process, and also appeals to all parties in the conflict to create a climate free from intimidation and terror;

14. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for another year to enable him to continue his thorough study of the human rights situation in Guatemala and requests him to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its fortieth session and a final report to the Commission at its forty-second session;

15. Further requests the Special Rapporteur, in preparing his report, to continue to take into account information from all reliable sources, to assess in particular allegations of politically motivated killings, disappearances, acts of torture, extrajudicial executions and confinement in clandestine prisons, to draw conclusions from his findings and to make further recommendations designed to help bring about improvements in the situation of human rights in Guatemala;

16. Invites the Government of Guatemala and other parties concerned to extend their full co-operation to the Special Rapporteur of the Commission;

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

[For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution IV.]

1985/38. Question of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Afghanistan 108/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur,

Emphasizing the obligation of all Governments to respect and protect human rights and to fulfil the responsibilities they have assumed under various international instruments,

Recalling its resolution 1984/55 of 15 March 1984, in which it expressed its concern and anxiety at the continuing presence of foreign forces in Afghanistan and the reports of extensive human rights violations,

Recalling also Economic and Social Council resolution 1984/37 of 24 May 1984, in which the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights was requested to appoint a special rapporteur to examine the human rights situation in Afghanistan,

Recalling further resolution 1984/6 of 28 August 1984 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, in which the Commission was requested urgently to call on the authorities in Afghanistan to put an end to the bombardment of the civilian population, and to ask its Special Rapporteur to investigate the human and material losses resulting from such bombardments,

Having carefully examined the report of the Special Rapporteur on the human rights situation in Afghanistan, 109/ which reveals grave and massive violations of fundamental human rights in that country,

Deploring the refusal of the Afghan authorities to co-operate with the Special Rapporteur,

1. Commends the Special Rapporteur for his report on the human rights situation in Afghanistan;

108/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 26 to 8, with 8 abstentions. See chap. XII.

1985/39. Human rights situation in the Islamic Republic of Iran 110/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Reaffirming that all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and to fulfil the obligations they have undertaken under the various international instruments in this field,

Recalling its resolutions 1982/27 of 11 March 1982 and 1983/34 of 8 March 1983,

Recalling in particular its resolution 1984/54 of 14 March 1984, in which the Commission expressed deep concern at the continuing serious violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the Islamic Republic of Iran as reflected in the report of the Secretary-General, 111/ and particularly at the evidence of summary and arbitrary executions, torture, detention without trial, religious intolerance and persecution, in particular of the Baha'is, and the lack of an independent judiciary and other recognized safeguards for a fair trial, and requested the appointment of a special representative,

Mindful of resolutions 1983/14 of 5 September 1983 and 1984/14 of 29 August 1984 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, in which the Sub-Commission expressed alarm at reports of continuing gross violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in the Islamic Republic of Iran,

Taking note of relevant sections in the report of the Special Rapporteur on summary or arbitrary executions, 112/

Welcoming the appointment of Mr. Andrés Aguilar as Special Representative of the Commission with a mandate to establish contacts with the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran and to make a thorough study of the human rights situation in that country in accordance with Commission resolution 1984/54,

Noting that the time available to the Special Representative did not permit him to make the thorough study requested by the Commission,

Regretting that the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran has not yet extended its co-operation to the Commission on Human Rights and its Special Representative,

Taking into account the number and gravity of the alleged violations of human rights to which the Special Representative refers in his preliminary report, 113/

1. Thanks the Special Representative for his preliminary report;
2. Endorses the general observations of the Special Representative contained in his preliminary report, in particular the conclusion that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights contain norms which represent universal standards of conduct for all peoples and all nations;
3. Expresses its deep concern at the number and gravity of the alleged violations of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran to which the Special Representative refers in his preliminary report, and, in particular, those related to the right to life, the right to freedom from torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, the right to liberty and security of person and to freedom from arbitrary arrest or detention, the right to a fair trial, the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion and to freedom of expression and the right of religious minorities to profess and practise their own religion;

1985/40. Human rights and mass exoduses 114/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful of its general humanitarian mandate under the Charter of the United Nations to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Deeply disturbed by the continuing scale and magnitude of exoduses of refugees and displacements of population in many regions of the world and at the human suffering of millions of refugees and displaced persons,

Conscious of the fact that human rights violations are one of the multiple and complex factors causing mass exoduses of refugees, as indicated in the study of the Special Rapporteur on this subject, 115/

114/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XII.

115/ E/CN.4/1503

Considering the efforts which have been made to address this subject within the United Nations,

Deeply preoccupied by the increasingly heavy burden being imposed, particularly upon developing countries with limited resources of their own, and upon the international community as a whole, by these sudden mass exoduses and displacements of population,

Stressing the need for international co-operation aimed at the averting of new massive flows of refugees parallel with the provision of durable solutions to actual refugee situations,

Noting again the report of the Secretary-General on human rights and mass exoduses, 116/

Recalling its resolutions 30 (XXXVI) of 11 March 1980, 29 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981, 1982/32 of 11 March 1982, 1983/35 of 8 March 1983 and 1984/49 of 14 March 1984, and General Assembly resolutions 35/196 of 15 December 1980, 37/186 of 17 December 1982, 38/103 of 16 December 1983 and 39/117 of 14 December 1984,

Welcoming the steps taken by the Secretary-General to establish an early warning system as mentioned in his report on the work of the Organization, 117/

1. Welcomes the steps taken so far by the United Nations to examine the problem of massive outflows of refugees and displaced persons in all its aspects, including its root causes;

2. Invites all Governments, as well as international organizations, to intensify their co-operation and assistance in world-wide efforts to address the serious problem of mass exoduses of refugees and displaced persons;

3. Welcomes the interest which the Secretary-General has taken in this question, including the designation of special representatives on humanitarian issues on an ad hoc basis, and reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to follow closely developments in the area of human rights and mass exoduses;

4. Encourages the efforts being undertaken by the Secretary-General to enable the United Nations to anticipate and react more adequately and speedily to cases requiring humanitarian assistance, as mentioned in the Secretary-General's report on the work of the Organization;

116/ A/38/538.

117/ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-ninth Session, Supplement No. 1 (A/39/1).

5. Requests the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to keep in mind the need to consider the relationship between violations of human rights and mass exoduses of refugees in its consideration of situations of violations of human rights and to make recommendations on this subject;

6. Recommends that special rapporteurs and special representatives studying situations of violations of human rights pay attention when appropriate to problems resulting in mass exoduses of populations;

7. Decides to keep under review at its forty-second session the problem of human rights and mass exoduses.

1985/41. The situation in southern Lebanon 118/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Gravely concerned by Israeli action in southern Lebanon which constitutes a flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, 119/ the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the principles of international law and the objectives of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Strongly condemns Israel for its human rights violations: assassinations, mass arrests among the civilian population, abductions, demolition of houses, desecration of places of worship and other inhuman acts;

2. Calls on Israel to put an immediate end to such repressive practices and to release persons detained and abducted, and demands the immediate and total withdrawal of Israel from southern Lebanon, in accordance with Security Council resolution 509 (1982) of 6 June 1982;

3. Calls on those Governments which continue to give Israel economic, political and military aid to put an end to support to Israel which encouraged it to persevere with its policy of aggression, expansion and colonial settlements;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to monitor the implementation of the present resolution and to submit to the General Assembly a report on the results of his efforts in that regard.

118/ Adopted at the 55th meeting, on 13 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 24 to 1, with 16 abstentions. See chap. XII.

119/ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 75, No. 973, p. 287.

1985/42. Question of the realization in all countries of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and in the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, and study of special problems which the developing countries face in their efforts to achieve these human rights 120/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful of the obligation of States under the Charter of the United Nations to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Noting that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights reaffirm the right of everyone to a social system and an international order under which economic, social, cultural, civil and political rights can be fully exercised,

Recalling the Proclamation of Teheran, 121/ according to which human rights and fundamental freedoms are indivisible, the full realization of civil and political rights without the enjoyment of economic, social and cultural rights is impossible and the achievement of lasting progress in the implementation of human rights is dependent upon sound and effective national and international policies of economic and social development,

Recalling also that, in the Declaration on Social Progress and Development, 122/ it is considered that respect for the dignity and value of the human person is fundamental to social progress and development and it is stipulated that social progress and development shall ensure the promotion of human rights and social justice,

Recognizing that the persistence of colonialism, aggression and threats against national sovereignty, national unity and territorial integrity, foreign occupation, apartheid and all forms of discrimination and domination, as well as the refusal to recognize the fundamental right of every nation to exercise full sovereignty over its national wealth and resources, constitute essential obstacles to the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

Convinced that equal attention and urgent consideration should be given to the implementation, promotion and protection of civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights,

Recognizing that the realization of the right to development will promote the enjoyment of economic, social and cultural rights,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 32/130 of 16 December 1977 and 34/46 of 23 November 1979, as well as Commission on Human Rights resolution 4 (XXXIII) of 21 February 1977 on the realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

120/ Adopted at the 56th meeting, on 14 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 29 to 6, with 5 abstentions. See chap. VIII.

121/ Final Act of the International Conference on Human Rights, Teheran, 22 April to 13 May 1968 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.68.XIV.2), chap. II.

122/ General Assembly resolution 2542 (XXIV).

Concerned at the worsening situation with regard to the implementation of economic, social and cultural rights in many countries of the world,

Reaffirming that there is a close relationship between disarmament and development, that progress in the field of disarmament would considerably promote progress in the field of development and that resources released through disarmament measures should be devoted to the economic and social development and well-being of all peoples and in particular those of the developing countries,

Mindful that the promotion and implementation of economic, social and cultural rights and the obstacles to their realization have not received sufficient attention within the framework of the Organization's organs,

1. Appeals to all States to pursue a policy directed towards the implementation of civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights;
2. Calls upon all States to co-operate with each other in creating such national and international conditions as are conducive to the enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms;

4. Invites the Directors-General of the International Labour Organisation, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Health Organization to draw up and submit to the Commission at its forty-second session a concise report on the state of implementation of the rights to work, food, education and health, respectively, so that the Commission can undertake a global assessment of the progress being made and the problems being encountered in the implementation of these human rights;
5. Requests the Sub-Commission to examine the conclusions and recommendations of the report of the Commission entitled The Realization of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights: Problems, Policies, Progress 123/ and to submit to the Commission at its forty-third session an updated version of these conclusions and recommendations taking into account the latest developments in this field.

1985/43. The right to development 124/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Considering the obligation of States under the Charter of the United Nations to promote universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Considering also the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, 123/ United Nations publication, Sales No. E.75.XIV.2, part six, chaps. II and III.

124/ Adopted at the 56th meeting, on 14 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 25 to 10, with 6 abstentions. See chap. VIII.

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, and General Assembly resolutions 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975, 32/130 of 16 December 1977, 34/46 of 23 November 1979, 35/56 of 5 December 1980, containing the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, and other relevant General Assembly resolutions,

Reiterating once again that the establishment of the new international economic order is an essential element for the effective promotion and full enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

Recognizing that co-operation among all nations on the basis of respect for the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of each State, including the right of each people to choose freely its own socio-economic and political system and to exercise full sovereignty over its wealth and natural resources, is essential for the promotion of peace and development,

Reiterating that the right to development is an inalienable human right and that equality of opportunities for development constitutes a prerogative both of nations and of the individuals who compose them,

Reiterating once again that the international community should accord, or continue to accord, priority to the search for solutions to the mass and flagrant violations of human rights of peoples and persons affected by situations such as those resulting from apartheid, from all forms of racial discrimination, from colonialism, from foreign domination and occupation, from aggression and threats against national sovereignty, national unity and territorial integrity, as well as from the refusal to recognize the fundamental rights of peoples to self-determination and of every nation to the exercise of full sovereignty over its wealth and natural resources,

Recalling also the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations 125/ and the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, 126/ which was the first devoted to disarmament,

Particularly concerned at the deterioration in the conditions of life in some regions of the world and at the adverse effects thereof on full enjoyment of human rights in those same regions, and especially at the very grave economic situation suffered by the African Continent, as well as at the terrible effects caused by the heavy burden which external indebtedness means for the peoples of Latin America, Asia and Africa,

Convinced that the drafting of a declaration on the right to development will make a useful contribution to the promotion and enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 39/145 of 14 December 1984, requesting the Secretary-General to transmit to the Assembly at its fortieth session a detailed report containing information on the progress made by the 1985/45. Status of the International Covenants on Human Rights 130/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Mindful that the International Covenants on Human Rights constitute the first all-embracing and legally binding international treaties in the field of human rights and, together with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, form the heart of the International Bill of Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1984/18 of 6 March 1984 and General Assembly resolution 39/136 of 14 December 1984,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the status of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, 131/

129/ E/CN.4/1985/10 and Add.1 and 2.

130/ Adopted at the 57th meeting, on 14 March 1985, without a vote.
See chap. XVIII.

131/ A/39/461.

Noting with appreciation that, following the appeals of the General Assembly and the Commission, more Member States have acceded to the International Covenants on Human Rights and to the Optional Protocol,

Recognizing the important role of the Human Rights Committee in the implementation of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol thereto,

Taking into account the work of the Sessional Working Group of Governmental Experts on the Implementation of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

Bearing in mind the important and increasing responsibilities of the Economic and Social Council in relation to the International Covenants on Human Rights,

1. Reaffirms the importance of the International Covenants on Human Rights as major parts of international efforts to promote universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms;
2. Appreciates that the Human Rights Committee continues to strive for uniform standards in the implementation of the provisions of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol thereto;
3. Invites all States which have not yet done so to become parties to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights as well as to consider acceding to the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;
4. Again invites the States parties to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to consider making the declaration provided for in article 41 of the Covenant;
5. Emphasizes the importance of the strictest compliance by States parties with their obligations under the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and, where applicable, the Optional Protocol thereto;
6. Stresses, in particular, the obligations of a State party availing itself of the right of derogation from the provisions of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights in accordance with article 4, paragraph 1, of the Covenant to inform the other States parties and the Human Rights Committee immediately, through the intermediary of the Secretary-General, of the provisions from which it has derogated and of the reasons by which it was actuated;
7. Notes with satisfaction that the majority of States parties to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and an increasing number of States parties to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, have been represented by experts for the presentation of their reports, thereby assisting the Human Rights Committee and the Economic and Social Council in their work, and hopes that all States parties to both Covenants will arrange such representation in the future;
8. Welcomes Economic and Social Council decision 1985/105 of 8 February 1985, by which the Council accepted the interim arrangement proposed by the Human Rights Committee under which the Committee would transmit to the Council, on a regular basis, the text of its general comments in accordance with article 40, paragraph 4, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, for consideration by the Council at its first regular session, and requests the Secretary-General to transmit the text of those comments to the Commission on Human Rights on a regular basis;

9. Looks forward to the report of the Secretary-General to be submitted to the Economic and Social Council at its first regular session of 1985 on the composition, organization and administrative arrangements of the Sessional Working Group of Governmental Experts on the Implementation of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and other bodies established in accordance with existing international instruments in the field of human rights, and welcomes the decision of the Council in its resolution 1984/9 of 24 May 1984 to undertake the review at an early date during its first regular session of 1985 to allow enough time for a full discussion of this important matter;

10. Urges the Secretary-General, taking into account the suggestions of the Human Rights Committee, to take determined steps within existing resources to give more publicity to the work of the Human Rights Committee, the Economic and Social Council and its Sessional Working Group and to improve the administrative and related arrangements to enable them to carry out their respective functions effectively under the International Covenants on Human Rights;

11. Encourages once again all Governments to publish the texts of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights in as many languages as possible and to distribute them and make them known as widely as possible in their territories;

12. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission on Human Rights, at its forty-second session, a report on the status of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and to include in this report information on the work of the Economic and Social Council and its Sessional Working Group of Governmental Experts on the Implementation of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights;

13. Requests the Secretary-General to consider ways and means, within existing resources, of assisting States parties to the Covenants in the preparation of their reports, including the awarding of fellowships to government officials engaged in the preparation of such reports, regional training courses and other possibilities available under the programme of advisory services in the field of human rights;

14. Decides to consider at its forty-second session an agenda item entitled "Status of the International Covenants on Human Rights".

1985/46. The administration of justice and the human rights of detainees -
Elaboration of a second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty 132/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolution 1984/19 of 6 March 1984 in which it invited the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to consider the idea of elaborating a draft of a second optional protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty, and to submit its views thereon to the Commission at its forty-first session,

Having examined the report of the Sub-Commission on the work of its thirty-seventh session, 133/

Recommends the following draft resolution to the Economic and Social Council for adoption:

[For the text, see chap. I, sect. A, draft resolution V.]

1985/47. Question of human rights in Chile 134/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and resolved to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur,

Noting the obligation of the Chilean authorities to respect and protect human rights in accordance with the international instruments to which Chile is a party,

Recalling its successive resolutions on the situation of human rights in Chile and in particular its resolution 11 (XXXV) of 6 March 1979, by which it appointed a special rapporteur on the situation of those rights, and its resolution 1984/63 of 15 March 1984, in which it agreed to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year,

Recalling also, among other resolutions, General Assembly resolution 39/121 of 14 December 1984 in which the Assembly expressed its indignation at the persistence of and increase in serious and systematic violations of human rights in Chile, and invited the Commission on Human Rights to take the most appropriate steps for the effective restoration of human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country, including the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year, 132/ Adopted at the 57th meeting, on 14 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XVIII.

133/ E/CN.4/1985/3.

134/ Adopted at the 57th meeting, on 14 March 1985, by a roll-call vote of 32 to 1, with 8 abstentions. See chap. V.

Having examined the Special Rapporteur's report, 135/ according to which the situation of human rights in Chile has continued to worsen, with evidence of an increase in serious violations, inter alia, of the right to life and physical and moral integrity and the right to freedom of expression, information, assembly and association, a situation aggravated by the prolongation of states of siege and emergency and by the adoption of legislative and administrative measures and the pronouncement of judicial sentences, with adverse consequences for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Observing with growing alarm the procedures leading to the death penalty practised by the military judges, the reinstatement of mass detention centres and the systematic repression by the authorities, especially against workers, country folk, students and indigenous minorities,

Deploring once again the fact that the repeated appeals of the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights for the re-establishment of human rights and fundamental freedoms have been ignored up to now by the Chilean authorities, which continue to refuse to co-operate with the Commission on Human Rights and its Special Rapporteur,

1. Commends the Special Rapporteur for his report on the situation of human rights in Chile, prepared in accordance with its resolution 1984/63;
2. Once again expresses its dismay at the suppression in Chile of the traditional democratic legal order and its institutions and their replacement by a Constitution which does not reflect the will of the people freely expressed and whose provisions considerably reduce the enjoyment and exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms through the institutionalization and consolidation of states of emergency and the extension of the jurisdiction of the military tribunals, all of which amounts to an integrated system negating civil and political rights and freedoms;
3. Expresses its indignation at the persistence of and increase in serious and systematic violations of human rights in Chile, as described in the report of the Special Rapporteur, and in particular at the violent suppression of popular protest in the face of the refusal by the authorities to restore the democratic order, which has led to mass arrests and large numbers of dead and injured;
4. Denounces once again the fact that the repressive and arbitrary activities of the police and security agencies, in particular of the National Information Agency (CNI), have gone administratively and judicially unpunished;
5. Reiterates its profound concern about the ineffectiveness of the remedies of habeas corpus or of amparo and of protection, owing to the fact that the judiciary does not exercise its powers of investigation, monitoring and supervision in this respect and performs its functions under severe restrictions which undermine its independence;
6. Once again calls urgently on the Chilean authorities to restore and respect human rights in accordance with the obligations they have assumed under various international instruments and to re-establish the principle of legality, democratic institutions and the effective enjoyment and exercise of civil and political rights and fundamental freedoms, and in particular:

135/ A/39/631, annex.

(a) To put an end to the régime of exception and especially the practice of declaring states of emergency, under which serious and continuing violations of human rights are committed;

(b) To investigate and clarify without delay the fate of persons who were arrested for political reasons and later disappeared, to assist and inform their families of the results of such investigation and to bring to trial and punish those responsible for their disappearance;

(c) To put an immediate end to intimidation and persecution, as well as to arbitrary and unlawful arrests and imprisonment in secret places, and to respect the right to life and to physical and moral integrity, halting the practice of torture and other forms of cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment which have in some cases resulted in unexplained deaths;

(d) To respect the right of Chilean nationals to live in and freely enter and leave their country, without restrictions or conditions of any kind, and to cease the practices of relegación (assignment to forced residence) and forced exile;

(e) To restore the full enjoyment and exercise of labour rights, in particular the right to organize trade unions, the right to collective bargaining and the right to strike;

(f) To respect and, where necessary, restore economic, social and cultural rights, in particular the rights intended to preserve the cultural identity and improve the economic and social status of the indigenous populations, including the right to their land;

7. Once again exhorts the Chilean authorities to co-operate with the Special Rapporteur and to submit their comments on his report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session;

8. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for a year and to request him to report on the situation of human rights in Chile to the General Assembly at its fortieth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session;

9. Recommends to the Economic and Social Council that it make appropriate arrangements to ensure that the necessary financial resources and sufficient staff are provided to implement this resolution;

10. Decides to consider at its forty-second session, as a matter of high priority, the question of human rights in Chile.

1985/48. Regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights in the Asian region 136/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling that the General Assembly in its resolutions 34/171 of 17 December 1979, 35/197 of 15 December 1980, 36/154 of 16 December 1981, 37/171 of 17 December 1982 and 39/115 of 14 December 1984 has repeatedly affirmed the value of regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights, 136/ Adopted at the 57th meeting, on 14 March 1985, without a vote. See chap. XI.

Recalling also General Assembly resolution 39/116 of 14 December 1984 on regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights in the Asian region,

Noting with appreciation the report of the seminar on national, local and regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights in the Asian region, held at Colombo from 21 June to 2 July 1982, 137/

Taking note with appreciation of comments received on the report of the seminar from Member States in the Asian and Pacific region,

Recognizing that regional arrangements may make a major contribution to the promotion and protection of human rights and that non-governmental organizations may have a valuable role to play in this process,

Noting the establishment in other regions of intergovernmental arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General 138/ to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights;
2. Invites States members of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific that have not yet done so to communicate their comments on the report of the seminar to the Secretary-General as early as possible, as requested by the General Assembly, and in particular to address the conclusions and recommendations of the report concerning development of regional arrangements in Asia and the Pacific, and thus facilitate further consideration of this question;
3. Invites the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, other regional economic and social commissions and regional intergovernmental bodies dealing with human rights to submit comments on the report of the seminar;
4. Requests the Secretary-General, in co-operation with the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific and Governments of the region, to consider the establishment of a regional depository centre for human rights materials for Asia and the Pacific;
5. Requests the Secretary-General to present an interim report to the Commission at its forty-second session incorporating further comments received from Governments on the report of the seminar;
6. Decides to continue its consideration of this question at its forty-second session under the agenda item "Further promotion and encouragement of human rights and fundamental freedoms, including the question of the programme and methods of work of the Commission; alternative approaches and ways and means within the United Nations system for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms".

137/ A/37/422, annex.

138/ A/39/570.

1985/49. Development of public information activities in the field of human rights 139/

The Commission on Human Rights,

Recalling its resolutions 23 (XXXV) of 14 March 1979, 24 (XXXVI) of 11 March 1980, 24 (XXXVII) of 10 March 1981, 1982/42 of 11 March 1982, 1983/50 of 10 March 1983 and 1984/58 of 15 March 1984, as well as Economic and Social Council resolution 1980/30 of 2 May 1980 on the development of public information activities in the field of human rights,

Noting General Assembly resolutions 36/58 of 25 November 1981, 37/191 of 18 December 1982, 38/116 of 16 December 1983 and 39/136 of 14 December 1984 on the status of the International Covenants on Human Rights,

Taking into account the relevant General Assembly resolutions concerning further promotion of human rights as well as those concerning questions relating to information,

Reaffirming that activities to improve public knowledge in the field of human rights are an essential part of the endeavour to fulfil the purposes of the United Nations set out in Article 1, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing that the United Nations system has a special responsibility under the Charter to be a centre for harmonizing actions towards these ends, and that the Commission on Human Rights has a co-ordinating role within the system in matters relating to human rights,

Believing that it is desirable to enhance the promotional activities of the United Nations system in the field of human rights in all regions, and to strengthen its capacity in this connection to reach people at all levels of society,

Reaffirming its belief that progress in the promotion and protection of human rights is assisted by programmes of teaching, education and information in the field of human rights, and noting the work which has been done by other organs of the United Nations in this connection,

Recognizing the value of national and regional public information activities in the field of human rights,

Noting the importance of making available simplified human rights materials in national and local languages,

Noting the proposal of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities for a study on the implications for human rights of recent advances in computer and microcomputer technology with particular attention to the potential uses of this technology for increased dissemination of the texts of international instruments on human rights and for further dissemination of information on human rights, including that produced by the United Nations,

139/ Adopted at the 57th meeting, on 14 March 1985, without a vote.
See chap. XI.

1. Requests all Governments to take appropriate action to facilitate through all available means, including the mass media, publicity regarding United Nations activities in the field of human rights, with particular reference to the work of the Commission on Human Rights and the expert bodies working in the field, and to accord priority to the dissemination of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights;

2. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the development of public information activities in the field of human rights; 140/

3. Requests the Secretary-General to issue as soon as practicable the proposed personalized version of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in the six official languages of the United Nations, to complete this task by the end of 1986 and to proceed thereafter, in co-operation with regional organizations and Governments, to the production of personalized versions of the Universal Declaration in national and local languages;

4. Expresses its appreciation for the list of basic reference works on human rights for use by United Nations information centres as well as other interested bodies, requests the Secretary-General to build up the collection of reference works within each United Nations information centre and in particular to dispatch existing United Nations material to each centre immediately, and requests agencies of the United Nations system whose material appears on the list of reference material to send copies to the Centre for Human Rights for distribution to each United Nations information centre;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to make greater use of audio-visual techniques designed for both children and adults and of computer technology in the preparation and distribution of United Nations material in the field of human rights;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to collect, within existing resources during the current budget period, relevant material in the field of human rights already prepared by specialized agencies, regional bodies, groups, non-governmental organizations and individuals with a view to preparing a basic human rights teaching booklet in the six official languages of the United Nations and to include this project as a priority item in a future biennial budget;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to examine ways in which the potential of the entire United Nations system, including the specialized agencies, might be used to assist in the dissemination of human rights material;

8. Requests the regional commissions to assist in the dissemination of human rights material prepared by the United Nations to Governments, non-governmental organizations and individuals, in particular in the distribution of copies of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other international human rights instruments in the languages of the regions, and to investigate ways of promoting co-operation within the regions to that end;

9. Invites Governments, United Nations agencies and non-governmental organizations to submit further comments and proposals for enhancing the promotional activities of the United Nations in the field of human rights;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the implementation of the present resolution to the Commission at its forty-second session, including a status report on the availability, in the official and other languages, of the principal international instruments in the field of human rights, the numbers of such instruments in stock and a summary of the activities of the United Nations information centres in this field;

11. Decides to continue its consideration of this question at its forty-second session under the agenda item "Further promotion and encouragement of human rights and fundamental freedoms, including the question of the programme and methods of work of the Commission; alternative approaches and ways and means within the United Nations system for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms".

1985/50. Question of a convention on the rights of the child^{141/}

The Commission on Human Rights,

Bearing in mind the draft convention on the rights of the child submitted by Poland to the Commission on Human Rights on 7 February 1978 ^{142/} the amended version of the draft submitted to the Commission on 5 October 1979 ^{143/} and the document submitted by Poland to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session, on 7 October 1981, ^{144/}

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 33/166 of 20 December 1978, 34/4 of 18 October 1979, 35/131 of 11 December 1980, 36/57 of 25 November 1981, 37/190 of 18 December 1982, 38/114 of 16 December 1983 and 39/135 of 14 December 1984 by which the Assembly requested the Commission on Human Rights to give the highest priority and to make every effort at its forty-first session to complete the draft convention and submit it, through the Economic and Social Council, to the General Assembly at its fortieth session,

Recalling also its resolutions 20 (XXXIV) of 8 March 1978, 19 (XXXV) of 14 March 1979, 36 (XXXVI) of 12 March 1980, 26 (XXXVII) of 10 March 1981, 1982/39 of 11 March 1982, 1983/52 of 10 March 1983 and 1984/24 of 8 March 1984, and Economic and Social Council decisions 1980/138 of 2 May 1980 and 1981/144 of 8 May 1981 and resolutions 1978/18 of 5 May 1978, 1978/40 of 1 August 1978, 1982/37 of 7 May 1982, 1983/39 of 27 May 1983 and 1984/25 of 24 May 1984, by which it authorized a meeting of an open-ended working group for a period of one week prior to the forty-first session of the Commission to facilitate and speed up the completion of the work on the draft convention on the rights of the child,

Aware of the fact that 25 years after the adoption of the Declaration of the Rights of the Child, ^{145/} the situation of children in many parts of the world still continues to be far from satisfactory, and that the full enjoyment by children of human rights calls for continuous improvement of the situation of children as well as their development and education in conditions of peace and security,

Situation of human rights in El Salvador

286. In connection with the consideration of this matter, the Commission had before it the following documents: E/CN.4/1985/18, E/CN.4/1985/NGO/4, E/CN.4/1985/NGO/13, E/CN.4/1985/NGO/38, E/CN.4/1985/NGO/52.

287. At the 42nd meeting, on 5 March 1985, the Special Representative, Mr. José Antonio Pastor Ridruejo, introduced his report (E/CN.4/1985/18) to the Commission.

288. On 6 February 1985, a draft resolution (E/CN.4/1985/L.12) was submitted by Costa Rica and Venezuela, reading as follows:

"The Commission on Human Rights,

"Reaffirming that all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and to fulfil the obligations they have undertaken under the various international instruments,

"Reaffirming also that it is one of the essential tasks of the United Nations to ensure the observance, promotion and strengthening of human rights among the Member States,

"Recalling that in resolutions 35/192 of 15 December 1980, 36/155 of 16 December 1981, 37/185 of 17 December 1982 and 38/101 of 16 December 1983, the General Assembly expressed its deep concern at the situation of human rights in El Salvador,

"Bearing in mind the Commission's resolution 32 (XXVII) of 11 March 1981 in which it decided to appoint a special representative on the situation of human rights in El Salvador, and its resolutions 1982/28 of 11 March 1982, 1983/29 of 8 March 1983 and 1984/52 of 14 March 1984 whereby it extended the mandate of the Special Representative for another year, requesting him to report, inter alia, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-first session,

"Taking note of the report prepared at the request of the Commission on Human Rights in resolution 1984/52 by the Special Representative,

"Recognizing that the new legitimacy given to the Salvadorian Government by the elections of May 1984, and the manifest will of that Government to establish a democracy upholding the rule of law and respect for human rights are helping to create a climate more propitious for national reconciliation,

"Observing that the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights reiterates in his report that the adoption of a new government policy there has brought a distinct reduction in the number of violations of human rights, which he welcomes, but that El Salvador is nevertheless still in a situation of war and wholesale violence, that serious violations of human rights are persisting, that the number of attacks on life and on the economic structure are still a matter of concern, and that the ability of the judicial system to investigate and sanction violations against human rights committed in the country is still quite unsatisfactory,

"Considering that El Salvador is a prey to armed conflict not of an international character in which the Salvadorian Government and the opposition forces are under an obligation to apply the minimum standard of protection of human rights and of humane treatment laid down in article 3 common to the 1949 Geneva Conventions and Additional Protocol II of 1977,

"Bearing in mind also the praiseworthy humanitarian work carried out in El Salvador by the International Committee of the Red Cross,

"Noting the statement by the President of El Salvador in the General Assembly that the main purpose of the mandate given to him in the elections of 6 May 1984 is to ensure social harmony and domestic peace in El Salvador, and the Special Representative's gratified recognition of the manifest intent of the new Government to establish democracy upholding the rule of law and guaranteeing full respect for human rights,

"Recognizing that dialogue is an important step towards reaching, in a generous and open-minded spirit, an over-all political solution which will make for genuine national reconciliation, put an end to the sufferings of the Salvadorian people and stem the growing flow of refugees and displaced persons within the country,

"Considering that the two rounds of conversation held are the first stage in a process for the solution of the political crisis in El Salvador,

"Concerned at the fact that certain sectors in the country do not understand what should be the purpose of the dialogue,

"1. Commends the Special Representative for his report on the situation of human rights in El Salvador;

"2. Expresses its concern at the fact that in spite of the substantial decline in the number of political assassinations, detentions and disappearances, no doubt as a result of the adoption of a new government policy, as pointed out by the Special Representative in his report, a critical situation still exists which militates against the enjoyment by the Salvadorian people of important human rights, including economic, social and cultural rights;

"3. Voices its profound concern at the effect which warlike action by the Salvadorian armed forces, and the damage to the economy of the country as a result of systematic attacks against the economic infrastructure by the guerrilla forces, is having on present and future enjoyment of important economic, social and cultural rights by the people of El Salvador;

"4. Calls upon the Government of El Salvador to continue to support the activities of the International Committee of the Red Cross and other humanitarian organizations as an earnest of its concern for respect for human rights in El Salvador;

"5. Reiterates its appeal to the Government of El Salvador and the opposition forces to co-operate fully with the humanitarian organizations dedicated to alleviating the sufferings of the civilian population, wherever these organizations operate;

"6. Welcomes the invitation to a dialogue made in the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session by the President of El Salvador on behalf of his Government, and the favourable reply to that invitation by the opposition forces;

"7. Calls for a serious and realistic dialogue which will help to strengthen and institutionalize the democratic system without excluding any sector of political life in the country;

"8. Requests all States to abstain from intervening in any way in the internal situation in El Salvador so as to avoid prolonging and aggravating the conflict, and to stimulate the pursuit of the dialogue until a just and lasting peace is achieved;

"9. Deplores the lack of any perceptible improvement in the capacity of the judicial system of El Salvador to investigate violations of human rights committed in the country and again urges the competent authorities to speed up the process of reform of the Salvadorian penal judicial system with a view to prosecuting and punishing speedily and effectively those responsible for the grave violations of human rights which have been and continue to be committed in the country;

"10. Recommends the continuation and intensification of the reforms necessary in El Salvador, including effective application of agrarian reform, for the solution of the economic and social problems which are at the root of the internal conflict in that country;

"11. Calls upon the competent authorities in El Salvador to amend any legislation or other measures incompatible with the provisions of the international instruments on human rights binding upon the Government of El Salvador;

"12. Decides to extend the mandate of the Special Representative for another year, in the hope that the situation in regard to human rights in El Salvador will have improved so substantially that no further extension will be necessary;

"13. Requests the Special Representative to submit his report on further developments in the situation of human rights in El Salvador to the General Assembly at its fortieth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session;

"14. Reiterates its appeal to the Government of El Salvador and to the other interested parties to continue to extend their co-operation to the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights;

"15. Requests the Secretary-General to give all necessary assistance to the Special Representative of the Commission;

"16. Decides to consider the question of human rights in El Salvador at its forty-second session."

human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

"Recalling the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid and other relevant international instruments,

"Recalling also the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples according to which the subjection of peoples to alien subjugation, domination and exploitation constitutes a denial of fundamental human rights, is contrary to the Charter of the United Nations and is an impediment to the promotion of world peace and co-operation,

"Recalling also General Assembly resolution 39/114 of 14 December 1984 entitled 'Measures to be taken against Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist activities and all other forms of totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial intolerance, hatred and terror',

"Deeply concerned that in the contemporary world there continue to exist racist, colonialist and other repressive régimes which, having inherited the totalitarian ideologies and practices of nazism and fascism, practice mass and flagrant violations of human rights and deprive the oppressed peoples of their rights to self-determination and free development,

"Deeply alarmed at the existence and intensification of activities of groups and organizations which propagate Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist ideologies and practices, call for the revision of the results of the Second World War and thus pose a threat to international peace and security, to the freedom and independence of peoples and to the realization of human rights,

"Noting that the totalitarian entities and régimes based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred or terror pursue the purpose of ensuring their domination and their economic and social privileges at the expense of other peoples or racial or ethnic groups, which they suppress and exploit,

"Bearing in mind that precisely these purposes were pursued by the Nazi and Fascist régimes which plunged mankind into the Second World War,

"Emphasizing that the doctrines of racial or ethnic superiority, on which the totalitarian entities and régimes are based, contradict the spirit and principles of the United Nations and that the realization of such doctrines in practice leads to wars, mass and flagrant violations of human rights and crimes against humanity, such as genocide, and creates obstacles for friendly relations among nations and for social progress in the world,

"Firmly convinced that the best bulwark against nazism and racial discrimination is the establishment and maintenance of democratic institutions, that the existence of genuine political, social and economic democracy is an effective vaccine and an equally effective antidote against the formation or development of Nazi movements and that a political system which is based on freedom and effective participation by the people in the conduct of public affairs, and under which economic and social conditions are such as to ensure a decent standard of living for the population, makes it impossible for fascism, nazism or other ideologies based on racism and racial discrimination, hatred or terror to succeed,

"Acknowledging with satisfaction the fact that many States have set up legal regulations which are designed to prevent the activities of Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist groups and organizations,

"1. Again resolutely condemns nazism, fascism, neo-fascism and other totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred or terror;

"2. Notes in particular the totalitarian nature of racist régimes which constitutes a domination based on doctrines of racial superiority and enslavement;

"3. Invites Member States to adopt, in accordance with their national constitutional systems and with the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, as a matter of high priority, measures declaring punishable by law any dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or hatred and of war propaganda, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist ideologies;

"4. Urges all States to observe strictly in their international relations the purposes and principles laid down in the Charter of the United Nations, which are aimed at maintaining international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations based on respect for the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples, and achieving international co-operation in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all;

"5. Appeals to all States that have not yet done so to ratify, accede to or give serious consideration to acceding to the International Covenants on Human Rights, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity and the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid;

"6. Calls upon the appropriate specialized agencies, as well as intergovernmental and international non-governmental organizations, to initiate or intensify measures against the ideologies and practices of nazism, fascism and neo-fascism and against war propaganda;

"7. Requests all States to submit to the Secretary-General their comments and information on the implementation of General Assembly resolution 39/114 and of the present resolution;

"8. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on this question to the Commission at its forty-second session, taking into account the comments and information of States referred to in paragraph 7 above;

"9. Decides to include in the agenda of its forty-second session an item entitled 'Measures to be taken against Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist activities and all other forms of totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial intolerance, hatred and terror'.

"Bearing in mind the loss of life and the suffering inflicted upon humanity by nazism and fascism in their criminal disregard for human rights,

"Recalling that the United Nations embodies the resolve of peoples to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and in the dignity and worth of the human person,

"Profoundly concerned that, 40 years after the conclusion of the Second World War, international peace and security continue to be threatened by war, in particular by nuclear war capable of destroying civilization on earth,

"Expressing its serious concern at the existence and the intensification of the activities of forces which call for the revision of the results of the Second World War and thus pose a threat to international peace and security, the freedom and independence of peoples and the realization of human rights,

"4. Calls upon all States widely and solemnly to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the victory of the freedom-loving peoples in the Second World War and to give expression to the respect felt by today's generations for the veterans who were the architects of that victory;

"5. Considers that the solemn celebration by all States of the anniversary should serve to mobilize the efforts of the world community to strengthen peace, remove the threat of a new war, particularly a nuclear war, and halt the arms race, and so secure the foremost human right - the right to life;

"6. Again calls upon all States that have not yet done so to take effective measures with a view to prohibiting any propaganda for war, in particular the formulation, propounding and dissemination of and propaganda for doctrines and concepts aimed at unleashing nuclear war;

"7. Calls upon the relevant specialized agencies, as well as intergovernmental and international non-governmental organizations to take part in the celebration of this anniversary and in this connection to intensify measures aimed at preventing the threat of a new war;

"8. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the Commission at its forty-second session a report containing information on the measures taken by Governments, specialized agencies and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the victory over the forces of nazism and fascism in the Second World War."

Resolution 1985/8. Situation of human rights in South Africa

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

3. By paragraph 11 of resolution 1985/8, the Commission on Human Rights decided to renew the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on southern Africa.

4. By paragraph 12, the Commission decided that the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts should continue to investigate and study the policies and practices which violated human rights in South Africa and Namibia. By paragraph 13, the Group was requested, in co-operation with the Special Committee against Apartheid, to continue to investigate cases of torture and ill-treatment of detainees and the deaths of detainees in South Africa. By paragraph 14, the Commission took note of the studies and findings of the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts on the relationship between apartheid and genocide in its report prepared pursuant to paragraph 14 of Commission resolution 1983/9 (E/CN.4/1985/14) and requested the Group to continue its investigation of the matter. By paragraph 15, the Commission renewed its request to the Government of South Africa to allow the Ad Hoc Working Group of Experts to make on-the-spot investigations of the living conditions in the prisons in South Africa and Namibia and the treatment of prisoners. By paragraph 16, the Group was requested to continue to bring to the attention of the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights, for whatever action he might deem appropriate, particularly serious violations of human rights in South Africa which might come to its attention during its studies. By paragraph 17, the Chairman of the Group was authorized to participate in conferences, symposia, seminars or other events connected with action against apartheid organized under the auspices of the Special Committee against Apartheid. By paragraph 18, the Group was requested to submit a report on its findings to the Commission at its forty-third session at the latest and to submit a progress report to the Commission at its forty-second session. By paragraph 19, the Commission requested the Secretary-General to provide every assistance within available resources to enable the Group to discharge its responsibilities in accordance with the relevant provisions of the resolution.

B. Relationship of the requests to current legislative mandates

5. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme: Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objectives of and strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6).

6. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 (A/38/6) and the proposed programme budget for 1986-1987 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (iv) Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding or conciliatory nature decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations, field missions and drafting of reports to responsible organs.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

7. In order to determine the programme budget implications of the resolution, the following assumptions were made:

(a) The Ad Hoc Working Group, composed of six experts, would meet for one week in London in July/August 1985 to organize and plan its work in relation to the terms of its mandate and to gather information relevant to its mandate;

(b) In January 1986 the Ad Hoc Working Group would meet in Geneva for two weeks to consider and adopt its progress report for submission to the Commission at its forty-second session;

(c) In July/August 1986 the Ad Hoc Working Group, accompanied by substantive administrative and conference servicing staff of the Secretariat, would carry out a field mission for a total duration of approximately four weeks and visit London, Dar es Salaam, Lusaka, Harare, Luanda and Geneva for the purpose of hearing testimony and gathering first-hand information on matters falling within its mandate;

(d) In January 1987, the Ad Hoc Working Group would meet again in Geneva for a period of two weeks to consider and adopt its final report for submission to the Commission at its forty-third session.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

8. No modifications are required in the approved programme of work for 1984-1985 since the activity appears under programme element 1.3. However, as stated in paragraph 23.13 of the programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985, no resources were requested as the mandate and related work programme of the Working Group are subject to review by the Commission.

E. Additional requirements at full cost

In paragraphs 2 and 3 of resolution 1985/20, the Commission on Human Rights decided to extend for one year the mandate of the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances, as laid down in Commission resolution 20 (XXXVI), and requested the Working Group to submit to the Commission, at its forty-second session, a report on its work, together with its conclusions and recommendations. In paragraph 9, the Commission requested the Secretary-General to ensure that the Working Group received all necessary assistance, in particular the staff and resources it required to perform its functions in an effective and expeditious manner, so as to reduce to the minimum any discontinuity in the activities of the Working Group.

B. Relationship of the requests to current legislative mandates

22. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II, "Programme: Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objective of and strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6).

(d) A staff member at the P-3 level would be required to provide basic services in connection with the activities of the Working Group, to function as secretary of the Group during its meetings and to assist in the preparation of the report to the Commission;

(e) Two staff members at the P-2 level, assisted by one secretary and two data entry/computer operations clerks would screen the information received from various sources, including the existing backlog, and then classify, analyse and prepare it in a usable form for the Working Group; they would also deal with all the correspondence with those involved in the procedure;

(f) Computer and word processing services would be required to organize and assess the collected data on missing persons and to reduce staff costs.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

25. No modifications are required in the programme of work approved for 1984-1985 and proposed for 1986-1987 since the activity appears under programme element 1.3. Resolution 1985/47. Question of human rights in Chile

A. Requests contained in the resolution or decision

111. By paragraph 8 of resolution 1985/47 the Commission on Human Rights decided to extend the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for a year and requested him to report on the situation of human rights in Chile to the General Assembly at its fortieth session and to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session.

B. Relationship of the requests to current legislative mandates

112. The activities referred to above fall under chapter 6, section II "Programme: Centre for Human Rights", subprogramme 1, "Implementation of international standards, instruments and procedures", the objective of and the strategy for which are described in paragraphs 6.20, 6.22 and 6.23 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989 (A/37/6).

113. The following programme element of section 23 (Human rights) of the programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 (A/38/6) and the proposed programme budget for 1986-1987 is directly affected by the activities referred to in the resolution:

Programme element 1.3 - Servicing special procedures including assistance to ad hoc investigatory or fact-finding bodies

Output: (iv) Substantive servicing of exercises of a fact-finding or conciliatory nature decided upon by policy-making organs during the biennium, including gathering and analysis of materials, consultations, field missions and drafting of reports to responsible organs.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

114. In order for the Special Rapporteur to carry out his mandate, the necessary arrangements will have to be made for him to gather relevant information. He will conduct hearings in the region of persons having knowledge and experience of the situation of human rights in Chile and, in the event that the Government of Chile extends its co-operation, the Special Rapporteur will visit that country for that purpose and to collect information.

115. The Special Rapporteur envisages that he would undertake consultations in Geneva at the end of May 1985 for a period of five working days. In July 1985 the Special Rapporteur, accompanied by two staff members from the Centre for Human Rights, would carry out a field mission to the region for a period of 10 working days. He would also visit Geneva during August/September 1985 for a period of five working days to finalize his report to the General Assembly. Subsequently, he would spend five working days in New York at the time of the submission of his report to the General Assembly at its fortieth session, followed by a second field mission to the region for a period of 10 working days in order to update his report. He would then visit Geneva for five working days in January 1986 to finalize the report to the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-second session, and would visit Geneva again to present his report to the Commission at its forty-second session.

116. It is estimated that a monthly average of 190 pieces of information (reports, including press reports, articles, letters, etc.) of varying size would have to be examined and a synthesis of them prepared for the Special Rapporteur. This would necessitate the recruitment, on a temporary assistance basis, of a junior professional staff member and a secretary to assist the Special Rapporteur in the gathering of information, compilation of material, and preparation of his report.

D. Modifications required in the programme of work

117. No modifications are required in the programme of work approved for 1984-1985 or proposed for 1986-1987 since the activity appears under programme element 1.3. However, as stated in paragraph 23.13 of the programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 (A/38/6), no resources were requested as the mandate and related work programme of the Special Rapporteur are subject to annual review by the Commission.

E. Additional requirements at full cost
